History is a Lie

David Ewing Jr

Introduction

There are many people all over the world - who question world history and many researchers have made the claim that history is a total lie.

This book will try to make it easy for you to decide if history is a lie or not.

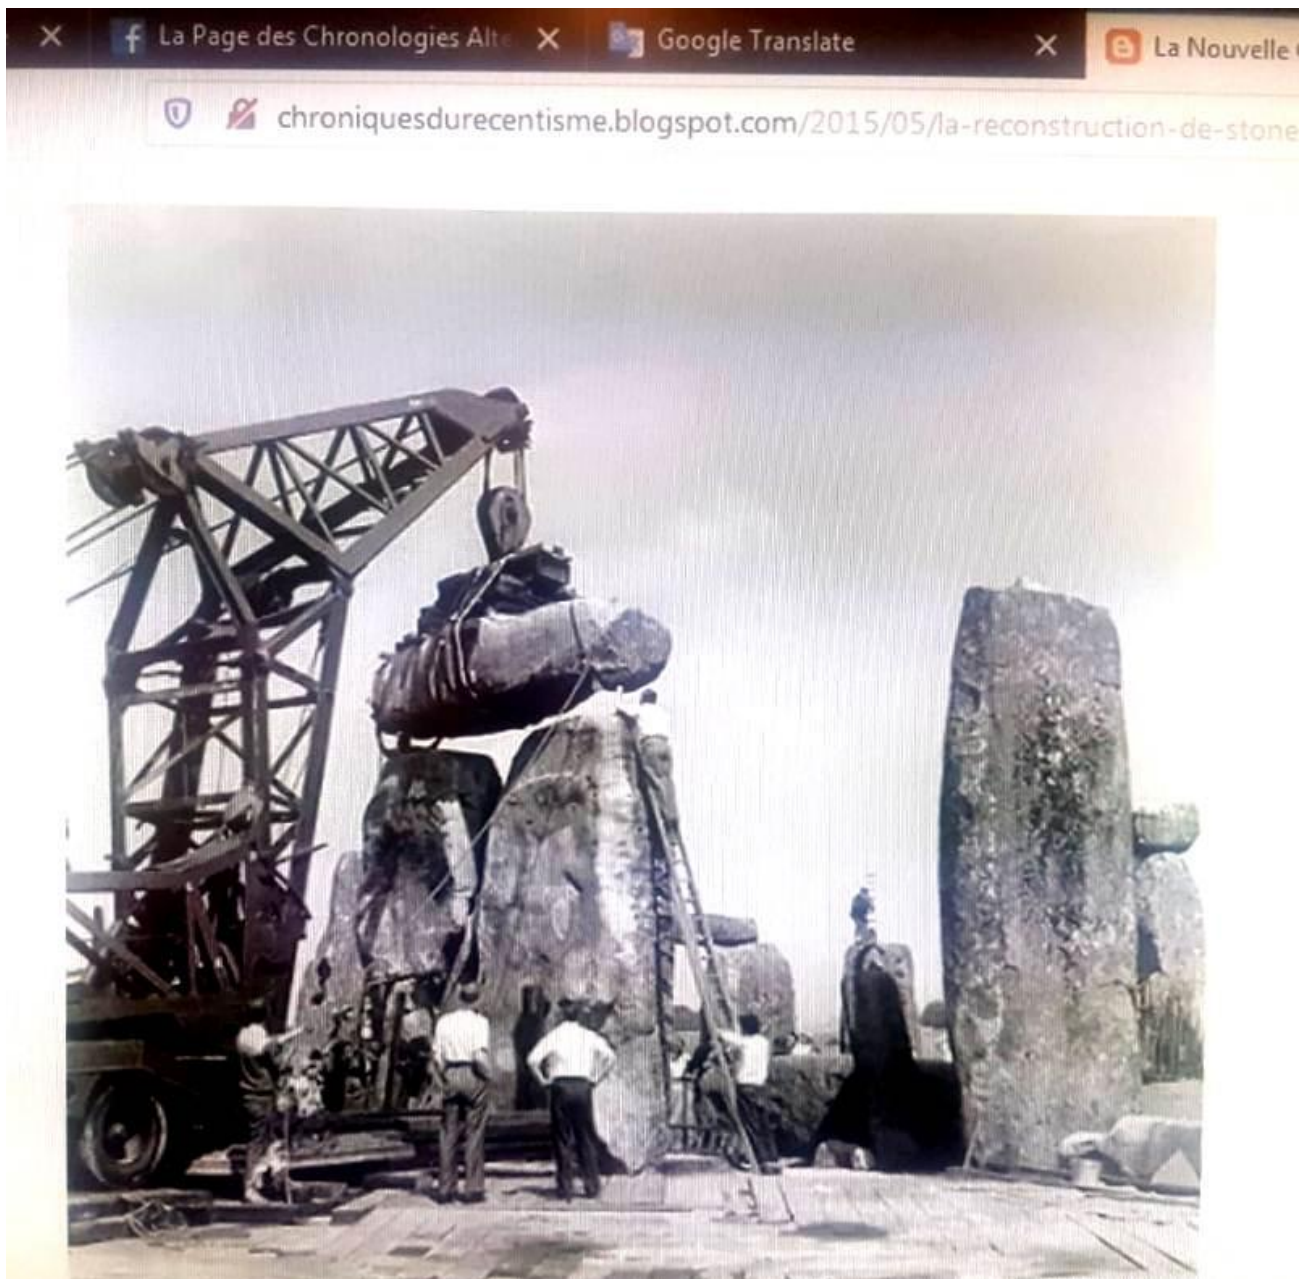

The author David Ewing Jr has travelled to over 2500 cities and places worldwide and has done much historical research over 20 years and has great knowledge of world history.

This book will show some of the research that Anatoly Fomenko and others have done regarding world history - and will make a summary of what they have found - to make it easy for you to decide - is History a Lie?

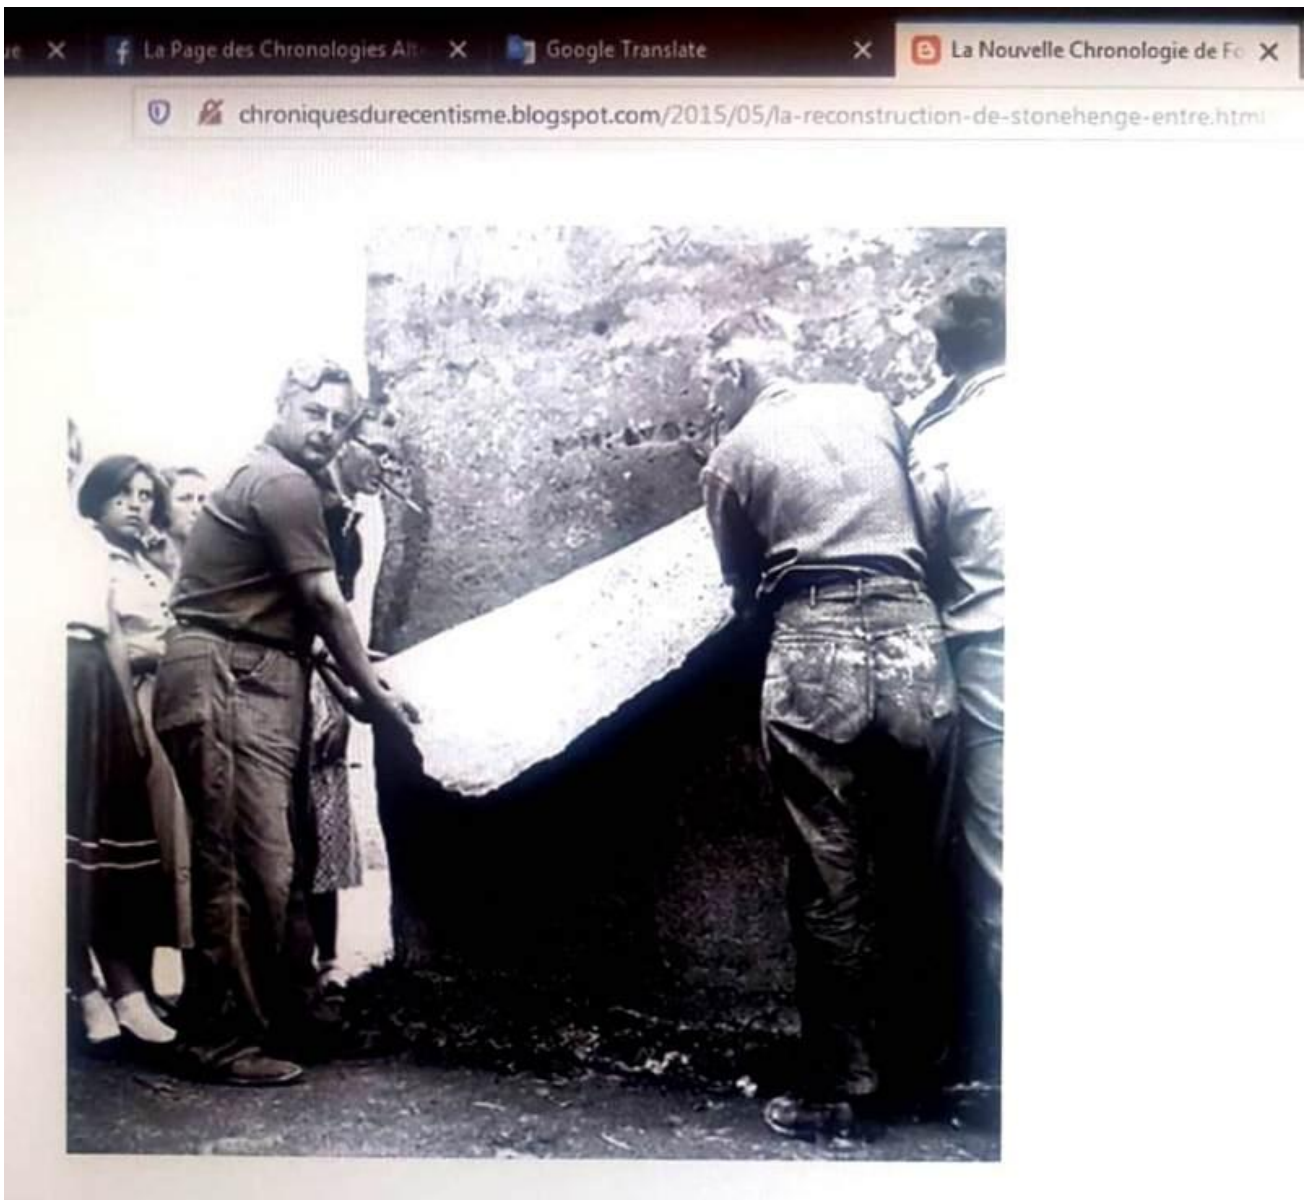

The book will show the facts that researchers point out - and photo evidence is provided to show you that proper research has been done by David Ewing Jr to check what researchers and historians say.

History is a Lie

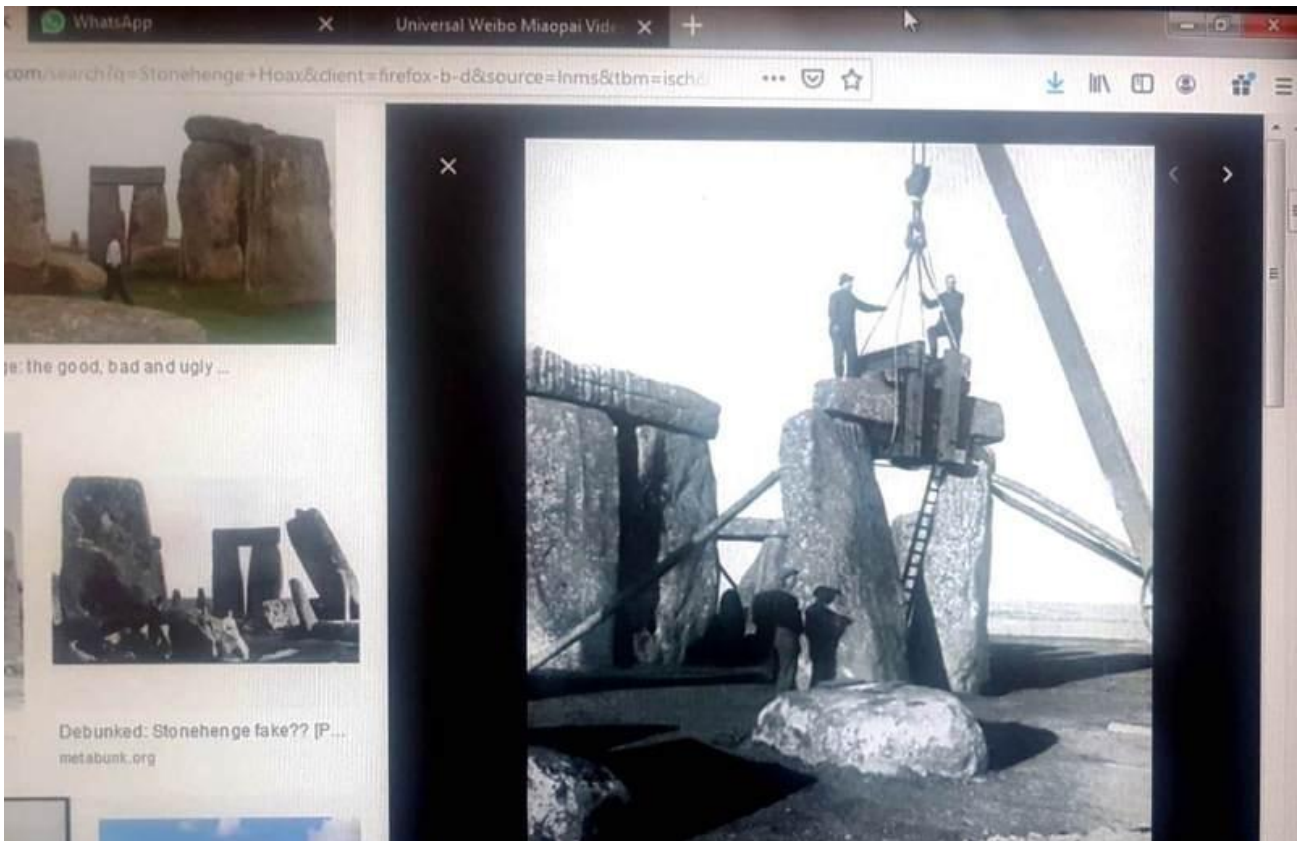

We will start with Stonehenge - many modern researchers claim that Stonehenge is a fake site and not ancient and claim that it was built recently

