Introduction

Millions of people all over the world are asking these questions:

Is the world flat like a table?

- Or -

Is the world round like a ball?

These questions are driving people crazy. This book will take a look at some secrets in world history and secrets in science.

This book will try to make it easy for you to decide - is the world round like a ball or flat like a table?

The author David Ewing Jr has travelled to over 2500 cities and places worldwide and has done much historical research over 20 years and has great knowledge of world history.

The book will show the facts that researchers point out - and photo evidence is provided to show you that proper research has been done by David Ewing Jr to check what researchers and historians say.

Tartaria - Flat Earth

Is the world flat or is it round?

The photo above shows a Cable and Wireless map from around 1950. Many people in the past believed that the Earth was flat. This was the belief of many people in the Old World

In the New World, people are told that the Earth is round like a ball. What should we believe?

Many photos are shown from organisations like NASA. These photos show that the world is round like a ball. NASA - National Aeronautics and Space Administration is an agency of the Government of the United States of America

Researchers started an investigation to see if the information given to the people of the world by these organisations were true - Or -

Are they telling lies?

In the global education system, people are told that it is easy to prove that the Earth is round like a ball

The people of the world are told that space programs such as NASA has given photo evidence from space to prove that the Earth is round like a ball. People who say that the world is flat, are labelled - conspiracy theorists. The global media has insulted these people many times and many people have made jokes about these people and many people even say that they are mad people. There is a serious cold war between these 2 groups of people

Many people are seriously asking - can we believe the space programs such as NASA?

Researchers started by investigating the history of the so called space programs around the world. Researchers found a lot of suspicious mathematical data in the history of flight and the history of the space programs.

There was much mathematical data available and some numbers were very common in many of the major events in the history of flight and the history of the space programs and other related events.

Some of these events were not very famous, because the media and historians did not advertise them very much.

But many of the events in Russia and America and China, that had big media coverage, showed suspicious mathematical data. Below are some examples of what researchers discovered from the events that historians and the media advertised and promoted

In 1926, Robert H. Goddard launched the world's first modern rocket in the United States of America

Historians say that Robert H. Goddard is one of the founding fathers of modern rocketry, along with Robert

Esnault-Pelterie, Konstantin Tsiolkovsky, and Hermann Oberth

According to historians, Robert H. Goddard stated that October 19 is Anniversary Day. This day was the day of his greatest inspiration. Researchers took note of the number 19

Robert Esnault-Pelterie (November 8, 1881 – December 6, 1957) was a French aircraft designer and spaceflight theorist according to historians. He is one of the founding fathers of modern rocketry

Hermann Oberth was a German man who helped to develop the V-2 rocket for Nazi Germany. He is one of the founding fathers of modern rocketry

The V-2 rockets of Nazi Germany, was the beginning of modern space rockets and long-range missiles according to historians

According to many historians, the heart of the V-2 rocket had a powerful motor, capable of taking the rocket more than 80 km (50 miles) above the Earth in a trajectory of some 190 km (120 miles). Researchers took note of the number 19 in - 190 (the number 0 is classified as silent in many "gematria" calculations)

According to historians, the highest altitude reached by the V-2 rocket during the Second World War was 174.6 kilometres (108.5 miles or 109 miles) (on 20 June 1944). Researchers took note of the number 74 in - 174 and number 19 in - 109

Most historians do not say 108.5, but they normally write - 109. Some historians say that the V-2 rocket was the first man-made object in space.

According to NASA, the first man-made object in space was the Bumper-WAC rocket.

Different people have different opinions of where space actually begins, and different historians present different data regarding the history of rockets

Animals tests [edit]

The first animals sent into space were fruit flies aboard a U.S.-launched V-2 rocket on 20 February 1947 from White Sands Missile Range, New Mexico. [5][6][7][8] The purpose of the experiment was to explore the effects of radiation exposure at high altitudes. The rocket reached 68 miles (109 km) in 3 minutes and 10 seconds, past both the U.S. Air Force 50-mile and the Answer: Two dogs, Belka and Strelka, were launched into space on August 19, 1960 aboard the Soviet's Sputnik 5 spacecraft. They returned to Earth one day later, becoming the first living creatures to be launched into space and returned safely to the ground.

Historians say that many animals were sent to space at that time. The first living things to return from space, for Russia, were on the Sputnik 5. Sputnik 5 was launched on 19 August, 1960 with 2 dogs named Belka and Strelka

Ham the Chimpanzee, was a chimpanzee and the first non-human hominid launched into space 31 January, 1961. Ham died on 19 January, 1983

On April 12, 1961, aboard the spacecraft Vostok 1, Soviet cosmonaut Yuri Alekseyevich Gagarin becomes the first human being to travel into space. During the flight, the 27-yearold test pilot and industrial technician also became the first man to orbit the planet, a feat accomplished by his space capsule in 89 minutes.

Soviet cosmonaut Yuri Gagarin becomes the first man in space

Historians say that a Russian man named Yuri Gagarin was the first man in space in 12 April 1961

Historians say that Yuri Gagarin's orbit reached a maximum altitude of 187 miles, and at its lowest point was around 109 miles above the Earth's surface on that day

Historians generally say that - "in 1960, Gagarin was selected along with 19 other candidates for the Soviet space program"

On 14 April 1961, Gagarin was honoured with a 12-mile (19 km) parade attended by millions of people that concluded at the Red Square. After a short speech, he was bestowed the Hero of the Soviet Union, Order of Lenin, Merited Master of Sports of the Soviet Union and the first Pilot-Cosmonaut of the USSR.

On 14 April 1961, Gagarin was honoured with a 12-mile (19 km) parade attended by millions of people. It was a great media success story. The stories of rockets going to the space were very popular around the world

On the 20 July 1969, Commander Neil Armstrong and lunar module pilot Buzz Aldrin - both American - landed the Apollo Lunar Module Eagle on the Moon.

According to historians, Neil Armstrong was the first man to walk on the moon. He was an American man from the United States. The moon landings allegedly took place on July 20, 1969, a few years after Yuri Gagarin allegedly flew out into space. Yuri Gagarin was the first man in space and he was Russian

The moon landings allegedly took place on July 20, 1969. But what people do not realise is that historians state that Neil Armstrong and Buzz Aldrin arrived at the moon the day before.

According to historians, they entered the moons orbit on July 19, 1969

Michael Collins was an astronaut, who was with Armstrong and Buzz Aldrin. Michael Collins said that that Buzz Aldrin had eaten oatmeal 19 times since they left Earth. There was no reason to say this. It was almost like it was part of a plan

Neil Armstrong stepped onto the moon, around 109 hours and 42 minutes after the launch of Apollo 11

Four months after Neil Armstrong went to the moon. Another expedition went to the moon. The stories of going to the moon were very popular in the media same like the expeditions to Antarctica. This mission was called Apollo 12.

It was clear that the people who created the first moon landing were continuing the story while it was popular and in demand

Apollo 12 landed on the moon and Pete Conrad was the third man on the moon according to historians. This happened on the 19 November 1969

The first woman in space was a Russian woman named Valentina Tereshkova

Valentina Tereshkova flew on the spacecraft Vostok 6. Vostok 6 was launched on 16 June 1963. Valentina Tereshkova returned to Earth on 19 June 1963

According to reports by the time of COVID-19, regarding the budget of NASA, they say that: - "Since its inception, the United States has spent nearly US$650 billion (in nominal dollars) on NASA. When adjusted for inflation via the GDP deflator index the cumulative figure is closer to $1.19 trillion, an average of $19 billion per year over its entire history."

According to historians, the world's first space station was launched by the Soviet Union on 19 April 1971.

The space station was called the Salyut 1

One of the worst disasters in the history of spaceflight happened on January 27, 1967. It was the Apollo 1 disaster

The disaster happened at 23 hours and 31 minutes and 19 seconds - UTC - Universal Time

According to NASA, the last moon landing mission was the Apollo 17, which was launched on 7 December 1972 and landed back on Earth on 19 December 1972

Apollo 17 spent the longest time on the moon, more than three days - 74 hours and 59 minutes. Researchers took note of the number 74

The first joint international space mission between America and Russia (United States and Soviet Union), was the Apollo-Soyuz mission of 1975. It was a great media success, and seemed to part of a media show.

The Soviet spacecraft was called the Soyuz 19

The Soviet spacecraft started in Kazakhstan and the American spacecraft started in Florida. Both spacecraft met in space on 17 July 1975.

They had joint activities for 19 hours and 55 minutes.

The 2 spacecraft separated and went their own ways on 19 July 1975

The most famous story of the Apollo-Soyuz mission was the handshake between the Russians and the Americans. Historians say that this was done in space.

It was an amazing media story - a great media success. A handshake in space between 2 Cold War enemies -Russia and America

According to ESA, the European Space Agency, the famous handshake took place at the estimated time of 19 hours and 19 minutes UTC, on 17 July 1975

The ESA reported that the Americans and Russian would meet again in space - 19 years later

The Russians and Americans met together in space again after the 1975 Apollo-Soyuz mission. They met 19 years later in 1994 during the Shuttle-Mir Program

According to NASA, Mir was a Russian space station that was officially launched on 19 February 1986

The dimensions of the Mir space station were - 19 metres length, - 31 metres width, - and 27.5 metres height

According to historians, China took its first official step into space on 19 July 1964, launching a rocket into space that was carrying white mice

In the 1970's, historians say that China tried to develop a program to send people to space. 19 men were selected to be astronauts in 1971. The program failed

China then developed another space program known as - the Shenzhou program. Its major aim was to send people to space

Shenzhou 1 was the first flight of the Shenzhou program. Shenzhou 1 was launched on 19 November 1999, without any people on the spacecraft There number 19 seemed to appear in many of the major facts linked to the space programs. Researchers found many more examples, too many to mention here.

Many researchers concluded that the space programs were nothing but media shows that contained falsified data. Many researchers also concluded that photos of Earth shown by these people could not be independently verified

Researchers found many problems with the history and science that was being presented by the new global education system

Hot air balloons are very important in the history of flight. Researchers noted that the history of the world has been falsified but that is too long to mention here.

Hot air balloons gave mankind the chance to clearly see the Earth from above the ground. Hot air balloons also gave mankind the chance to leave the surface of the Earth

According to historians, the first hot air balloon flight was on 19 September 1783

The first flight with human passengers took place on October 19th 1783, which was tethered, and had Jean-Francois Pilatre de Rozier and Jean-Baptiste Reveillon on board. A month later, the first untethered flight took place on November 21st 1783, where the passengers traveled over five miles in 25 minutes!

The first aircraft to make routine controlled flights were non-rigid airships (sometimes called "blimps".) The most successful early pioneering pilot of this type of aircraft was the Brazilian Alberto Santos-Dumont who effectively combined a balloon with an internal combustion engine. On 19 October 1901, he flew his airship Number 6 over Paris from the Parc de Saint Cloud around the Eiffel Tower and back in under 30 minutes to win the Deutsch de la Meurthe prize. A big arrival in the history of flight was the Zeppelin airship

The first Zeppelin airship was made by Ferdinand, Graf von Zeppelin. The first Zeppelin airship, made its first flight on July 2, 1900. Researchers took note of the year 1900.

There was much evidence to show that the date was artificially created when the global calendar was modified during and after the Renaissance

The Wright brothers are - Orville (August 19, 1871 – January 30, 1948) and Wilbur (April 16, 1867 – May 30, 1912). Historians say that they invented and flew the world's first successful motor-operated airplane

Historians say that the Wright brothers made their first flight on 17 December, 1903. This was 19 years after the French Army launched an airship in 1884 called "La France"

According to historians, the Curtiss NC-4 was the first aircraft to fly across the Atlantic Ocean in 1919. It stopped several times along the journey.

Historians say that the Curtiss NC-4, took 19 days to go from New York State to Lisbon, Portugal

The first non-stop transatlantic flight was in June 1919 according to historians by - Alcock and Brown 16 May 2019 — The plane nosedived into the bog and the two men escaped from the cockpit after a 16hr 28min flight over 1,900 miles. They had carried post with them, making it the first transatlantic airmail flight. There were celebrations in Clifden and in Galway city and the Daily Mail presented the men with a £10,000 prize.

Historians state that Alcock and Brown, flew an estimated 1900 miles to cross the Atlantic

The first person to fly "alone" across the Atlantic, nonstop, was Charles Lindbergh in May 1927

Eventually in 1927, Charles Lindbergh would make his historic flight between New York and Paris to win the Orteig Prize. It was the first solo nonstop flight across the Atlantic and the first to link the two major cities. Lindbergh was, however, the 19th person to cross the Atlantic in an airplane. 15 Jun 2010

Charles Lindbergh was the 19th person to cross the Atlantic in an airplane

It was clear to researchers that the number 19 was very suspicious. Researchers looked further into this matter

According to historians, during the First World War, Germany tried many different methods to attack England. Zeppelin aircraft were used to bomb Britain, and this started on 19 January, 1915

The Hindenburg disaster happened on 6 May 1937

The Hindenburg was a Zeppelin airship

On 7 May 1937, the New York Times and other reports said that 19 people were dead from the disaster, this figure was later updated

The Hindenburg was named after President Hindenburg of Germany

At that time, Germany was ruled by Adolf Hitler. Hitler became the Chancellor of Germany on 30 January 1933, but Hindenburg was the President

President Hindenburg of Germany died on 2 August 1934

On 19 August 1934, Adolf Hitler became the Fuhrer of Germany after the death of President Hindenburg. Hitler then became more powerful. Hitler then had almost total control like a dictator

Many people do not believe the world maps shown to the world by NASA or any other space agency. Many people are asking questions about the Atlantic Ocean and the Pacific Ocean. The Bermuda Triangle is located in the Atlantic Ocean

The most famous story linked to the Bermuda Triangle is the story known as Flight 19.

On 5 December 1945, according to historians and the global media, five American military aircraft disappeared in the Bermuda Triangle. This story is known as Flight 19. This story was greatly advertised by the global media, and became a great mystery to millions of people worldwide

The story of Flight 19 and the Bermuda Triangle created many more questions for people around the world. Are the maps of the world actually telling the truth or are they telling lies?

This is what the current world education system shows to the people of the world

But - many maps from the past show that the world looks very different from what we are told today. Maybe the maps of the world today could be wrong or they could be telling lies. Maybe the maps of the past were wrong. Or maybe the world itself has changed. There were many questions

What was strange about many old maps is that they showed that North America was part of the Eurasian landmass

The photo above shows how America is joined to Europe and Asia according the Carta Marina Nuova Tavola

Many historians say that these maps were errors or mistakes, which is understandable. But many people around the world noticed that our current world maps look very suspicious

The coastlines of Africa and India and Australia seemed to have some similarities. They seemed to have been copied or artificially created

The coastlines of South America and Antarctica seemed to have some similarities. They seemed to have been copied or artificially created

The coastlines of eastern Russia and eastern Canada seemed to have some similarities. They seemed to have been copied or artificially created

If the coastline of either region is turned upside down (rotated 180 degrees) then it looks very similar. In the photo above the coastline of eastern Canada has been turned upside down to show this

Researchers found many other similarities in other regions of the world. Many people around the world now believe that the maps of the world do not show the full truth. Many people are questioning if there is land in other places that is hidden from the people of world.What if other civilisations are living in other places?What if the ruling powers of the world are living in lands that people do not know about?

Many people are questioning if there are lands in the oceans and if America and Russia are connected together as one land mass. The Old World Order, which many people call Tartaria, has collapsed.
The current ruling system has falsified history, which is too long to mention here. What if the Old World was invaded by another country which is located in a place which we don't know?

What if they came here and destroyed everything, and then deleted our history and removed our technology. Could this be the reason why there are so many lies in history and science? So that no one finds out that they are living in a land which we do not know about. Or what if they are not human? There are many different questions that people are asking

Another serious question people are asking is, what if the world is flat, and what if there is an ice wall in Antarctica? Many people are asking what could be beyond such a wall if it exists

Many people questioned if Antarctica existed the way that they were told. Was it a continent? Or was it a wall? There were many different questions. The story of the discovery and exploration of Antarctica was very suspicious and seemed to have been totally invented and falsified, same like the story of the space programs. The story of the exploration Antarctica has a lot of suspicious mathematical data

There are many people around the world who speak about Agartha or the Hollow Earth

Many people believe that Agartha is inside the Earth or is underground. Many people state that you can go to Agartha by going to the North or South Pole

Many people believe that a man named Admiral Byrd has been to Agartha

Historians state that Admiral Byrd was an American naval officer and explorer

Researchers found many problems with the events in the life of Admiral Byrd. His life story seems to have been falsified. The history of the world between 1900 and 1950 showed many lies which are too long to mention here.