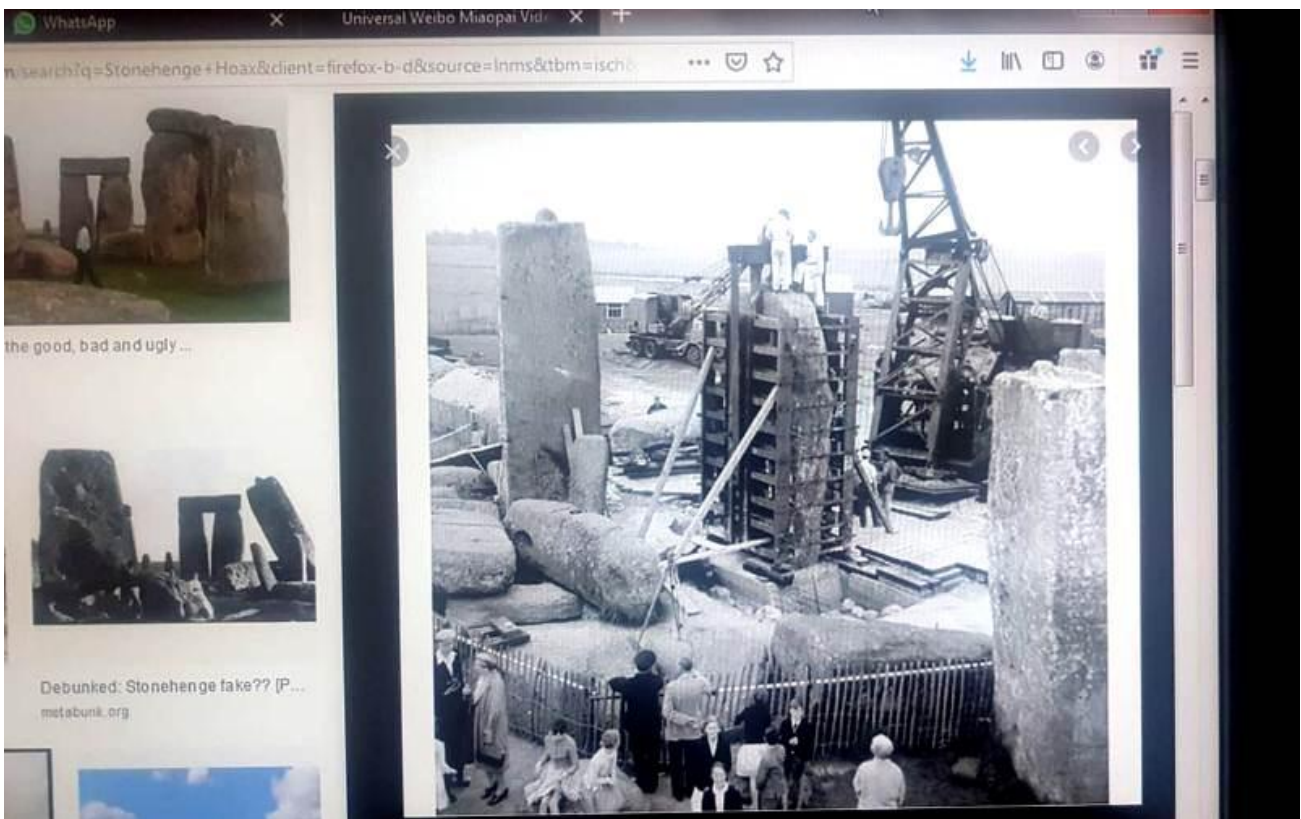

There are many photos showing work being done at Stonehenge. Researchers show these photos as clear evidence that Stonehenge was built recently - but historians claim that it was just reconstruction and rebuilding.

But researchers also claim that many of the stones were actually made recently and their protective covering was taken off when the stones were placed in Stonehenge.

Many modern researchers now believe that Stonehenge is a fake and that it was built in the last 100 years

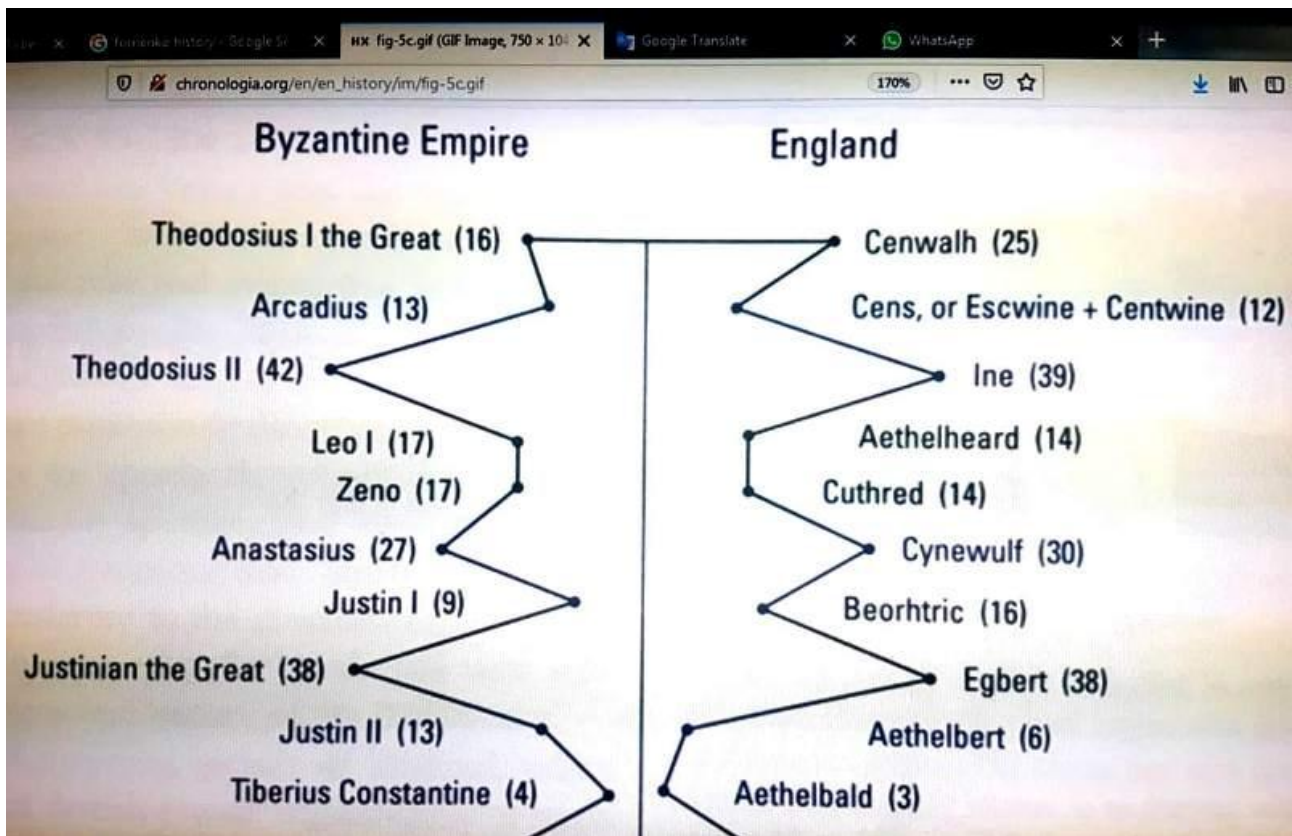

Looking at Stonehenge - researchers began to ask the question - how many historical monuments and places around the world were fake or falsely created?

Anatoly Fomenko - (a very famous professor at Moscow State University) - has shown many examples in his research that much of world history has been changed and copied and created fakely - he even shows in his research that most periods in world history are just a total lie - let's have a look at some discoveries by him and by other researchers.

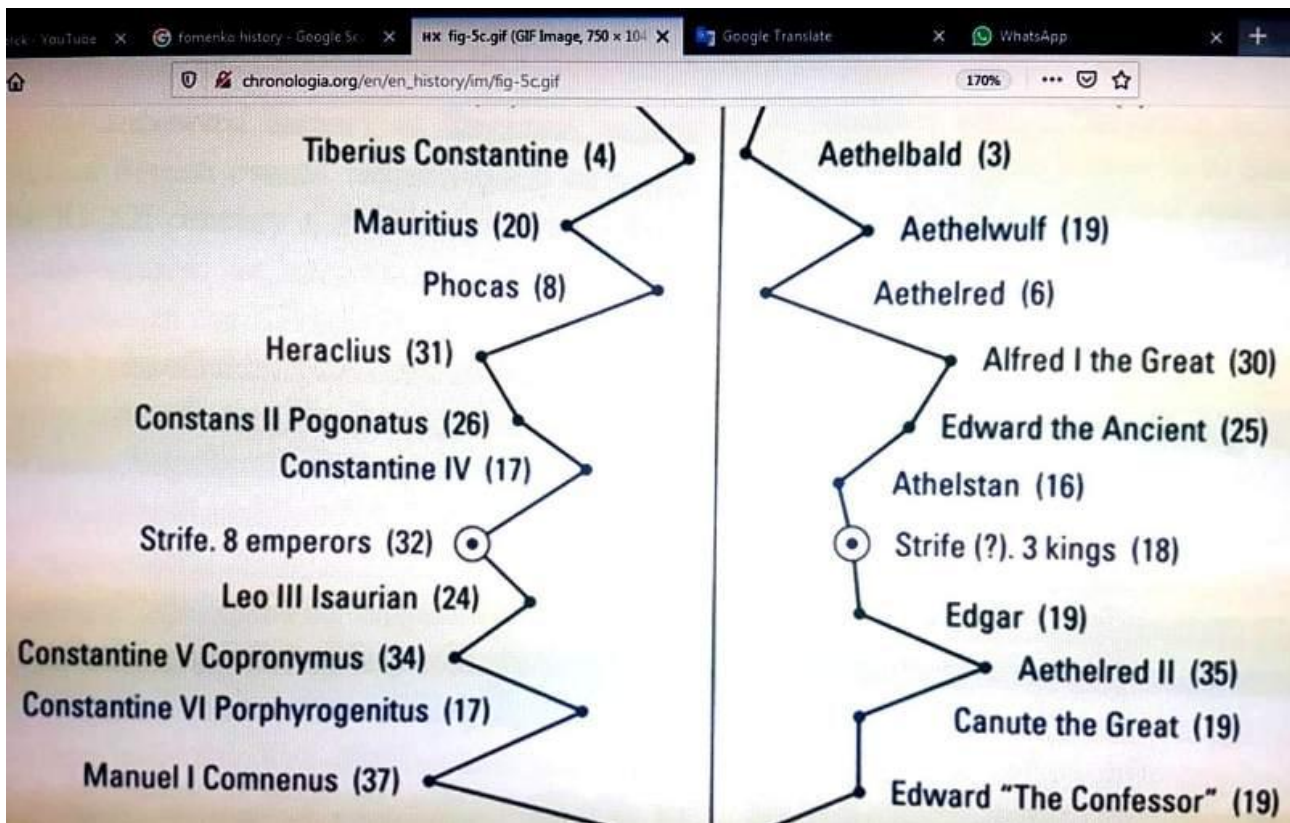

The graphs below are an example by Fomenko which shows - the similarity in the number of years ruled by the Kings of England and the third Roman Empire - primarily in the east - and we can see clearly that they are practically the same.