Historians state that Admiral Byrd was the first to fly over the South Pole in November 1929. This journey took 19 hours to complete

Admiral Byrd made a Trans-Atlantic flight in 1927. When he returned to America, a celebration dinner was held on July 19

Admiral Byrd did his second expedition to Antarctica between 1933 and 1935. He left New Zealand on December 12, 1933

Admiral Byrd and his team saw the first icebergs on the borders of Antarctica on December 19, 1933. That day was important because a baby calf was born "allegedly" among the cows that Byrd took with him to Antarctica

Admiral Byrd's team spent 19 months on the ice of Antarctica during this expedition

The 1933 expedition to Antarctica for Admiral Byrd: was his second expedition. His first expedition to Antarctica was in 1928. Different people were involved with Admiral Byrd on these 2 events. A total of 18 men took part in both events. Including Admiral Byrd, the estimated total is 19 men Gescutterpolition alle X Antarctic Explorers Richard E X D A https://www.south-pole.com/p0000108.htm with other surplus ships of wond war i, was totally reconditioned and re-christened the JACOB RUPPERT. Needing a ship to ram through the ice pack, for a small sum Byrd was able to purchase the barkentine BEAR from the city of Oakland, California. The old wooden ship was built in Greenock, Scotland, in 1874. The ship was used for ten years as a whaler and was then purchased by the U.S. Coast Guard for use in the rescue of the U.S. Arctic Expedition led by Lt. A. W. Greely. The ship became the property of the city of Oakland in 1928 and after Byrd had the ship reconditioned in Boston, the vessel was re-christened the BEAR OF OAKLAND. The 703-ton BEAR OF OAKLAND was 200 feet long, had a beam of 32 feet and a draft of 17 feet, 2 inches. Using her auxiliary steam power, she was capable of nine knots.

Admiral Byrd bought a wooden ship to go through the ice for his Antarctica expedition. The ship was called the USS Bear (Bear of Oakland). A wooden ship? To go through the ice? The ship was built in 18-74

The USS Bear (Bear of Oakland) left New Zealand to go to the Antarctic base to join the second expedition of Admiral Byrd on 19 January 1934. The ship then went back to New Zealand again sailed south on 1 January 1935. She was so deeply laden with supplies and equipment that she had but 20 inches of freeboard. Bear arrived at Little America on January 19 and began the evacuation of the base. The work went on around the clock for two weeks, with Bear shuttling between the icepack and the steamer Ruppert, standing by offshore. The evacuation was completed and

The USS Bear (Bear of Oakland) left New Zealand again on January 1, 1935 to go to the Antarctic base. The ship arrived at the base on January 19, 1935

The USS Bear - sank on 19 March 1963

Admiral Byrd and his expeditions were big media shows at the time. Same like the moon landings were big media shows. Same like September 11 was a big media show. Same like elections are big media shows during this expedition and the others that ...

Many researchers believe that the adventures of Admiral Byrd were falsified and they were nothing more than a media show for that time.

September 11 was big for the people of the world in 2001. The moon landings were big for people in 1969. Coronavirus was big for people in 2020. The Antarctica expeditions were big for that time. The media advertised all these events and made sure that they became big

The first mention of a 1947 North Polar flight by the Admiral can be found in the book Worlds beyond the Poles: Physical Continuity of the Universe (1959) by a controversial self-proclaimed scientist, F. Amadeo Giannini. On page 13 of his book under the heading "The Changing Scene 1927-1947" he presents a list of things that Evidence showed that story of Admiral Byrd going to Agartha became famous around 1959. The story probably originated from the October 1947 National Geography Magazine. In that magazine, there was a story called: - "Our Navy Explores Antarctica". In this story Admiral Byrd speaks about the "Mystery Land beyond The Pole".

Regarding the story of Admiral Byrd: - the story claimed that he went to Agartha.

This story "claims" that: -Admiral Byrd supposedly found the entrance to the Hollow Earth or Agartha on 19 February, 1947

The number 19 and the number 74 seemed very suspicious to many researchers.

There were many numbers in many media reports for many different stories, but major headlines and major events, seemed to have the number 19

Researchers examined the science and information that was shown to the people of the world, - about the Earth that we live in. Researchers found a lot of suspicious data in this science

This is what people are told what the Earth looks like. They are told the Earth is a ball and has different layers inside

People study many subjects such as geology. In modern geology, the teaching is based on a round shaped Earth. What many people do not realise, is that most of the science is based on theories and is not actual facts. In fact most of what is taught, has no proper evidence at all to show that it is true

Is there a dragon inside the Earth? Is the Earth alive? What is a theory? A theory is a guess. A theory is an idea. A theory is not science. Many people do not realise these things

People are told that the inner core of the Earth has a radius of around 1220 kilometres, which is an estimated 19 to 20 percent of the radius of the Earth

Regarding oxygen in the air, the OSHA (Occupational Safety and Health Administration - a regulatory agency of the United States of America) has said that any atmosphere that contains less than 19.5 percent oxygen, is dangerous to human health

Another U.S. Government organisation called the Carbon Dioxide Information Analysis Center (CDIAC) has said that oxygen concentrations are currently declining at roughly 19 per "meg" per year. One per "meg" - is one molecule of oxygen out of a million molecules of oxygen. Many researchers question the methods of how such data was calculated and find it very fraudulent, but that story is too long to mention here

In 2019, the global media and global scientific experts reported that the levels of oxygen on the planet Mars had increased. NASA showed photographs to the world that showed what global experts claimed to be clouds. These clouds were an estimated 19 miles above the surface of Mars. Many researchers found such news to be very suspicious

The Stratosphere holds 19 percent of the atmosphere's gases. This has been reported by the NWS. The NWS -National Weather Service is an agency of the United States federal government into the air by early volcanoes. 7 Oct 2011

https://www.nationalgeographic.org > encyclopedia > atm... atmosphere | National Geographic Society

The bottom 30 kilometres (19 miles) of the atmosphere contains about 98 percent of its mass. This was reported by the National Geographic Society

People are told that the Earth's outer core is an estimated 1800 miles below the Earth's surface and that the inner core is an estimated 1900 miles below sea level

People are told that the pressure and temperature in the lower mantle range is from 1900-2600 Kelvin

People are told that there is seismic discontinuity at a depth of approximately 660 km and that this is the boundary between the upper and lower mantle.

Researchers took note of the number 660. The estimate distance was 660 km - researchers noted that this was only an estimate - a guess

Research found a lot of this data to be very suspicious. A lot of it was part of theories. Theories are guesses

A lunar month lasts 29.53 days. So after 12 lunar months, you're about about 354 days. This is short of the 365 days that it takes the Earth to orbit the Sun. ... It takes 33 years for the cycle of lunar years to get back to the original position. 3 Nov 2008

www.universetoday.com > lunar-year Lunar Year - Universe Today

The sun and the moon basically align every 33 years

300 years ago, European and American people used the lunar calendar, or a calendar linked to the moon.
Slowly, as the new world system took over, the calendar was changed. This meant that festivals and important dates were changed and even forgotten. Many people are not aware that the world order has changed the languages of the people of the world and changed many other things also.

Every 19 years, the Moon returns to exactly the same place (at the same longitude and against the same constellation) in the sky with the same phase

Many people around the world have noticed that the number 33 is being used by the global order as a symbol and is found in many events.

What people have not realised is that evidence shows that many numbers are being used. The evidence from world history shows that people had knowledge about the sun and the moon and the number 19 and number 33 - many centuries ago.

Researchers noted that the number 19 was used for the years between 1900 and 1999 Researchers discovered that this was no accident and was created deliberately.

For example:

1900 1901 1902 1903 1904 1905 1906 1907 1908 1909

1910 1911 1912 1913 1914 1915 1916 1917 1918 1919 1920 1921 1922 1923 1924 1925 1926 1927 1928 1929 1930 1931 1932 1933 1934 1935 1936 1937 1938 1939 1940 1941 1942 1943 1944 1945 1946 1947 1948 1949 1950 1951 1952 1953 1954 1955 1956 1957 1958 1959 1960 1961 1962 1963 1964 1965 1966 1967 1968 1969 1970 1971 1972 1973 1974 1975 1976 1977 1978 1979 1980 1981 1982 1983 1984 1985 1986 1987 1988 1989 1990 1991 1992 1993 1994 1995 1996 1997 1998 1999

The creation of the current calendar to show the 19th and 20th centuries was also no accident. The 19th century is the years between 1800 and 1899.

Researchers found much evidence to show that the current calendar was created during and after the Renaissance. If the current calendar was not created, then the number 19 would not be used for the years between 1900 and 1999. Also the century known as the 19th century would be given a different number. One thing that was clear to researchers was that the calendar of the world was changed for a reason. It was not normal to change it for no reason.

It seemed like the ruling world order, wanted the number 19, to be in the heart of everything. After the year 1999, people were using the number 20. To keep the number 19 in use, many events that happened were reported by the media advertising the number 19 very frequently. A big success to keep the number 19 visible in the 21st century was - the COVID-19 crisis. This crisis meant that the number 19 will be greatly visible in the 21st century similar to how it was visible between the years 1900 and 1999.

Since 2019, the words Coronavirus and COVID 19, are seen almost everywhere in the world. Researchers do not believe that this was an accident or a coincidence

Many people around the world found it hard to believe that the global calendar was changed during and after the Renaissance. Researchers looked further into this matter Many researchers around the world have found evidence to show that an estimated 1000 years of fraudulent world history, was fraudulently invented during and after the Renaissance.

This 1000 years of world history, is known as the Dark Ages or the Middle Ages. It is called dark, because we don't know much about the world, during this time in history. It is dark and mysterious and unknown

Researchers are not sure how many total years of fraudulent history were created. Most researchers agree that the entire history of the Ancient world was falsified. Regarding the Dark Ages, researchers are still investigating how many years of false history were fraudulently invented. Some researchers say 1000 years, some say 900 years and some say 800 years

Historians say that the date of the coin is from 1618. Historians claim that Sigismund was the ruler of Poland at that time. Researchers noted that the coin does not say 1618, but says i-618 or 618.

Was this coin from the year 618?

What is meaning of this letter "i"?

Historians say that the date of the coin is from 1709. Historians claim that Queen Anne was the ruler of England and Scotland and Wales and Ireland at that time. Researchers noted that the coin does not say 1709 but says J-709 or 709.

Was this coin from the year 709?

What is meaning of this letter "J"?

During the Renaissance the letter "J" was introduced

The widespread use of the letter "J" did not happen until after the mid-18th century

en.wikipedia.org > wiki > Jesus_(name) 🔻

Jesus (name) - Wikipedia

Jesus is a masculine given name derived from the name lēsous (Greek: Ἰησοῦς), the Greek Modern English Jesus derives from Early Middle English lesu (attested from the 12th century). The name participated in the Great Vowel Shift in ...

Jesus was known as lesu (or lesus) or Isa for centuries in Europe, until the name was changed to Jesus. The Arabic Koran was correct to say that the name of Jesus is lesu or Isau or Isa

The letter "i" and the letter "J" was found on many coins in many places. Researchers concluded that the letter "i" found in many coins represented the word Iseu or Isa (iesu or isa), - and the letter "J" represented the word Jesu or Jesus. The letter "i" was replaced by the letter "J" after the Renaissance

This now created a bigger problem. It means that i-618 could mean the year 618 AD - and - J-709 could mean the year 709 AD

Because world history has been falsified and modified, researchers are not sure about the dates on the coins. Coins were usually created by the rulers of the cities or the rulers of the region. After the Renaissance, Tartaria seemed to be collapsing. The people who took power in the city areas, most probably had nothing to do with the local population. And, most people at time of the Renaissance lived in the countryside and not in city areas

At that time, evidence shows that there was no such as thing as borders. Borders between nation states, were artificially invented recently. Most nation states borders were enforced after the year 1900. Before 1900, there generally was no such thing as borders, and most humans generally travelled freely throughout the world anywhere they wished. This seemed to be a legacy of the system of Tartaria or the old world order

He X G W 3 -> C @ A https://www.mudfloodconspiracy.com 360% ···· 🖾 🕸 ----Anatoly Fomenko also proves that when Joseph Scaliger, a chronologist, rewrote history for the pope, and purposefully invented 1000 years, converting the "i" for "lesus" to a "1", so that the dates of ancient coins where it says i656 would by historians today be read as 1656. This was purposeful for the pope and Scaliger, a French Jesuit whose father was named Julius Caesar, as they both invented new calendars. Scaliger invented the Julian calendar, named after his father. The Gregorian calendar of BC (before Christ) and A.D (anno domine/In the year of our Lord) was declared the new worldwide calendar by pope Gregory 13th in 1582.

Many researchers have shown much evidence that an estimated 1000 years of false history was created during and after the Renaissance. One of men who was involved in creating false history was a man called Joseph Scaliger who lived in the 16th century, - and his father mysteriously happened to be called Julius Caesar

Around 1582 it is said that the calendar was officially changed. Renaissance historians say that the original calendar that was used before, - was the Julian calendar. Most cities and states in Europe and around the world refused the new calendar. The calendar was slowly accepted, because the new global order slowly forced everyone to accept it.

Nation by nation, city by city, the new global order, slowly they replaced the people in power, everywhere they could. They invaded every nation in the world. This process started during the Renaissance and is continuing today

Researchers concluded that there must be a reason why the number 19 was being used by the ruling global order. Researchers accepted that the number 19 in many cases, could be there by coincidence, but in many cases, the number seemed to have been placed there deliberately. There are too many examples to show here

Historians say that an Ancient Greek man called Pythagoras, indirectly pointed out that the Earth was round like a ball

The global education system teaches that most of the Ancient Greeks by 500 BC believed that the Earth was round like a ball

The global education system teaches that the Ancient Greeks had proved that the Earth was round like a ball.

Historians say that an Ancient Greek man called Eratosthenes calculated the circumference of the Earth

Historians mention many Ancient Greek people regarding this topic - such as- Aristotle, Plato, Socrates, Eratosthenes, Pythagoras, etc. These names and others have been advertised by the global education system and global historians and by the global media. The media has successfully made many people around the world believe that these Ancient Greeks existed in the past

Researchers asked many questions. Who are these people? Who are these Ancient Greeks that the global education system speaks about? How did historians know what these people said in ancient times? Did they have any evidence to show what these Ancient Greeks did or said?

Researchers began an investigation into the history of Ancient Greece

What is this number 19?

Many people around the world believe that numbers and mathematics have special meanings. Sometimes this topic is connected to numerology or astrology or the Kabbalah.

Many people state that numbers are connected to angels. This is why they are known as Angel Numbers

Numbers seem to have important meanings in different situations and in different circumstances. This is something that people have said throughout history of the world. But modern historians say that this is nothing but superstition.

Many people around the world do not believe historians and they can feel that certain numbers in different circumstances have had an influence on their lives. Researchers decided to investigate this matter.

Gematria is a system which shows the hidden meaning of numbers and words. In the Kabbalah for example, gematria is very important especially when it comes to the name of God.

Mathematics is basically the study of numbers and their structure (algebra), and their space (geometry), and their changes (mathematical analysis).

Hindu-Arabic numeral system - Wikipedia

His book Liber Abaci introduced Arabic numerals, the use of zero, and the decimal place system to the Latin world. The numeral system came to be called "Arabic" by the Europeans. It was used in European mathematics from the 12th century, and entered common use from the 15th century to replace Roman numerals. Positional notation · Symbols · History

According to historians, these Arabic numbers have been used by Europeans since the 12th century. Researchers such as Anatoly Fomenko (a very famous professor at Moscow State University) and others, have presented much evidence to show that the history of Europe and the world has been falsified.

Next comes Algebra

What is Algebra?

After learning basic mathematics, people learn algebra in modern schools. Algebra is basically used in mathematics when we do not know the exact number in a calculation. This is what modern maths teaches

Algebra is from the 2 words AL and GEBRA.

Modern historians say that Algebra means - reunion of broken parts. Researchers do not agree with this. They believe that historians have told lies to hide a greater secret about numbers and their meanings

The most famous Angel, - is the Angel Gabriel. In the Arabic language, Gabriel was 2 words. GEBRA and EL. Researchers noticed the similarity between:

What was the connection?