The lines show how many years a king ruled, it is longer if he ruled longer. You will notice that the timelines of the kings of the 2 different nations - are similar - that they are practically the same kings - except that their names were changed to create fake histories for different countries.

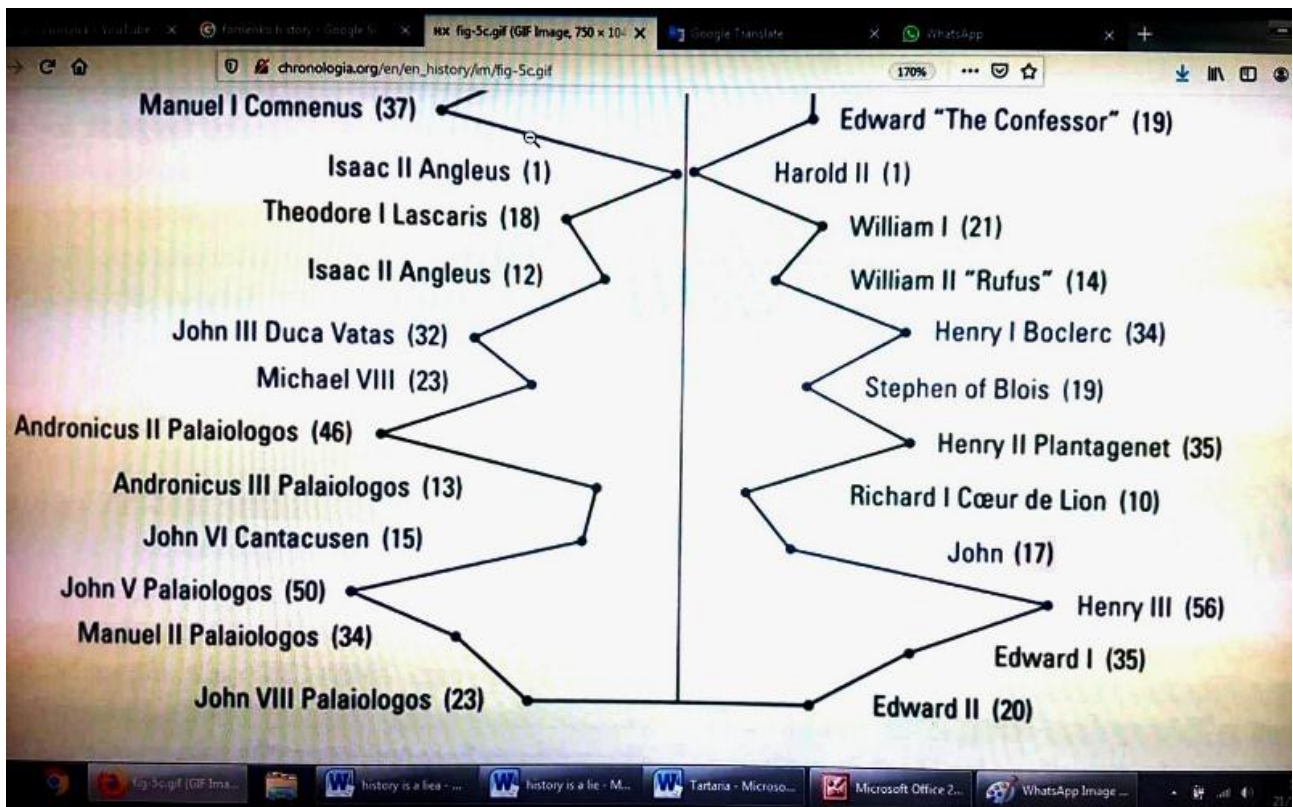

Fomenko shows the number of years these people supposedly ruled in both nations (the number of years are in brackets) and then shows this on a graph - opposite each other - showing the similarity in the number of years the kings ruled their nations.

Researchers point out that it can be clearly seen that one nation copied another. Who copied who and why? And which was the original? And was the original one true - or was that falsely created also?

Fomenko demonstrates that not just the timelines have been copied but events have been copied and duplicated - mostly the places and names have been changed to match their local histories to give them a new history. Most events were copied and some events were even made up to make the local histories unique for political and nationalistic purposes for each nation.

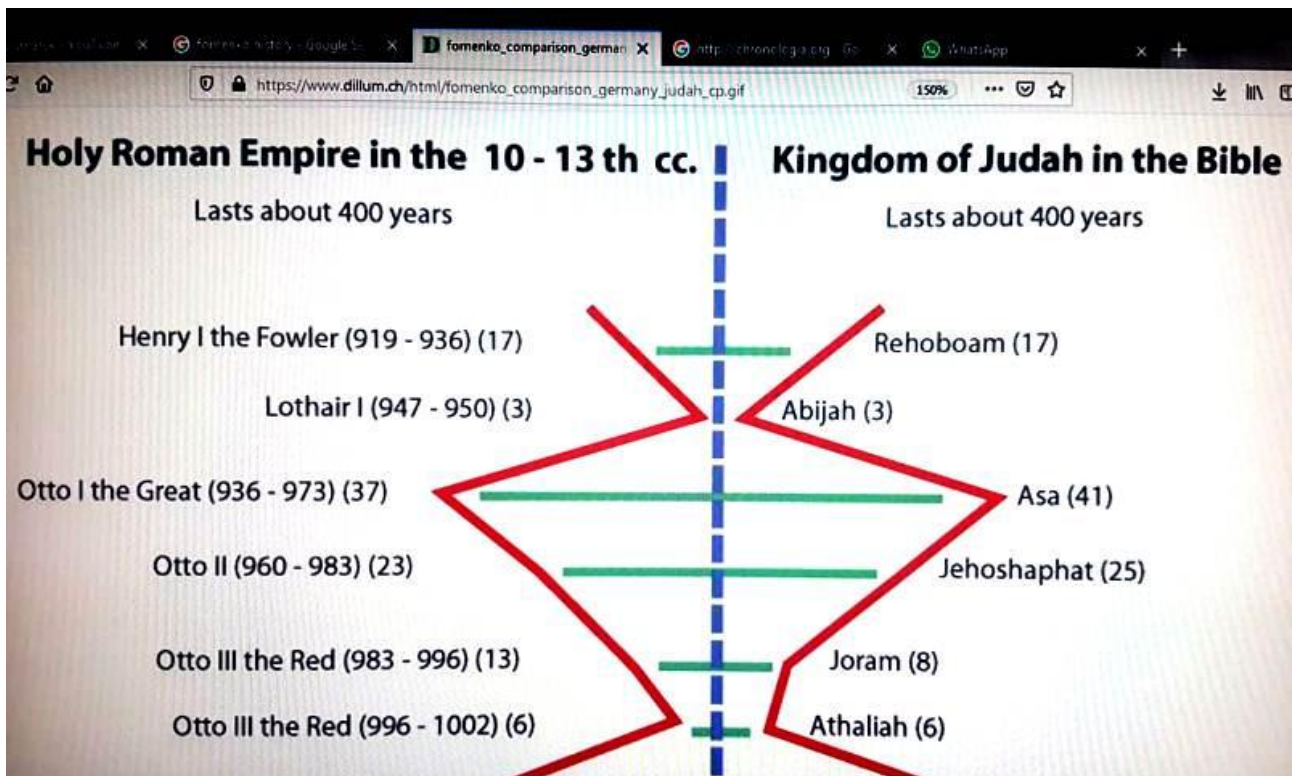

Researchers point out that to make the fake history seem true - monuments and fake historical manuscripts and books and artefacts were created

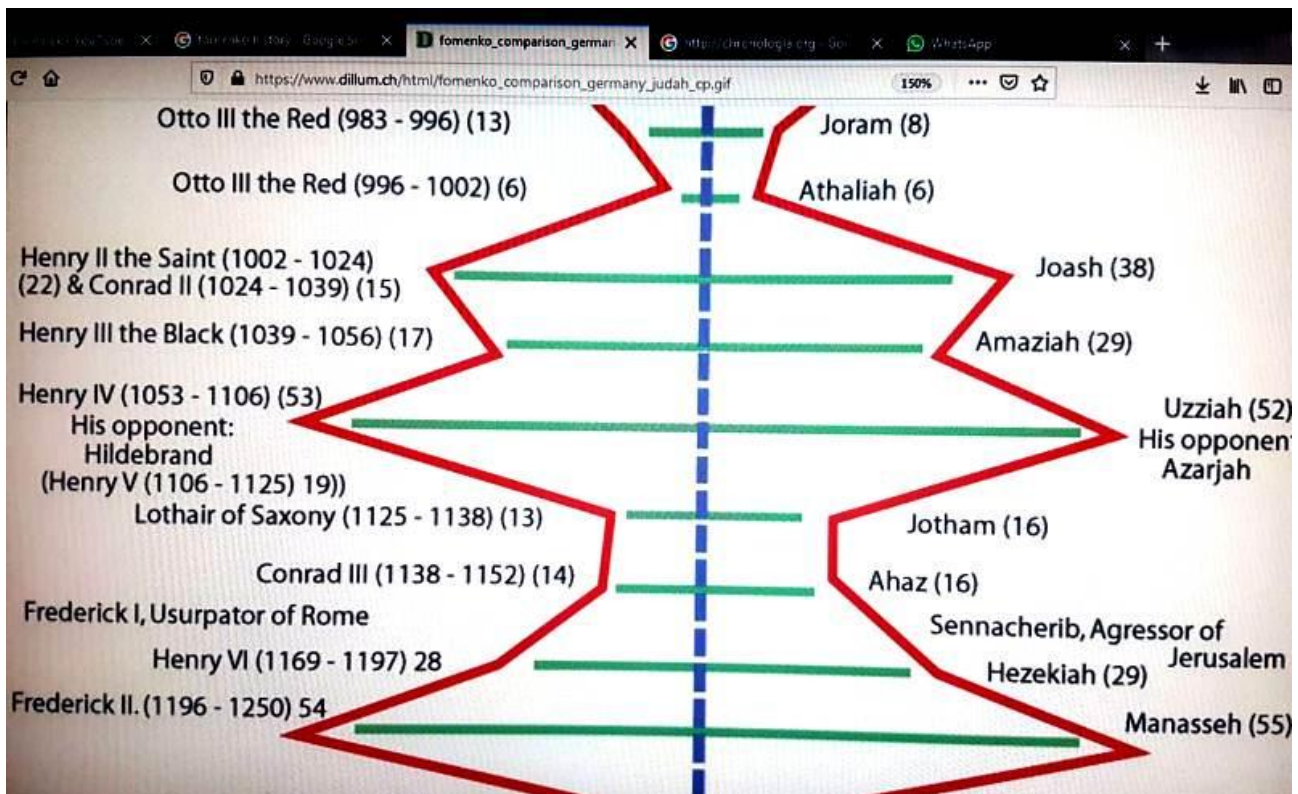

Researchers say that we have a serious problem here - if they copied each other - where did they find the original? Also it means that all the history and the evidence in museums - and documents for all these kings - are totally fake - and that these kings did not exist. For example there is King William I of England - known as the conqueror - who was in the Battle of Hastings in 1066 - if he did not exist - it means this battle never happened. We also have King Richard the Lionheart - if he did not exist - then the Crusades against Original Islam also never happened the way we are told. If history is a lie and has been made up - then there is the new serious question - what is true history?

Below is a graph showing the similarity between the Holy Roman Empire between the 10 and 13 centuries and the Kingdom of Judah and the number of years they supposedly ruled.

Once again researchers point out that - we can clearly see that one nation copied another or that maybe they copied from another original source. Who copied who and why and of course - when did they do this and what was their reason to do this?