Algebra is from the Arabic language, why Arabic?

During the Middle Ages, historical evidence shows that the Arabic language was the main global language that was used for education purposes throughout the world. The Arabic language was used for mathematics and science and literature and philosophy

The Arabic language that was used was not modern Arabic. Historians call this language - "classical Arabic" and that is why the people of the world do not realise where this language came from. It was the language of the book known as the Arabic Koran. The Arabic Koran must have been a very important book at the time.

The Middle Ages, according to historians is the time between the 5th century and the late 15th century. Researchers such as Anatoly Fomenko, have presented much evidence to show that the history of the world during this period is a total fraud. This period of time is an estimated 1000 years

According to historians, the Arabs translated much information from the Ancient Greeks and the Europeans later took this knowledge from the Arabs. Researchers decided to investigate to see if this was true or false

History shows that people were studying the language of the Arabic Koran in Europe during the Middle Ages. According to official history, students throughout the world studied the language of the Arabic Koran at the time. The language of the Arabic Koran was the most important language for education. Historians state that many of these educated people began to translate Arabic books into European languages, during and after the Renaissance. Many historians state that the Renaissance was probably the most important period of world history

The evidence shows that they did not translate the Arabic manuscripts correctly. There is much evidence to show that were destroying the books, almost as if they wanted to destroy the information. The Renaissance was the period when they were burned almost all the manuscripts that were written in the language of the Arabic Koran throughout Europe. Many Arabic manuscripts that did survive seem to be forgeries or were modified. There seemed to be a war going on against the Arabic Koran and its followers at the time in Europe.

In the Hebrew Bible there are 4 major words used for God - El, Elah, Eloah, and Elohim

In Judaism today, there are many words used for God such as Hashem and the Tetragrammaton

In the Arabic Koran, there are many words used for God, but one word that is known worldwide is Alah or Allah. Another word that is used in Islam is the word Alahum or Allahum

In Aramaic the word for God is - Elah or Alah, depending on how you wish to pronounce it

Researchers noted that different people wrote these words down in different ways in modern languages. Different people in different parts of the world, pronounce words in different ways

Alah and Elah were the same word that was written and pronounced differently depending on the people

Historians say that Jesus Christ spoke a language called Aramaic

What is clear is that Jesus Christ and his original followers used the word - Elah or Alah. Jesus did not speak English or French or Spanish. Most modern followers of Jesus Christ today, are no longer aware of this because of the changes in history. Many Christians today that use the word Elah or Alah - are normally people who live in the Middle East.

The main groups of people in the world today who call God - Elah or Alah, are the Jewish people and the Muslims

It is known that Hebrew, Arabic and Aramaic are very similar languages

Historians say that the modern Hebrew script, which is used today, came from the Aramaic script

Historians say that Aramaic had replaced Hebrew as the language of the Jewish people around 600 BC

Historians say that the language of the Arabic Koran -Old Arabic, replaced the Aramaic language during the Dark Ages or Middle Ages

Historians say that the Aramaic alphabet came from the Phoenician alphabet

Historians say that the Greek alphabet was created from the Phoenician writing system

History of the Arabic alphabet - Wikipedia

It is thought that the Arabic alphabet is a derivative of the Nabataean variation of the Aramaic alphabet, which descended from the Phoenician alphabet which among others, gave rise to the Hebrew alphabet and the Greek alphabet (and therefore the Cyrillic and Roman alphabets).

In summary - historians say that the Arabic alphabet came from Aramaic. They say Aramaic came from Phoenician. Modern Hebrew developed from Aramaic. Ancient Greek alphabet came from Aramaic. They say the Latin and Cyrillic writing systems came from the Ancient Greek (which came from the Phoenicians)

Researchers investigated to see if these things were true

Who are the Ancient Greeks?

The people of the world are told by historians that the Ancient Greeks had so much influence and helped to change the world

Historians say that these Ancient Greeks also at one time believed that the Earth was round like a ball and wrote about this topic

Historians teach the world that most important Greek city was called Ephesus. Historians say that the ruins of Ephesus are in excellent condition and can be seen in Turkey today

Historians say that many amazing historical artefacts were found in Ephesus. For example historians say that a bust of Socrates was found there. Historians say that carbon dating has proven the age of these items. Many researchers have shown that carbon dating is a fraud, but that story is too long to mention here.

The picture above also shows a coin. Historians say that this is a Roman coin that was found in Ephesus. Historians say that one side of the coin shows the Roman Emperor who ruled Ephesus when the Roman Empire took control. Historians say that the other side of the coin shows a local Ancient Greek image. Historians say things like - the Ancient Romans admired Greece for its higher culture, and therefore they accepted such things on their coins

Historians say that Ephesus theatre was built by the Ancient Greeks and enlarged by the Ancient Romans

Historians say that Ephesus theatre had an estimated seating capacity for 25,000 people. Researchers concluded that there was no seating capacity. They concluded that the place was a scam and was built recently

Historians say that Ephesus city had more than 250,000 people in the 1st century BC around the time of Jesus Christ. They say it was the second biggest city in the world at the time

Historians say that the Celsus library In Ephesus was the third biggest library of the ancient world

But - what about Saint Paul? He lived in Ephesus didn't he? That is what Christianity says. That is what historians say

Ephesus Theatre area today - almost no one lives there today in that area

Ephesus was the second biggest city in the world with over 250,000 people in the 1st century BC, according to historians

The same place in the late 19th century, almost no one lived there at that time also. In the photo above, workers can be seen working at the place. What were they doing?

Researchers concluded that these men were constructing the place. Rail tracks can also be seen at the place

The evidence did not show that hundreds of thousands of people had lived in the area in the past

There were modern metal construction rods at the place - why? There was a modern rail track there- why? The statues and sculptures and stones all looked totally new. The workers looked inexperienced

The stones in the photo all looked totally new. There things moving on the rail track. Because they were moving, they cannot be seen clearly in the photograph

It was clear that things were being brought to the place that were made elsewhere

Metal construction rods can be seen, that were being used to support the construction. Modern drilling holes can be seen in the blocks in many places

The stones in the photo above looked almost like they were new and not 2000 years old. There were drilling holes in the stones

Photo above shows a closer look at the drilling holes. Researchers concluded that the Ancient city of Ephesus was not thousands of years old and was a fake. The city was a scam and was built recently

In 2020, greater Athens had around 3 million people. Comparing Athens from 1880 to today, the city looked almost empty.

According to historians Athens was a great city around 3000 years ago. Researchers tried to imagine how many people lived in Athens 3000 years ago. The evidence did not show that many people lived in this city 3000 years ago

Historians state that Athens had around a 100 000 people in the city 2500 years ago, the evidence did not show this

Photo above is an engraving to show the area closer to the Acropolis between 1865 and 1910. Researchers noted that the city looked very small. Buildings can be seen with windows going under the ground floor.
Researchers estimated that a few thousand people lived in Athens in 1800, maybe around 10 000 people. In 1850, it is estimated that around 90% of the people in Europe and America lived in villages. Today almost 90% of the people live in cities

Researchers noticed an immediate similarity between the mining waste remains that can be seen worldwide and the hills that could be seen near the Acropolis in 1860.

In 1860 there was another tower in the Acropolis area that does not exist today. This tower did not look Ancient Greek at all. The place seems to have changed by 1904.

The drawing above by Sir William Gell in 1801

Not only was the tower not there anymore, there are many reports that the Acropolis was part of a mosque complex. The main building of the complex that is known as the Parthenon - may have been part of a mosque or a church or some other building. The mosque is not there anymore today. Historians say that the mosque was built after the Parthenon, but researchers say that the history of Ancient Greece has been invented

Many researchers began to suspect that the Acropolis was not ancient at all and that its true history has been falsified. There was much evidence to show the falsification of Ancient Greek monuments Below is the Ancient Greek Temple of Artemis at Sardis in Turkey - as seen today - and you can see the place looks a little old from the different colours

Before 1910 - the temple was supposedly buried underground. Between 1910 and 1914 - western archaeologists went there and dug the place out. They claimed that they found many beautiful historical artefacts at the site

Below are some photos - showing when they dug the place out

Researchers noticed that the columns looked almost brand new - apart from the colouring of mud. The place was supposed to be buried for hundreds of years and looked as if it was new.