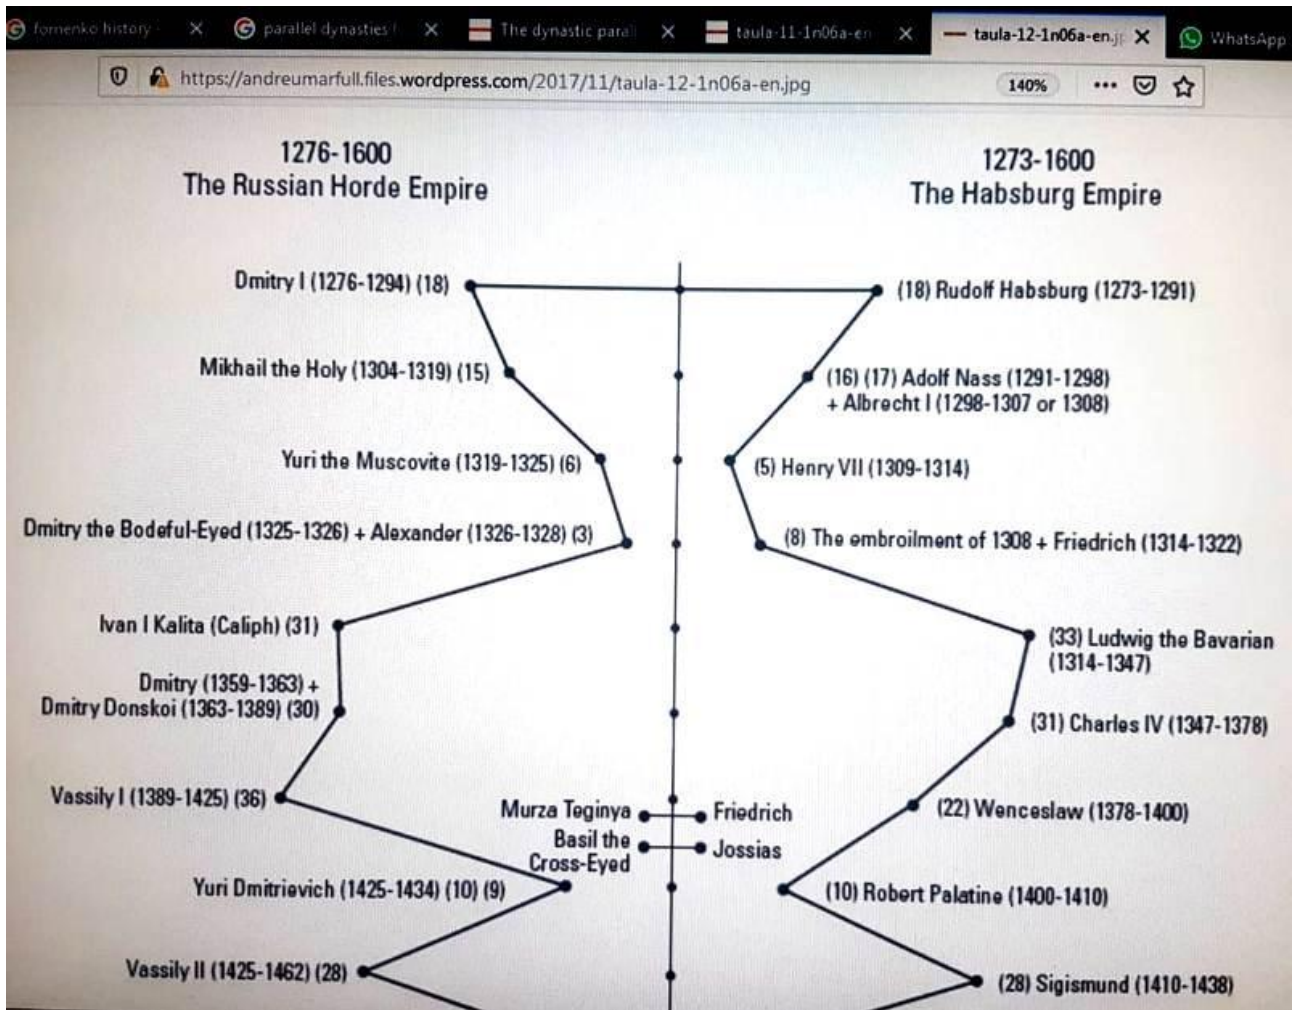

The lines show how many years a king ruled (the number of years are in brackets) - the lines are longer if the king ruled longer. You will notice that the timelines of the kings of the 2 different nations - are similar - that they are practically the same kings - except that their names were changed to create fake histories for different countries.

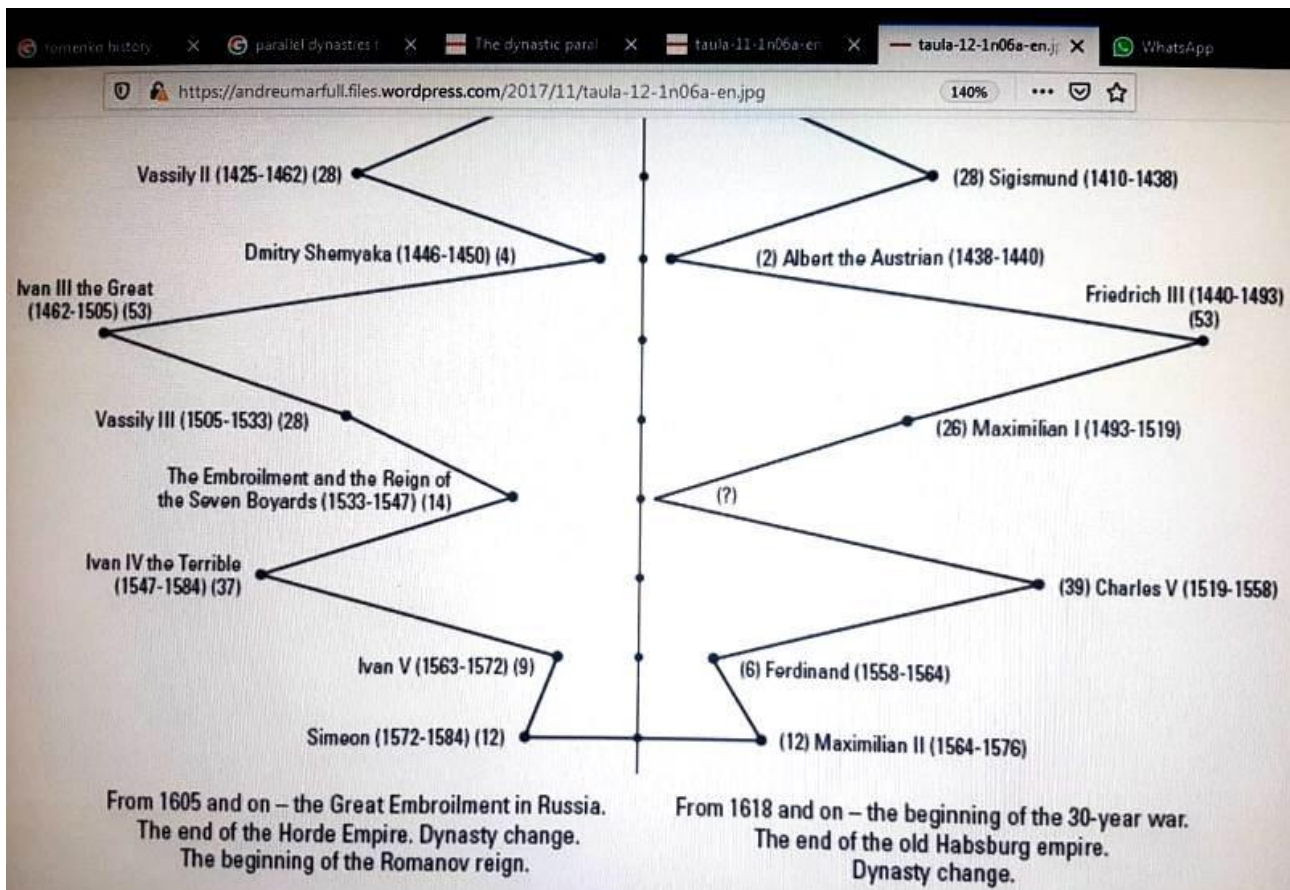

Researchers point out that here again - it can be clearly seen that one nation copied another. Who copied who and why? And which was the original? And was the original one true - or was that falsely created also?

Below is a graph showing the similarity between the Kings of Russia and the Habsburg Kings of Germany and the number of years they supposedly ruled.

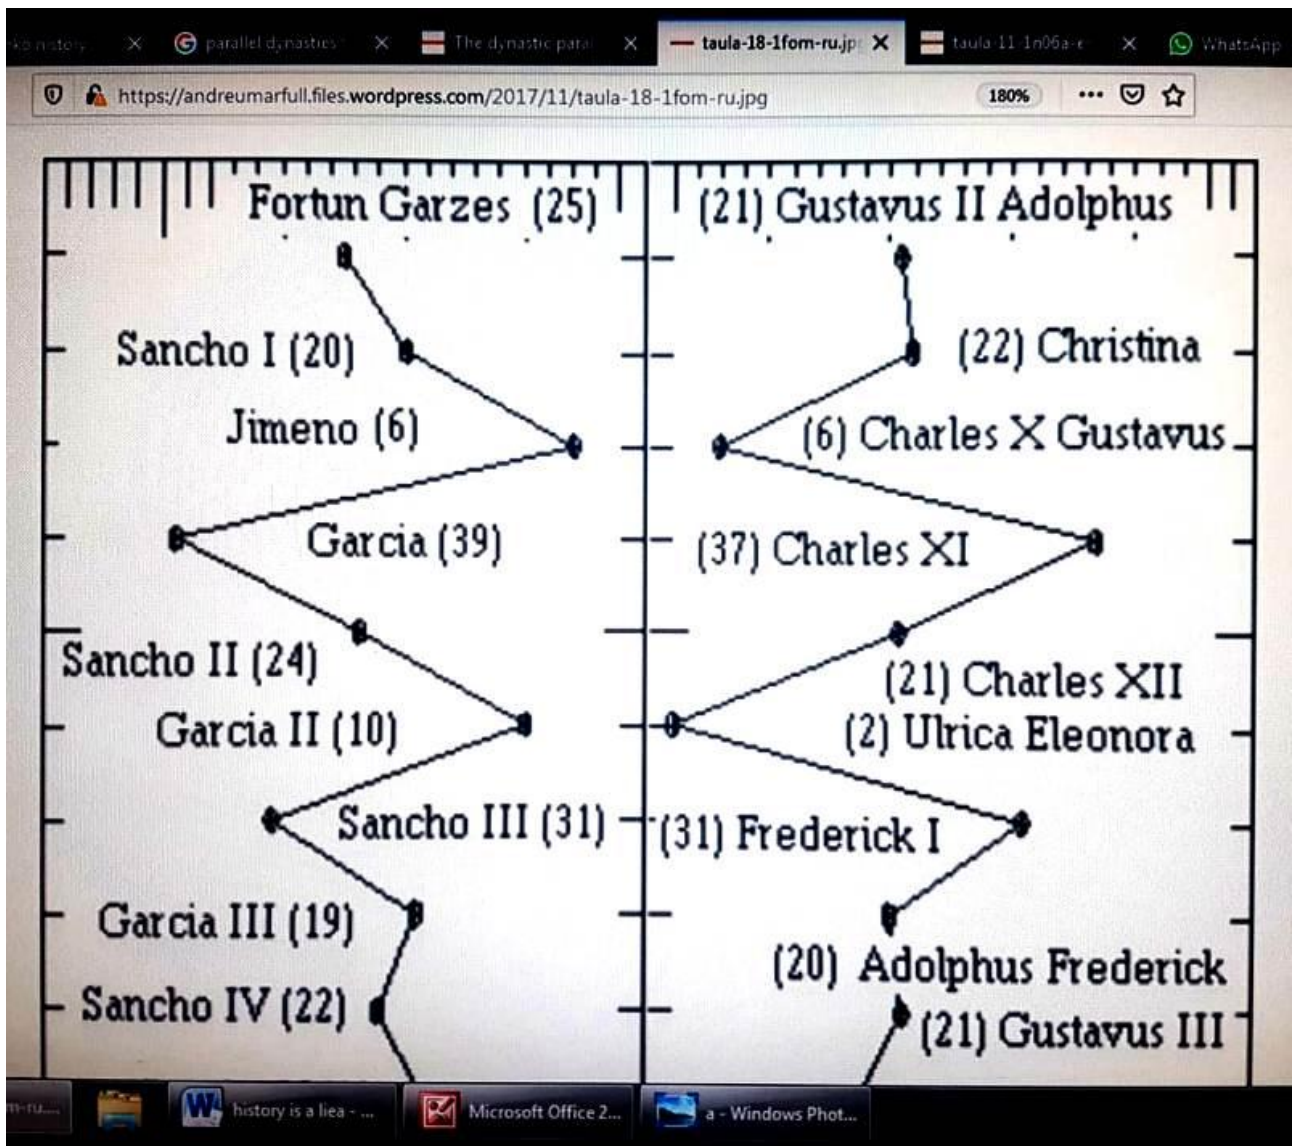

The lines show how many years a king ruled (the number of years are in brackets) - the lines are longer if the king ruled longer. You will notice that the timelines of the kings of the 2 different nations - are similar - that they are practically the same kings - except that their names were changed to create fake histories for different countries.