In the photo above - once again - the columns looked as if they were brand new. But - researchers noted that there were strange train tracks - that were mysteriously underground. The train tracks went right into the mud wall. Did the Ancient Greeks have train tracks?

This place was found buried - what are train tracks doing underground?

In the photo above - researchers noted that - the columns looked brand new - and also the mud or soil - also looked brand new and fresh

Researchers also found photos showing workers bringing fresh mud or fresh soil - and carefully placing it at the site

In the photos above and below - it can be clearly seen that workers have placed the soil or mud there

Researchers examined the photos and concluded - that the workers buried the columns first - and then they dug the place out. Researchers concluded that the columns were not old - and they were buried and then the place was carefully dug out. This then explained why the columns looked new - and why the soil or mud looked new and fresh. This also explained why the train tracks were buried underground. Researchers concluded that the site was not ancient or historic - but a fake

Researchers found similar problems with other so called ancient sites, there seemed to be a lot of fraud going on Researchers such as Anatoly Fomenko and others have stated that the history of the Ancient Greeks is a fraud. Researchers have shown evidence that the history of Ancient Greece was fraudulently invented during and after the Renaissance period

It was clear from the evidence that Ancient Greece did not exist. It was a lie.

It was nothing more than a big joke. The coins and statues and artefacts of Ancient Greece, all seemed to be been falsely created along with the false monuments

But - what about Saint Paul? What about Early Christianity and the stories in the Bible? The Bible also says that Saint Paul went to Athens and gave a lecture there.

The evidence showed that Athens did not exist. The story of Saint Paul and the Apostles and much of the New Testament in the Bible was falsified to hide the true history of Jesus Christ, but that is another story, too long to mention here.

It was clear that the people who falsified world history were linked to the people who falsified the stories in the Bible. It was also clear that these people were linked together with the people who created and invented the non-existent Ancient Greece.

These projects cost them millions and many people were involved worldwide. It was clearly organised by the new global system. It all seemed like it was part of a plan

The New Testament in the Bible was written in the Ancient Greek language. If Ancient Greece did not exist, then who wrote these books? If there was no Ancient Greece, then this means there was no Ancient Greek language. This raises a new question, where did the Greek language come from? Who created it and used it to write the New Testament?

It is strange that these books are written in Ancient Greek when Jesus himself spoke another language. It does not make sense that all these so called Christian books are not written in the language of Jesus Christ. It was clear that the original books of Christ were either destroyed or hidden from the world. Imagine all the books in America are written in Chinese or Japanese and not in English

Historians say that the Greek alphabet and Aramaic alphabet were created from the Phoenician writing system.

The Ancient Greeks did not exist, so this story seems to be a lie. This created many questions: - where did the Latin and Cyrillic alphabets and languages come from? Did the Aramaic alphabet really come from the Ancient Phoenicians?

What about the Ancient Phoenicians?

Phoenician Religion -- Pagan - Phoenicia.org

Phoenician religion was inspired by the powers and processes of nature. Many of the gods they worshiped, however, were localized and are now known only under their local names. A pantheon was presided over by the father of the gods, but a goddess was the principal figure in the Phoenician pantheon.

Historians say that the Phoenicians were pagans with many different gods

Historians say that the Phoenicians lived throughout the Mediterranean Sea region and they were great sailors

Researchers such as Anatoly Fomenko (a very famous professor at Moscow State University) and others have stated that the history of the Phoenicians was lie and was invented during and after the Renaissance.

Many researchers have shown that the Phoenicians did not exist at all. Many researchers have stated that the Phoenicians were actually the Venetians from the city of Venice in Italy

Indeed, the Bible describes the "ancient" Phoenicia as a powerful nation of seafarers that reigned over the entire Mediterranean, with colonies in Sicily, Spain, and Africa. "Ancient" Phoenicians traded extensively with faraway lands, as can be seen in the book of Ezekiel, chapter 27. All of these Biblical criteria are met by the mediaeval Venetian republic, a well-known and powerful state.

Anatoly Fomenko has said that - the Bible describes the Phoenicians as a powerful nation of seafarers that controlled the entire Mediterranean, with colonies in Sicily, Spain, and Africa. The Phoenicians traded with faraway lands, as mentioned in the book of Ezekiel, chapter 27. All of these Biblical criteria are met by the mediaeval Venetian republic

Phoenicia - World History Encyclopedia

Historians say that the cities of Tyre and Sidon were the 2 most powerful states of Phoenicia. Historians say that these cities are located in Lebanon in the Middle East

Anatoly Fomenko pointed out that in the year 1818, there was only 1600 people in the city of Sidon. It was not even a city, - it was just a smaller than a village

From the research of Anatoly Fomenko, other researchers pointed out that there was no proper evidence to show that Ancient Sidon ever existed, and the region showed problems for large ships to access the city Researchers presented much evidence to show that history of the Phoenicians was a fraud and was invented during and after the Renaissance, but it is too long to mention here.

If the Phoenicians did not exist, then where did the Greek and Aramaic and Hebrew and Arabic writing systems come from? If the Greeks did not exist, then where did Cyrillic and Latin come from?

Researchers have shown that most of the languages in the world today were created only in the last 200 years and that the language of the Arabic Koran was the dominant language in the world before the Renaissance. That story is too long to mention here

It seemed clear that historians wished to say that the language spoken by Jesus Christ and by the Prophet Moses and the Prophet Mohamed came from a pagan history. This seemed like a major reason why the nonexistent Ancient Phoenicians were artificially invented

Historians wanted to say that Adonai (a word used by Jewish people) came from a Phoenician pagan system. Historians wanted to say that Elah - Alah, the God of Jesus Christ and the Prophet Moses and the Prophet Mohamed was originally from a pagan system. It is known that Venetian soldiers were mainly from Italy and from Germany

Situated on the Adriatic Sea, Venice had always traded extensively with the Byzantine Empire and the Muslim world. By the late 13th century, Venice was the most prosperous city in all of Europe. At the peak of its power and wealth, it had 36,000 sailors operating 3,300 ships, dominating Mediterranean commerce.

2. Italian and German swords with Arabic lettering.

In July 1999 about a dozen of Italian and German swords of the XIII-XIV century were exhibited in the Royal Ontario Museum, Toronto, Canada. Two of them can be seen in figs. 3.10 and 3.11. One cannot help noticing that Italian and German swords are decorated with Arabic lettering, for some reason lacking so much as a single word in either German or Italian (at least, we haven't found anything of the kind).

Anatoly Fomenko pointed out that in 1999, the Royal Ontario Museum, in Toronto, Canada, displayed many Italian and German swords from the 13th -14th century. The swords had decorations with Arabic writing. Historians state their theories for this, but researchers do not believe them because the evidence clearly shows that Arabic was the language of education in Europe

They had no German or Italian writing on them at all. The swords of all these German and Italian soldiers had Arabic writing. Imagine the soldiers of the American army with Chinese writing on their clothes and no English writing at all. Imagine the soldiers of the American army with Nazi swastikas on their clothes and no American flag. World history seemed like a big joke

As a matter of fact, thousands of swords and other related artefacts have been found with Arabic writing on them throughout Europe. This was not a surprise to many researchers. Bearing False Witness: Debunking centuries of anti-Catholic ...

Rodney Stark · 2017 · Religion

23 When Pope Urban II read this letter, he was determined that it be answered in deeds. ... as nobility and clergy, the pope gave one of the most effective speeches of all ... detailing the torture, rape, and murder of Christian pilgrims and the defilement of churches and holy places: Many of God's churches have been violated.

As a matter of fact, thousands of artefacts have been found all over Europe with Arabic writing, but most historians make excuses for such things.

It is so strange that Arabic writing has been found on the swords of German and Italian soldiers. It is so strange that Arabic writing has also been found on the clothes of the Holy Roman Emperor who ruled Central Europe. It is so strange that thousands of historical items with Arabic writing have been found all over Europe. It is so strange that the language of education and science was in the language of the Arabic Koran.

Why is it strange?