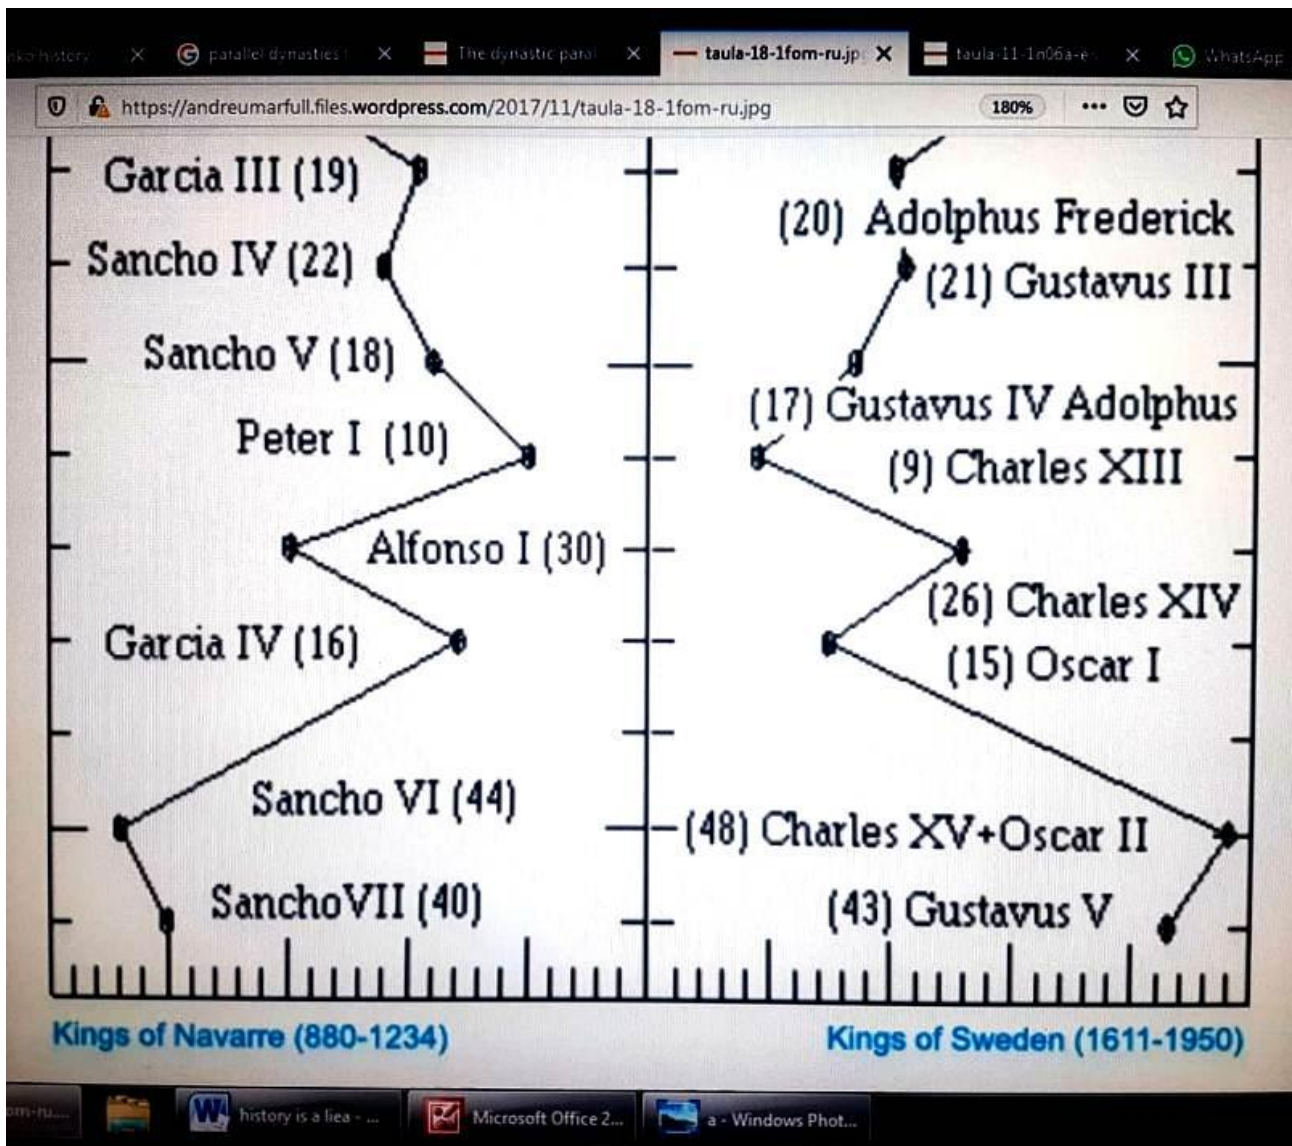

Researchers point out that once again - it can be clearly seen that one nation copied another. Who copied who and why? And which was the original? And was the original one true - or was that falsely created also?

Below is a graph showing the similarity between - the Kings of Navarre in Spain and the Kings of Sweden - and the number of years they supposedly ruled. Notice the distance between many of these nations and the locations are far from each other.

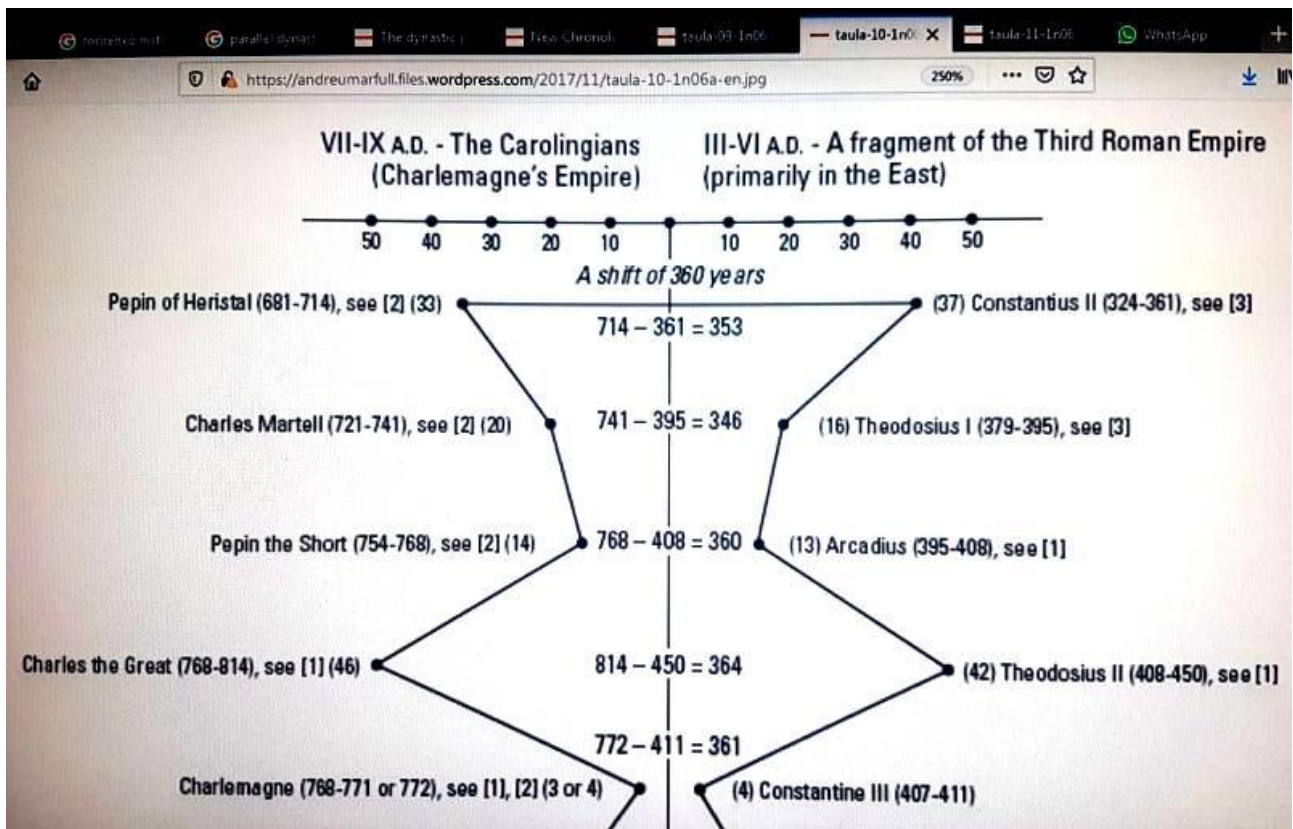

The lines show how many years a king ruled (the number of years are in brackets) - the lines are longer if the king ruled longer.

Once again you will notice that the timelines of the kings of the 2 different nations - are similar - that they are practically the same kings - except that their names were changed to create fake histories for different countries.

Researchers point out that AGAIN - it can be clearly seen that one nation copied another. Who copied who and why? And which was the original? And was the original one true - or was that falsely created also?

The graph below shows the similarity in the number of years ruled by the French kings at Charlemagne's time and the third Roman Empire - primarily in the east - and we can see clearly that they are practically the same.

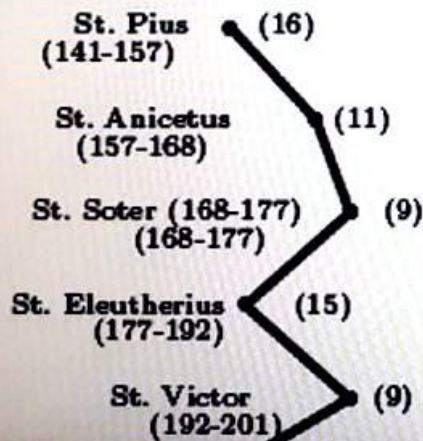

Researchers point out that AGAIN and AGAIN - it can be clearly seen that one nation copied another. Who copied who and why? And which was the original? And was the original one true - or was that falsely created also?

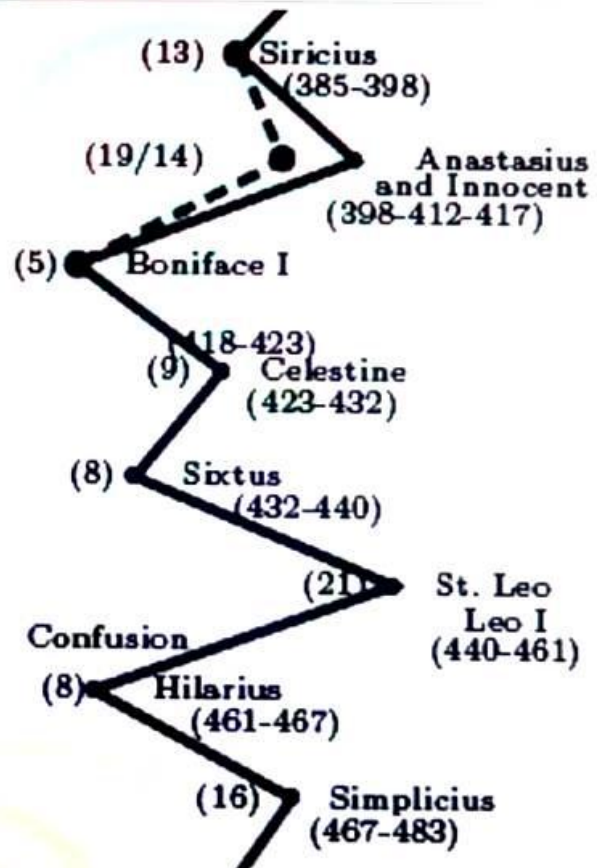

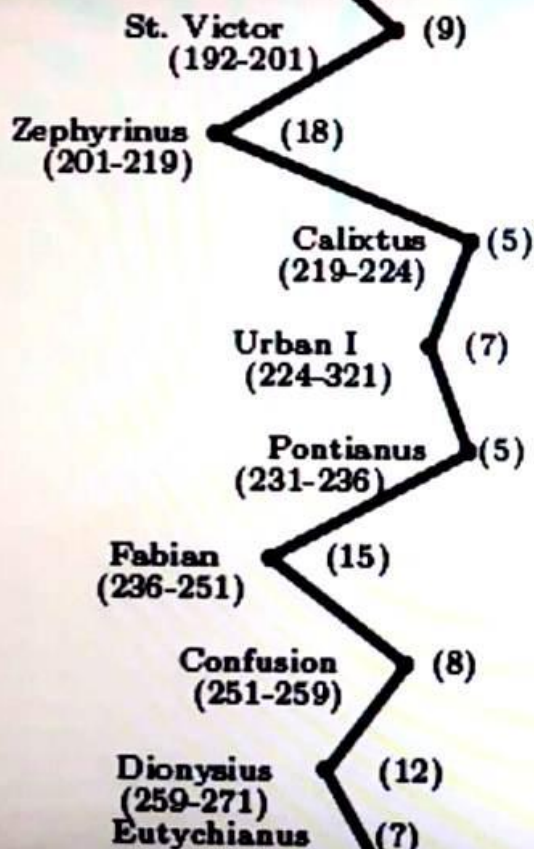

The graph below shows the similarity in the number of years ruled by the Popes - who are the worldwide leaders of the Catholic Church of Christianity. The left side of the graph shows the Popes from the years 140 AD to 314 AD - and the right side of the graph shows the Popes from the years 314 AD to 532 AD.