Because historians have told the world that the Muslims and the Arabs were torturing and raping and murdering European Christians, but evidence showed that the Europeans seemed to have Arabic writing all over the place. It was clear that historians were telling lies Normally, many of these historical items are not displayed in museums, and a lot of evidence shows that millions of historical items from Europe have been modified or destroyed. That is another story which is too long to mention here

Anatoly Fomenko and other researchers pointed out that it was clear that from the evidence that Arabic was spoken in Germany and Italy at the time

Anatoly Fomenko explains that historians had created a fake story called the Mongolian invasion of Europe by the descendants of Genghis Khan, to hide the true history of Europe. Historians say that these Mongols invaded Europe, Africa, the Middle East, Persia, India, China, South East Asia, and that these Mongols ruled most of the world at the time

Researchers say that this history is a lie, and that this empire was not the empire of the Mongols, but the Empire of Tartaria. Evidence shows that Tartaria actually was the dominant power that ruled most of the world before the Renaissance

Anatoly Fomenko and other researchers have shown much evidence that Arabic was spoken in this empire that ruled most of the world at the time, but that is another story which is too long to mention here

A coronation mantle is the clothes that Kings or Emperors wear

The photo above shows the coronation mantle of the Holy Roman Emperors. The mantle is decorated with Arabic writing. There is no German or Latin writing on it at all

Many historians have made pathetic excuses for such things, and say that the great Holy Roman Empire and the great German people must have accidentally used the language of the Muslim Arab enemy of the time. Imagine the Presidents of the United States wearing Nazi style clothing same like Hitler - accidentally

The history of Germany and Central Europe was clearly a lie. Could not the Holy Roman Emperors find any other clothes? Did no one in Europe say anything about the clothes of their great Emperors for hundreds of years? Or - was Arabic the language of Europe?

If the President of the United States of America wore Nazi style clothes, there will be a war against him

Historians give a fabricated story that maybe it came from Sicily. But evidence clearly shows that the history of the Holy Roman Empire has been totally falsified. Evidence shows that lies were artificially invented to hide the true history of Germany and Central Europe. The evidence clearly showed that the Arabic language was spoken in Europe

The Holy Roman Empire ruled Europe during the Middle or Dark Ages. It ruled most of Central and Western Europe

It included countries such as the Netherlands, Germany, France, Belgium, Luxembourg, Switzerland, Italy, Czech Republic, and Austria

Historians say that the Holy Roman Empire lasted for a thousand years from 800 AD to 1806 AD. Historians say that Europe was Christian at the time and the Holy Roman Empire took part in the Crusader wars against Islam. According to historians, the religion of Islam and the Arabs were the most hated enemy at the time

Historians say that Muslims had killed many Europeans during the Crusades, but the evidence shows that leader of Central Europe, the leader of the Holy Roman Empire was wearing clothes with Arabic writing.

Anatoly Fomenko has shown evidence that this history is a lie and that it was artificially invented to hide the true history of Europe. Below are some graphs by Anatoly Fomenko showing that the history of the Holy Roman Emperors and the history of central Europe was a lie

Below is a graph showing the similarity between the Holy Roman Empire between the 10 and 13 centuries and the Kingdom of Judah and the number of years they supposedly ruled.

Researchers point out that - we can clearly see that one nation copied another or that maybe they copied from another original source. Who copied who and why and of course - when did they do this and what was their reason to do this?

The lines show how many years a king ruled (the number of years are in brackets) - the lines are longer if the king ruled longer. You will notice that the timelines of the kings of the 2 different nations - are similar - that they are practically the same kings - except that their names were changed to create fake histories for different countries.

Researchers point out that here again - it can be clearly seen that one nation copied another. Who copied who and why? And which was the original? And was the original one true - or was that falsely created also?

Below is a graph showing the similarity between the Kings of Russia and the Habsburg Kings of Germany and the number of years they supposedly ruled.

Fake historical relics and artefacts have been created and placed in museums in order to match the fake history that was created for Europe

It was clear that history has been falsified. Evidence clearly showed that Arabic was the major language of Europe and the world, before the old world order was destroyed

Although current relations between Jews and some Arabic-speaking countries are a bit strained, to say the least, it was not always so. In fact, there was a time when most Jews lived in Arabic-speaking countries, and thus many Jewish books were written in Arabic—or to be more precise, Judeo-Arabic, which was either the Jewish dialect of Arabic or classical Arabic written with Hebrew letters. Most of these works were later translated into Hebrew and other languages, becoming foundational Jewish classics—to the point that many people are unaware that these works were originally written in Arabic.

It is a fact that many Jewish books were written in Arabic, but people are not aware of this. Most of these books were later translated into Hebrew

The photo above shows a book known as the -Commentary on the Mishnah. This book is said to be written by Rabbi Moshe - Moses ben Maimonides

Rabbi Moshe - Moses ben Maimonides is known as Rambam. Historians say that he was born in Spain and lived between 1136 and 1204

Rabbi Moses ben Maimonides is often called the second Moses by many people

Historians say that after Rabbi Moses ben Maimonides wrote the Commentary on the Mishnah - he later wrote a book called the Mishneh Torah. But this book was written in Hebrew, at a time when evidence shows that the global language was Arabic. Hebrew and Arabic are very similar, but many researchers found this to be very strange. Historians give many explanations for this, but researchers found problems with this history.

Why was the written language of this new book suddenly changed, - from Arabic to Hebrew? Or - are the books forgeries? It really made no sense that the book was written in Hebrew when Arabic was the language of education

Historians say that the Hebrew language died around the 2nd century AD. Historians say that the Hebrew language was dead for 1700 years.

Modern Hebrew only started to be spoken as a language in the late 19th century. This was the time when most modern languages were created around the world. Historians claim that Hebrew was spoken many centuries ago, but researchers found no evidence for this, the history of the ancient world was a forgery

Researchers began to ask - who was Rabbi Moses ben Maimonides and when did he actually live? Researchers also began to investigate if these books were actually written by Rabbi Moses ben Maimonides, and when were they actually written. It really made no sense for someone to write books in a dead language

Some people are investigating if the story of Rabbi Moses ben Maimonides was copied from the story of the Prophet Moses.

Many researchers believe that the story of the Prophet Moses may have been copied by historians and other people to create a second person and to add new books to the original religion of the Prophet Moses Many people believe that the some of the different versions of the Old Testament or Torah or Tanakh may have been written by the people who invented the history of Rabbi Moses ben Maimonides. Many people believe that this may have been done in order to destroy the Original Torah and to destroy the true history of the Prophet Moses

Researchers discovered that there was a great war against the followers of the man known as the Prophet Moses and book known as the Torah. This war has been happening for many centuries and many Jewish people in the past have suffered because of this war. The story of this war is too long to mention here

There are many Jewish people around the world who reject the works of Rabbi Moses ben Maimonides. For example the Karaite Jews reject the Mishnah and the Talmud. Many Jewish people around the world believe that the Mishnah and the Talmud are part of a conspiracy to destroy the Original Torah of the Prophet Moses.

Many Christians and Muslims around the world accept the Original Torah but they reject the Mishnah and the Talmud

Before the Renaissance, most of the books in Europe were written in the language of the Arabic Koran. These books contained most of the history and the science and technology of the world.

There are many amazing buildings around the world which many people call Tartarian. The science and technology of how these buildings were constructed were written in these books. Historians say that these books were first translated into Hebrew and then into Latin and were then translated into modern European languages. The original Arabic books were hidden away by the people in power or they were burnt. The evidence shows that the languages of Europe were replaced by new languages in the last few hundred years

Many people have found thousands of English words linked to the Hebrew language. Many people are asking if the English language originated from the Hebrew language. This is strange because the Hebrew language was dead for around 1700 years. How can English originate from a language that was dead and not used for 1700 years?

It is clear that Hebrew and Arabic are similar. What no one wishes to say is that these words that are found in the English language are found in Hebrew and in Arabic. Arabic was the global language for centuries until the new world system took control.

The evidence shows that the Arabic language was the most important language in Europe and the world before the Renaissance. Researchers concluded that the English language originated from Arabic. It is impossible for any language to originate from a language that was dead for 1700 years. The evidence clearly showed that the Phoenicians did not exist and the Ancient Greeks did not exist, and there was no ancient Aramaic language and there was no ancient Hebrew language, everything seemed like a big joke

Most European languages have thousands of words that originated from Arabic. Of course historians will say that these words originated from the Hebrew language, to match the falsified history

Evidence has shown that the current global order does not like the Arabic Koran. It was clear to many researchers that one of the biggest reasons to falsify history was to destroy any evidence of the great history of the language of the Arabic Koran

What is clear is that the language of the Arabic Koran, must have existed before the Arabic Koran was written. Where did this language come from if the Phoenicians did not exist?