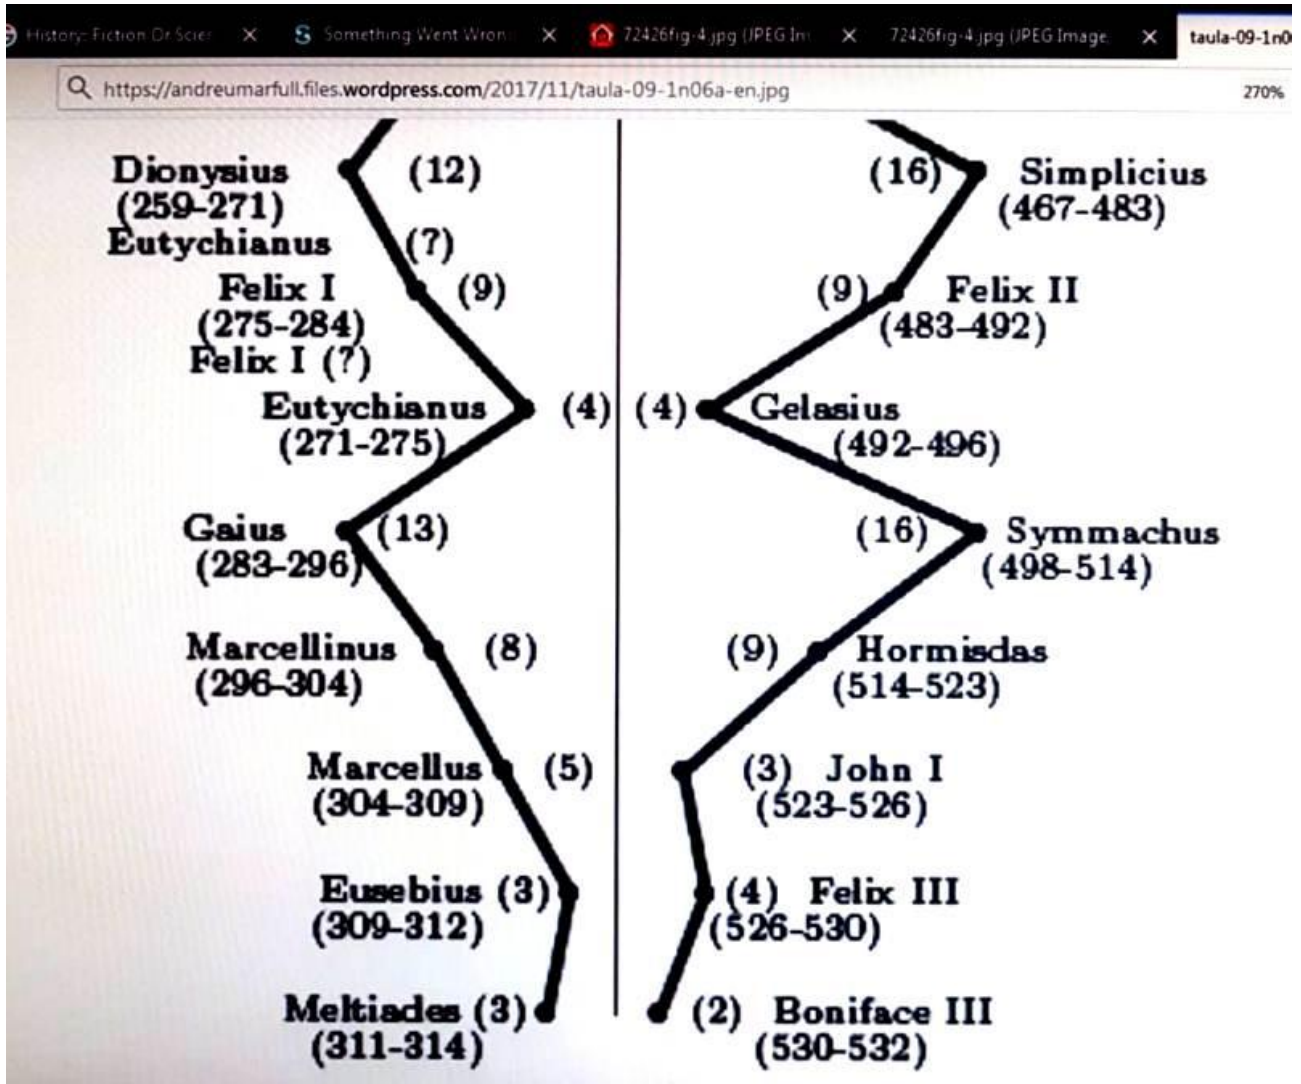

The lines show how many years a pope was in office (the number of years are in brackets) - the lines are longer if the pope stayed in office longer.

First Period of the Roman Episcopate in 141-314 A.D.

Second Period of the Roman Episcopate in 314-532 A.D.

These Popes were in office in different centuries - not even in the same century - but researchers point out that you will notice that the timelines of the popes in the different centuries - are similar - that they are practically the same - except that their names were changed to create fake histories for different centuries.

Here is what researchers found about the famous Napoleon Bonaparte - who historians say was the Emperor of France from 1804 to 1814 and again in 1815. He is one of the most famous people in modern history and there is much written about him - and much of world history at the time - is linked to Napoleon Bonaparte and France. Many historical documents that are from that time mention his life or something to do with him and with his actions around the world.

Historians in the Middle East speak much of Napoleon Bonaparte because he supposedly invaded Egypt and ruled there and did much trade with the east. Historians in almost every country in the world mention Napoleon Bonaparte because of his war with England and the effect of this war on the so-called British Empire around the world - and when Napoleon Bonaparte supposedly invaded Spain in 1807 - this supposedly affected every country in Central and South America - because Spain was supposedly involved in every country in those regions at the time.

One of Napoleon Bonaparte biggest adventure was his so-called invasion of Russia in 1812.

Historians say that Napoleon Bonaparte supposedly invaded Russia with a Grande Armée - Grand Army of around 685,000 soldiers - the largest army ever known to have assembled in the history of warfare up to that point. Napoleon Bonaparte invaded Russia to stop Tsar Alexander of Russia from trading with England and to liberate Poland.

Now what researchers found strange was that historians said that Napoleon Bonaparte supposedly went towards Moscow when the capital city of Russia at the time was Saint Petersburg city.

Russia traded with England and did much of it by Saint Petersburg city port - Napoleon mysteriously did not go to the Russian capital Saint Petersburg - but went to Moscow instead.

Imagine that you had to invade the United States and make them surrender - but you take your army to Chicago or Los Angeles instead of Washington Dc. The story did not make to sense to researchers at all. If you want to make England surrender you take your army to the capital London - not invade Bristol or Cardiff.

If someone called Napoleon Bonaparte did want to attack Moscow at the time - and went towards there with largest army ever known to have assembled in the history of warfare - the big questions are - who did they wish to destroy in that city and why? It is a very serious question to ask.

Researchers questioned much about Napoleon Bonaparte and in the end they asked the question - did Napoleon Bonaparte actually exist the way that history says - or was history changed? Researchers such as Gleb Nosovsky claim that the Napoleon Bonaparte of history did not exist the way historians claim and much history was created by politicians and historians to make their nation have a great history.

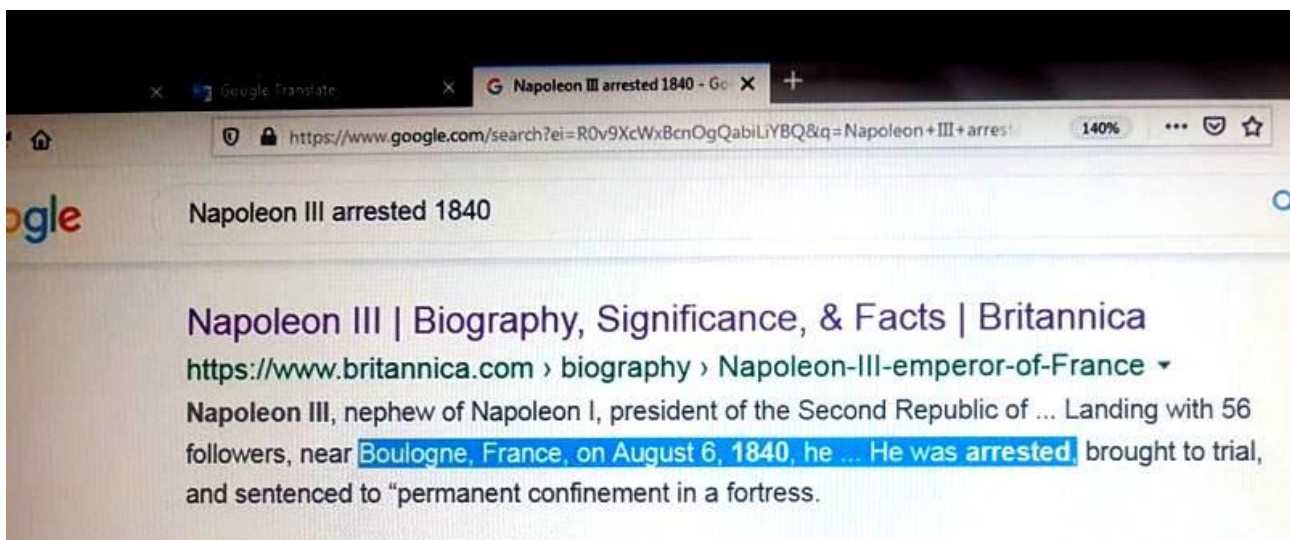

Below are examples of some facts that researchers have pointed out - comparing history at the time of Napoleon Bonaparte and Napoleon III (the Third) - researchers have shown that the stories of these 2 people are similar and many historical events have been copied or totally made up. For example - researchers say that many people in the past did exist and do not question this - but they question certain dates and events in the past - and evidence shows that many events were probably just made up and fabricated to create false history - and many dates and even many characters were either copied or made up

From Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia

Grigory Nikolayevich Vyrubov, or Grégoire Wyruboff (Russian: Григорий Николаевич Вырубов; 31 October 1843, Moscow – 30 November 1913, Paris) was a Russian Empire Positivist philosopher and historian of science.^[1]

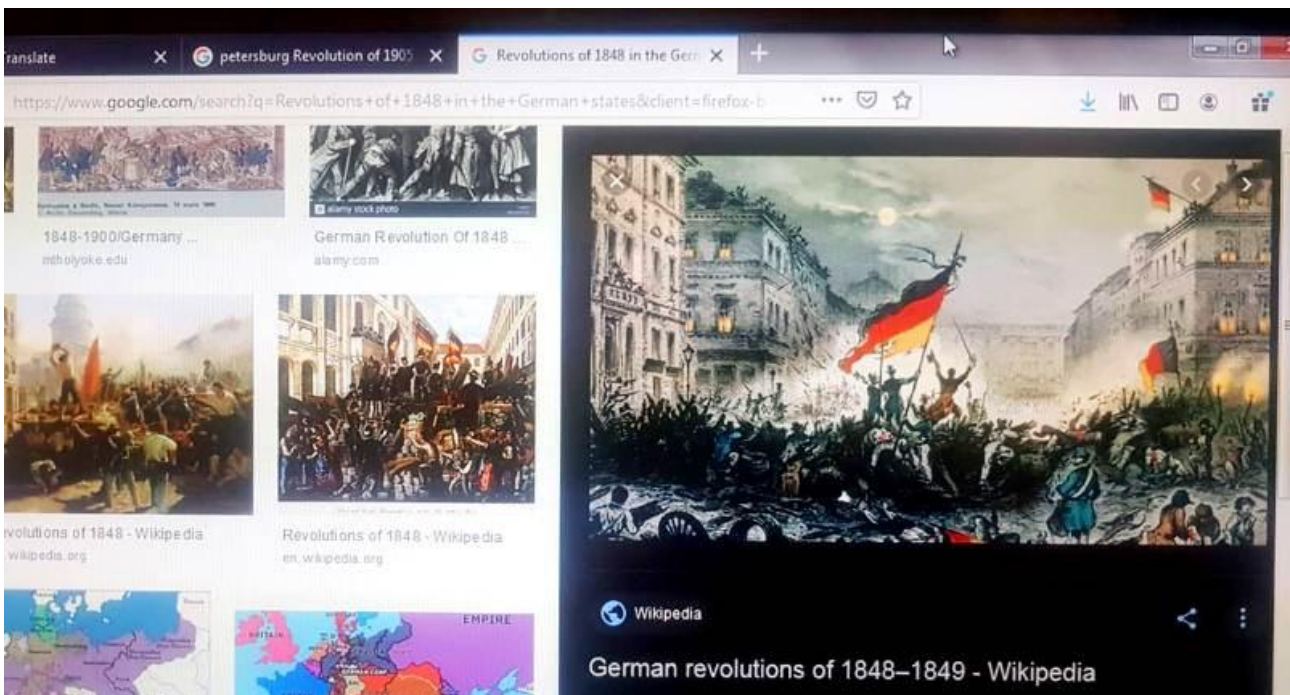

History [edit]

Born in Moscow, Vyrubov was brought up in Italy and France before studying medicine and natural philosophy at the University of Moscow. Heavily influenced by Edmond Nikolayevich Pommier, Vyrubov founded the Positivist journal Philosophie positive with Emile Littré in 1867; he edited the journal until 1881. He befriended Aleksandr Ivanovich Herzen, and edited anonymously the first edition of Herzen's works (10 vols, 1875–79). In 1896 Vyrubov criticized Mendeliev's notion and statement of a periodic law: "all the

There are a lot more examples of what researchers show when they make their claim that history is a lie.

The evidence does show much similarity between events in different places. It could be just a coincidence - or - maybe mistakes or errors have entered history - or - it could be that history is a lie.

Researchers say that because there is so much similarity - that the history must have been copied or falsely created from one nation to another and some researchers say that this is a conspiracy.

Researchers have even put the claim forward that many historical events may not actually have taken place.

Researchers also have put forward the case that much historical evidence has been created falsely to match the false histories. Researchers show much evidence that monuments around the world and historical books and art were falsely created to match the false history - an example they show is Stonehenge

If researchers are correct we have to question - who was Napoleon Bonaparte? Did he actually exist? If he did not exist - then all the wars and all the history of that time must have been falsely created. And who was Napoleon III - did he exist?

Why is the history of events of the 2 Napoleons similar? This means that maybe there was no invasion of Russia and no wars with Russia at all and the history has been changed.

Researchers laugh at the idea of Napoleon - and other military leaders of the world in history - were supposedly walking around the world with thousands of soldiers and animals for hundreds and hundreds of kilometres - at a time when the world did not have proper roads or motorways or street lights or anything - and these thousands of men walked hundreds of miles as soldiers through mud.

Researchers state that all this sounds like a big joke and is not realistic history and is just a lie.

Imagine trying to walk from Paris to Moscow over 2000 kilometres with over half a million men and with food supplies and other supplies - through many fields - don't forget European fields were not developed at that time like the beautiful industrial farm fields we see today - and there was no motorways or electricity or anything - and these same soldiers and army have to pass by many cities and villages - imagine over half a million men walking past your way - the story sounds ridiculous. How did these soldiers rest and how did they do their toilet at the time and how did they eat and cook and sleep - we are not talking about a modern army or an army going short distances within the same land.

Speaking of Russia - researchers point out that Alexander I and Alexander II may have been the same person or their history was totally made up. And what about the other kings of Russia such as Ivan the Terrible and Tsar Alexis of the Romanov dynasty? Who were they really? They are supposed to be Christian but evidence shows that they may have been Muslims. Researchers show much evidence that many European leaders in the past were Muslims and not Christians at all - and they show that history has been changed and fake monuments and fake artefacts have been created. One big question they ask is - why would nations lie about history?

A big question that researchers have asked - especially in Russia as to who really Karl Marx was - and who was Friedrich Engels? Many researchers worldwide state that the character Karl Marx was invented and created in the early twentieth century and that an actor was found to take photos as the character Karl Marx and books were written in his name and the character Karl Marx was created to copy the actual person of Vladimir Lenin. But, researchers say that - in order to make Karl Marx unique - they did of course change some things such as the dates and the locations of the events in the life of Karl Marx. Researchers say that Karl Marx was created and his books were written to politically challenge Lenin and his revolution and its global influence - and that they wanted to take the first credit for such events in history so they predated Lenin and Trotsky - other researchers are investigating if the story is the opposite - if the story of Lenin and Trotsky has been modified - or - if the stories of Karl Marx and Vladimir Lenin have both been modified.

Many researchers are saying that all world history is a lie - not just copies or mistakes - they claim that the world has a totally different history and everything was made up to hide the true history.

Researchers say that not only is the history of the Christianity a lie - but the entire book known as the Bible is a lie also.

Codex Sinaiticus - Greek Bible manuscript - was supposedly discovered in 1889 in Sinai, Egypt. A Greek man called Constantine Simonides - who was a very educated man at the time, was writing and selling his own fake Biblical manuscripts in the Greek language to the King of Greece and to many other people around Europe and the world. Historians know that he was selling fakes but claim that some of the manuscripts that he sold were originals that he had supposedly found on Mount Athos - but historians show no evidence of this.

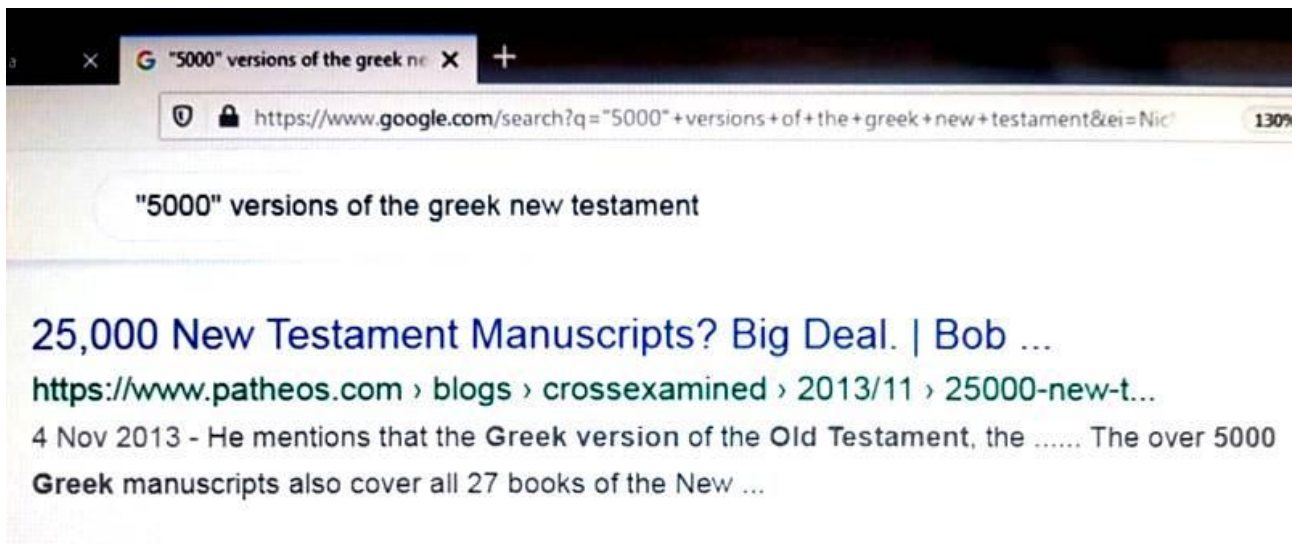

Constantine Simonides - the same man - claimed to have written this Codex Sinaiticus Bible himself. Historians know that so many of the manuscripts around the world were fakes - most probably all of them

- and that Constantine Simonides had admitted that this was also written by him.

Researchers point out that Constantine Simonides was an expert writer - but historians have decided to ignore that Constantine Simonides had clearly admitted that he wrote it and that there was a very BIG chance that it was a fake.

Today we actually have around 5000 manuscripts of the Greek New Testament and most of them are completely different to each other and are not even complete - this shows you an example of how many fakes there are.

Researchers also question the history of human languages and how they were formed or created. Historians state that most languages evolved over time but researchers dispute this. The Theory of Evolution states that as we changed from animals to humans, we developed languages. Many natural languages do not have a digital gematria code - such as the words that we make up when we speak with our friends - or local dialects - this type of language - normally does not show any type of digital gematria patterns - and it is difficult to make digital gematria assessments of such natural languages.

Gematria is basically a code of assigning a numerical value to a name, word or phrase based on its letters. Every single word can have multiple values depending on the method used.

What is a digital language? Most of you probably don't know. But many of the modern languages we use are digital languages and they have a digital gematria - maths code. When the digital gematria - maths code - is examined carefully - we can clearly see - that these modern languages did not evolve and they must have created on a digital platform - such as a computer and they were then given to us - or the language was created based on a language that already had a digital gematria - maths code.

Researchers point out that anyone who has access to digital technology can easily make a new digital language himself, with digital codes and patterns and can add sounds to it, and they can create a new language as they wish. Another way they can easily create a new language and alphabet - with a digital code - is if they based the new language - on a language that already has a digital gematria - maths code.

Here is an example of Greek gematria. Many historians claim that gematria was developed by humans but researchers dispute this. Gematria is so advanced that a computer is needed to understand and calculate it - in many cases of gematria - we can see amazing digital patterns and codes related to nature and the world that we live in. The table below shows a simple gematria chart for the Greek language and the maths values for the words Jesus and Christ. There are of course different types of gematria, some types with more advanced mathematics involved.

Alpha	Beta	Gamma	Delta	Epsilon	Zeta	Eta	Theta	Iota	Kappa	Lambda	Mu
α	β	γ	δ	ε	ζ	η	θ	ι	κ	λ	μ
1	2	3	4	5	7	8	9	10	20	30	40
Nu	Xi	Omicron	Pi	Rho	Sigma	Tau	Upsilon	Phi	Chi	Psi	Omega
Ν	Ξ	Ο	Π	Ρ	Σ	Τ	Υ	Φ	Χ	Ψ	Ω
ν	ξ	ο	π	ρ	σ, ς	τ	υ	φ	χ	ψ	ω
50	60	70	80	100	200	300	400	500	600	700	800

Ιησους	Jesus	$10 + 8 + 200 + 70 + 400 + 200 = 888$
Χριστος	Christ	$600 + 100 + 10 + 200 + 300 + 70 + 200 = 1480$

It can be seen that the value of the name Jesus in Greek in this gematria method is 888 - and researchers state that this no accident, but must have been designed to be that way, when the language was created or when the spelling of the word was designed. The gematria patterns are not just in words but sometimes in sentence lay outs too. Researchers point out that - at first it seems like gematria can be evidence - that something may be the word of God - but a deeper understanding of gematria - shows that this may not be the case at all.

Now here is some gematria from the Hebrew Old Testament (Isaiah 9.6), in the Hebrew language, which supposedly predicts Jesus Christ and the prediction supposedly equals the gematria value of 888.

unto us a child x Torah Matters: Coded Connect x Messiah - Bible Gematria x +

torahmatters.blogspot.com/2016/01/coded-connections.html 150%

The Greek form of Jesus (Ἰησοῦς) equals 888. Isaiah 9:6 prophesizes, "For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given: and the government shall be upon his shoulder: and his name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, The mighty God, The everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace." Here is Isaiah 9:6 in Hebrew (reading from right to left):

כי ילד ילד לנו בך נחך לנו ותהי הם שרה על שכמו ויקרא שמו פלא ידע אל נבור אביעד שר שלום

300 1 90 6 6 5 400 50 30

$30 + 50 + 400 + 5 + 6 + 6 + 90 + 1 + 300 = 888$

The sum of every seventh Hebrew letter equals 888, the numeric value of Ἰησοῦς!

Note that the gematria seen here is not straightforward and is speculative - and it is arranged according to the wishes of the researcher. Here the researcher chooses only the sum of every seventh letter and not the rest of the letters. Such speculation only works to show a pattern sometimes and many times it fails to show any pattern.

Many researchers show the first 17 verses of the New Testament (Gospel of Matthew in the Bible) in Greek - and that it shows an amazing mathematical pattern in the language design and structure - the picture below shows this multiples in Genesis 1:1, let alone encode the number of pages in the average Bible (about 900 pages).

1. The number of words which are nouns is exactly 56, or 7×8 .

9. The number of words ending with a consonant is 42 (7×6).
10. The total number of letters in these 49 words is exactly 266, or 7×38 .
11. The sum of the digits in 266 is 14 (7×2).
12. The sum of the factors of 266 ($7 \times 2 \times 19$) is 28 (7×4).
13. The numbers of vowels among these 266 letters is 140, or 7×20 .
14. The number of consonants is exactly 126, or 7×18 .
15. Of these 49 words, the number of words that occur more than once is 35, or 7×5 .
16. The number of words occurring only once is 14, or 7×2 .
17. The number of words that occur in only one form is exactly 42, or 7×6 .
18. The number of words appearing in more than one form is also 7.
19. Of the 49 Greek vocabulary words, 42, or 7×6 are nouns.
20. The number of words that are not nouns is 7.
21. Of the nouns, 35 are proper names, or 7×5 .
22. These 35 nouns are used 63 times, or 7×9 .
23. The number of male names is 28, or 7×4 .
24. These male names occur 56 times or 7×8 .
25. The number that are not male names is 7.
26. Three women are mentioned: Tamar, Rahab, and Ruth. The number of Greek letters in these three names is 14, or 7×2 .
27. The number of compound nouns is 7.
28. The number of Greek letters in these 7 nouns is 49, or 7×7 .
29. Only one city is named in this passage, Babylon, which in Greek contains exactly 7 letters.

contains exactly 7 letters.