The Prophet Moses is known as Moshe Rabbeinu, which means Moses our Rabbi - or - Moses our Teacher

Jesus Christ was known as a Rabbi

A rabbi is a teacher or master. A Rabbi teaches many subjects such as science and history and mathematics and many other subjects, but according to the ways of God

The Arabic language, calls itself - Arabi

It is clear that Arabic - or - Arabi was the dominant language of the world before the Renaissance. It was the language for education, for maths and science and technology at the time.

The Arabic language existed before the Arabic Koran was written. The evidence showed that the history of the Phoenician language and Aramaic language was falsified. The evidence shows that Arabic - or - Arabi was the dominant global language in the past. Researchers concluded that Arabic - or - Arabi, was the original language of the Rabbis The books of Europe and Africa and Asia were mostly written in Arabic. It seemed clear that the language of the Old World was Arabic - or - Arabi and that the Prophet Moses and Jesus Christ probably spoke this language

Therefore the original Book of Moses known as the Torah, and the original Book of Christ known as the Angel (Evangel) were probably written in the same language as all the other books of that time. This language was Arabic - or - Arabi

Researchers are investigating this matter further

Historians say that the Prophet Moses spoke Hebrew

Historians say that Jesus Christ spoke Aramaic

Historians say that the Prophet Mohamed spoke Arabic

It was clear that the history of the Phoenicians and the Aramaic language and the Hebrew language, had been falsified. Hebrew and Aramaic and Arabic were originally the same language. It was the language known as Arabi, the language of the Rabbis, the language of the teachers or the masters, the language of education and science

The language known as Arabi or the language of the Rabbis, probably existed before the Prophet Moses and before Jesus Christ and before the Prophet Mohamed, researchers are investigating this matter

It was probably the language of a man known as the Prophet Abraham - the Great Father of all these people

Many people seem to have forgotten that -:

Abraham is the great grandfather of the Prophet Moses

Abraham is the great grandfather of Jesus Christ

Abraham is the great grandfather of the Prophet Mohamed

All these people are related and are from the same family, so naturally they probably spoke the same language also. The evidence shows that Aramaic and Hebrew and Arabic were originally the same language

Imagine historians in the future - imagine if they said: -

The Americans spoke Australian The Australians spoke English The Canadians spoke American The English spoke Canadian

Maybe people in the future may believe such things - if history is changed and falsified in the future

The Shema is regarded by many Jews as the most important prayer in Judaism. This is because it reminds them of the key principle of the faith - there is only one God. This is a monotheistic principle. This part of the Shema is taken from the Torah : Hear O Israel, the Lord our God, the Lord is One.

https://www.bbc.co.uk > bitesize > guides > revision Shema and Amidah - Ways of Jewish living - Edexcel - GCSE ...

In the Jewish religion, the most important prayer is known as the - Shema.

The Shema is also seen as a declaration of faith

Hear O Israel, the Lord our God, the Lord is One

Shema Israel Adonai Eloheinu Adonai Echad

The meaning of the word Echad or Ehad is - number One

The meaning of the word Eloheinu is - our God. Elah means God

The Gospel of Mark says:

Jesus Christ said that the greatest commandment is the Lord our God, the Lord is One

One of the greatest prayers in Islam is the prayer known as Qul Huwa Alahu Achad

This prayer is also seen as a declaration of faith

The meaning of the word Achad or Ahad is - number One

Say - He is God the One

Qul Huwa Alahu Ahad

Researchers noted that the style of writing between modern Arabic and modern Hebrew looked different, but this had more to do with font and handwriting style and history, which is another long story

The English word for God is - God

The Persian word for God is - Khod or Khoda or Khuda

The word - God - is used in England and America

The word Khod is used in Iran and Pakistan and India

It is known that the word Khod and God are similar

These words came from the language known as Arabi or Arabic or the language of the Rabbi

In the Jewish and Muslim prayer - there are the words -Echad and Achad. These are actually the same word from the same language, but they are pronounced differently

The words God and Khod, originated from the word Echad or Achad

Basically the English word - God - is referring to the One God - known as Elah or Alah

The central prayer in Judaism is called the Amidah prayer, and it is normally recited every day

This prayer has 19 blessings

In Islam, the beginning of every prayer is:

Bismillahir Rahmanir Rahim - which means - In the Name of God, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful

This sentence has 19 letters

The number 1 normally represents the beginning. It also represents One God

The Romans were famous for using the symbols that are today known as the Alpha and the Omega.

Historians claim that they are Greek letters and claim that they are allegedly Christian symbols

What researchers found very strange was that the Alpha and the Omega in the Pax Romana look exactly like the symbol for Allah (God in Arabic). Alpha is known as Aleph in Arabic

Researchers concluded that the Pax Romana - was the Peace of Allah or the Peace of God

Pax means peace. Islam - or - Salam means peace.

Rahmana means merciful God in Arabic

letters for the symbols used to write the word Allah in the Arabic language

It was clear that the Alpha and Omega represented the word Alah or Elah

The Alpha and Omega symbol is found in many churches throughout Europe. Researchers concluded that the number 19 was a mathematical symbol that was being used to represent Alah or Elah or God

It was clear that the number 19 is a mathematical representation of Alah or Elah or God, and the people in power know what this number represents. They seem to be using this number and other numbers for their own agendas. The science of sacred mathematics and sacred geometry was taken seriously in the old world education system.

The Arabic Koran actually sends a message to humanity with regard to the number 19 in Chapter 74. Researchers noted that the number 74 appeared often in major events and also it had other meanings in gematria (too long to mention this story here)

Chapter 74 basically says that Elah or Allah or God - will make the bad people burn as a punishment for what they have done. It says - But what will explain to you what this burning is? ... Over it are Nineteen -19. We have appointed only angels to be guardians of the fire, and have made their number to be a trial and a test for those who do not believe, so that those people who were given the previous Scriptures (such as the Torah and the Book of Christ and the Book of David), so that they may know for sure what is the truth, and those who believe may have more faith, and those who were given the previous Scriptures and the believers will have no doubts. And those people whose hearts have a disease, and the people who do not believe, will say, - "What is God trying to teach us?"... This is one of the greatest warnings to mankind.

Today, sacred mathematics and sacred geometry seem to be hidden away from normal people. But many people say that it is taught in secret organisations around the world. One group of people who study this sacred mathematics are certain religious Jewish people. Another group of people who study this sacred science is the followers of the Arabic Koran. There seems to be a war against these people in the world today in order to destroy them, - but that is another story which is too long to mention here.

After the old world was destroyed, the books in the language of the Arabic Koran were burnt or destroyed or hidden. These books had information about these sacred sciences. It seems like the current global ruling system does not want the common people of the world to know these sacred sciences. They only want it for themselves. They call this sacred science, nothing but superstition, but the evidence shows that they are using this science themselves. Some people call it the Kabbalah and other people give it different names.

This is another reason, why there is a war against certain Jewish people who study these sacred sciences. When the new global order destroys these groups of people, the world will lose access to these sacred sciences, which were known by many people in the Old World (the Old World is now known as Tartaria to many people)

Researchers concluded that the scientific data and information that was shown to the people of the world regarding the Earth was suspicious and seemed to be full of lies. Researchers also concluded that world history was also a lie. Historians tell the people of the world that the Ancient Greeks believed the world was round like a ball. Researchers found evidence that these Ancient Greeks did not even exist.

If the global education system can tell lies about the history of the world, - it is also very easy for them to tell lies about the Earth If - the Earth is round like a ball, the scientific data and information that is given to the people of the world is very suspicious.

If - the Earth is flat, the scientific data and information that is given to the people of the world is very suspicious.

The reason why there is confusion regarding flat Earth or round Earth, is because the evidence shows that science and history has many lies.

The people of the world need to investigate world history or they will never know who they are or why they exist.

The people of the world need to fully investigate science or they will never know if the Earth is round like a ball - or - if the Earth is flat.

There are many other questions that people in the world are asking about science and world history.

Good luck if you wish to know more about these subjects. Below are books about these topics