Here is just a partial listing of the multiples of seven in Matthew 1:18-25, an account of Christ's Virgin Birth:

1. The number of Greek words in the passage is exactly 161 (23×7).
2. The number of Greek letters in the 161 words is 896 (128×7).
3. The numeric value of these, or gematria, is exactly 93,394 ($13,342 \times 7$).
4. The number of vocabulary words used is 77 (11×7); their gematria is 52,605 ($7,515 \times 7$).
5. 6 Greek words are used here which are found nowhere else in Matthew. Their value is 5,005 (715×7).
6. These 6 Greek words have 56 letters (8×7).
7. The 161 words occur in 105 forms (15×7); their numeric value is 65,429 ($9,347 \times 7$).
8. In the 105 forms there are 35 verbs (5×7).
9. There are exactly 7 proper names.
10. The number of letters in these is 42 (6×7).
11. One word, Emmanuel, is used nowhere else in the New Testament; its gematria is 644 (92×7). The sum of its figures is 14 (2×7).
12. The number of forms exclusive to this passage is 14 (2×7); their numeric value is 8,715 ($1,245 \times 7$).
13. In speaking to Joseph, the angel uses of the 77 vocabulary words exactly 28 (4×7).
14. The numeric value of all his words is exactly 21,042 ($3,006 \times 7$).
15. The angel uses 35 different forms (5×7); these forms have exactly 168 letters (24×7).
16. The numeric value of these letters is 19,397 ($2,771 \times 7$).
17. In using 28 of the vocabulary words the angel leaves exactly 49 (7×7).
18. In using exactly 35 forms he leaves exactly 70 (10×7).
19. The sum of the digits in 70 is 7; its factors ($7 \times 2 \times 5$) added equal 14 (2×7).

Because the authenticity of Mark 16: 9-20 had been questioned, the passage had not been included in some Bibles. Ivan Panin showed, through the richness and continuity of its gematria, that the passage belongs. Gematria, then, is a type of watermark or seal of authenticity.

The picture above shows Chapter 1 - verses 18-25 of the Gospel of Matthew in the Bible - the story of the virgin birth. You can see that there is a type of mathematical pattern in the language design and structure there Researchers were amazed with such mathematical designs - it is so unbelievable, such coding and structure in many passages of the Bible. It was amazing enough to convince some researchers that maybe it was the very word of God - but other researchers who had greater knowledge of global gematria and digital technology did not accept this.

History states that the world in the past did not have advanced digital technology - if the history is true - then such mathematical structure in the Bible can be claimed to be of divine origin - but researchers now say that history is a lie.

Researchers say that maybe we did not originate or evolve from an animal species related to monkeys and apes - and that there is evidence that humans and languages were created by an advanced Creator - who gave humans our first digital language which was digitally created by the Creator.

Below is Chapter 16 - verses 9-20 of the Gospel of Mark in the Bible - the story of resurrection.

1. The number of words in this passage is 175 (7×25).
2. The vocabulary has 98 words (7×14).
3. The number of its forms is 133 (7×19).
4. The numeric value of its 133 forms is 89,663 ($7 \times 12,809$).
5. Of these 133 forms 112 (7×16) occur but once; and 21 (7×3) occur more than once.
6. The 98 words of the vocabulary have 553 letters (7×79).
7. Of which 294 (7×42) are vowels, and 259 (7×37) are consonants.
8. Of the 98 vocabulary words 84 (7×12) are found before in the Gospel of Mark, and 14 (7×2) are found only here.
9. Of the 98 vocabulary words 42 (7×6) are used by Messiah in His address to the disciples; and 56 (7×8) form no part of His vocabulary.
10. Messiah's speech has 56 (7×8) words, and the rest of the passage has 119 (7×17) words.
11. The vocabulary is not only seven, but of seven sevens ($7 \times 7 \times 2$).
12. The same is true of 294 ($7 \times 7 \times 6$).
13. Of 84 ($7 \times 2 \times 2 \times 3$), itself a multiple of seven, and the sum of its factors, 14, (7×2).
14. The sum of the figures in 133 is 7.
15. The 21 forms occurring more than once have 231 letters ($7 \times 11 \times 3$), itself 33 sevens.
16. With the sum of its factors 21 (7×3).
17. The 175 words are distributed among three natural divisions in the narrative: verses 9-11 have 35 (7×5) words, verses 12-18 have 105 (7×15) words, and verses 19-20 have 35 (7×5) words.
18. The total numeric value of the letters of all the words in the passage is 103,663, or $14,809 \times 7$
19. The numeric value of verse 9 is 11,795 ($7 \times 1,685$).
20. The numeric value of verse 10 is 5,418 (7×774).
21. The numeric value of verse 11 is 11,795 ($7 \times 1,685$).
22. The numeric value of verses 12 to 20 is 86,450 ($7 \times 12,350$).
23. The first word of verse 10 has a value of 98 (7×14), the middle word, 4,529 (7×647), and the last word, 791 (7×113).
24. The word deadly in verse 18 is not found elsewhere in the New Testament. With a numeric value of 581 (7×83), deadly is preceded in the vocabulary by 42 (7×6) words, and in the passage by 126 (7×18) words.

You can see that there is a type of mathematical pattern in the language design and structure here also. There are many passages in the Bible with such codes and patterns, not only in the Greek New Testament - but in the Hebrew Torah - Old Testament also.

Below is the very first verse of the Book of Genesis in the Bible. The first seven words make a famous sentence that many in the world know - in the beginning - God created the heavens and the earth.

In the very first verse of the Bible (Genesis 1:1), God sets the tone for gematria that continues richly throughout both the Hebrew Old Testament and Greek New Testament.

40	10	5	30	1	1	200	2	400	10	300	1	200	2
 בראשית ברא אלהים Elohim created In the beginning
90	200	1	5	400	1	6	40	10	40	300	5	400	1
 את השמים ואת הארץ earth and the heavens the

"In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth." In Hebrew, this verse has seven words and 28 (7 × 4) letters. The number seven is repeated throughout the Bible as a number of perfection and completeness. For instance, there are seven feasts of Israel, seven good years and seven famine years interpreted in Pharaoh's dreams, seven years of service for each of Jacob's wives, seven lamps of the Menorah, seven trumpets, seven days' marching around Jericho, seven washings in the Jordan for Naaman, seven churches, seven candlesticks, seven seals, seven horns, seven eyes, seven stars, seven thunders, seven crowns, seven sprinklings of blood before the veil, seven Spirits of God, etc.

Below we can see the mathematical patterns in the first 7 opening words in the Bible - in the Book of Genesis

1. The seven words in the first verse of the Bible have exactly 28 (7×4) letters.
2. The gematria of the first and last letters of the first half of the verse is 42 (7×6).
3. The gematria value of the first and last letters of the second half is 91 (7×13).
4. The nouns have 14 letters (7×2).
5. The sum of the nouns (God, heavens and earth) is 777 (7×111).
6. The place value of these nouns is 147 (7×21).
7. The Hebrew verb created has a value of 203 (7×29).
8. The first 3 words contain the subject and have exactly 14 letters.
9. The place value of these letters is 140 (7×20).
10. Of these 14, the place value of the silent letters is 28 (7×4).
11. And the place value of the non-silent letters is 112 (7×16).
12. The odd numbers among the 14 total 42 (7×6).
13. Even numbers among the 14 total 98 (7×14).
14. Multiplying the 14 place values of letters by their order is 1,008 (7×144).
15. The last four words contain the object and also have exactly 14 letters.
16. The object The Heavens has seven letters, as does the object and the earth.
17. The numeric value of the first and last letters of all words is 1,393 (7×199).
18. The sum of the first and last letters of the first and last words is 497 (7×71).
19. The value of the first and the last letters of each word between is 896 (7×128).
20. The sum of the factors of 896 is 21 (7×3).
21. The first letters of the first and last words have a gematria of 7.
22. The gematria of last letters of the first and last words is 490 (7×70).
23. The middle word and the one before it have together 7 letters.
24. The middle word and the one after it have together 7 letters.
25. The value of the first, middle, and last letters in the sentence is 133 (7×19).
26. Figures in the sum of God (8 + 6) total 14 (7×2).
27. Figures of the letters in God (1, 30, 5, 10, 40) also total 14 (7×2).
28. The sum of the place value figures of letters (1, 12, 5, 10, 13) is 14 (7×2).

There is an amazing digital pattern in this sentence and in many parts of the Torah - Old Testament in Hebrew, which is so amazing - that many people would say that this is the very word of God and it may be evidence that it has not changed throughout time.

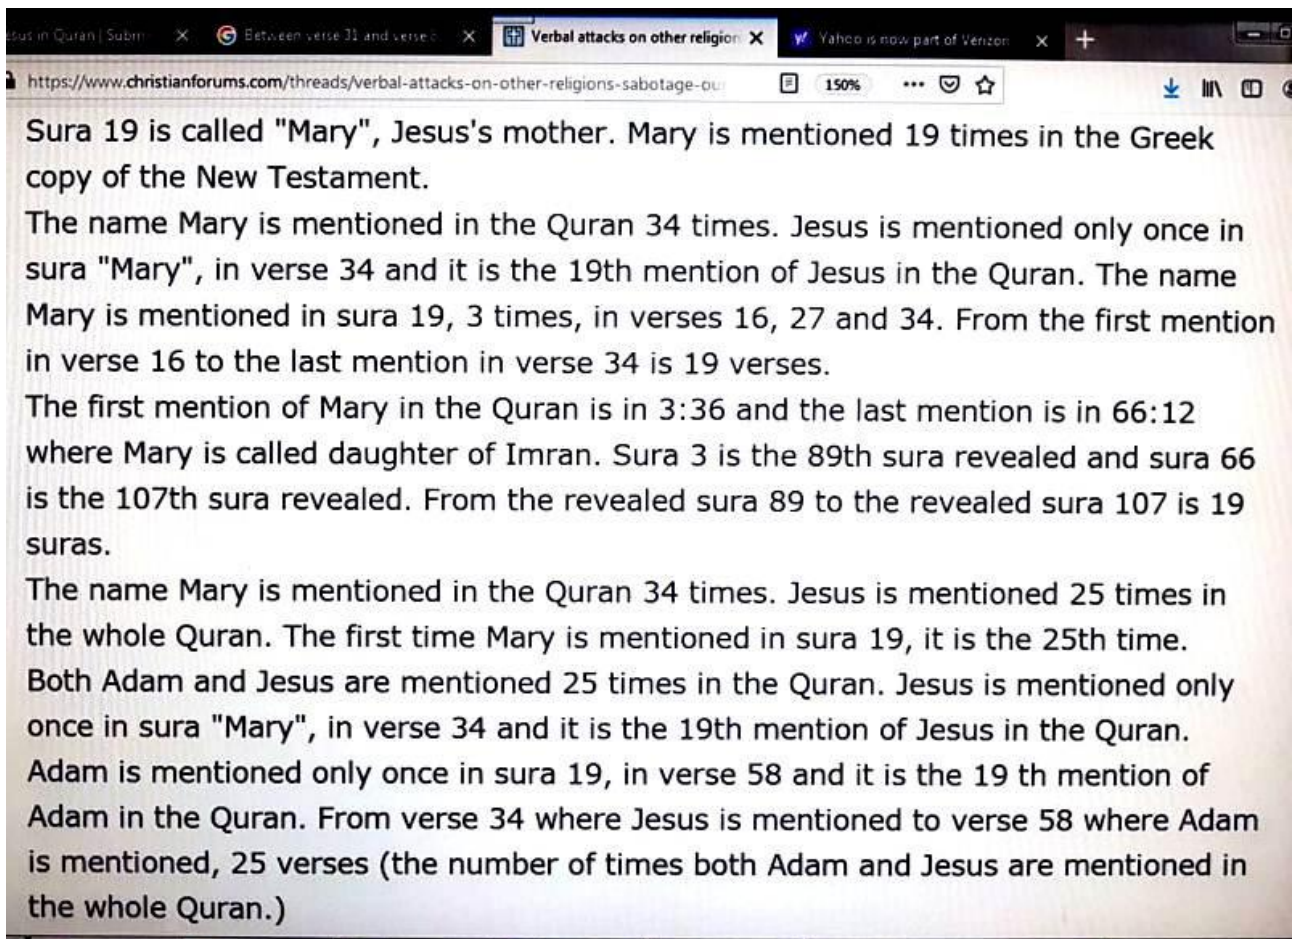

At first look - many who are not experts in Gematria will be shocked and it could influence their faith and belief. Ok - now let's look at the Arabic Koran and we will find similar digital patterns and structures. The word SURA - in English means chapter.

Noah, Abraham, Mohammad,
In the Quran, three of the Suras (chapters) are titled after three of God's prophets: Noah, Abraham, and Mohammad.

- 1. The name Noah in Arabic is made of three letters: N, W, and HH. The Sequential Value of these three letters are 14, 6, and 8. These numbers add up to 28. If we go to Sura "Noah," Sura 71 in the Quran, we see that the sura has 28 verses.
- 2. The name Abraham in Arabic is made of seven letters: A, B, R, A, H, Y, and M. The Sequential Value of these seven letters are 1, 2, 20, 1, 5, 10, and 13. These numbers add up to 52. If we go to Sura "Abraham," Sura 14 in the Quran, we see that the sura has 52 verses.
- 3. The name Mohammad in Arabic is made of four letters: M, HH, M, and D. Sequential Value of these four letters are 13, 8, 13, and 4, the sum of which is 38. If we go to Sura "Mohammad," Sura 47 in the Quran, we see that the sura has 38 verses, (19 x 2).

following that discovery it is interesting that sura numbers for those suras(Noah,Abraham and Muhammad) is 71,14 and 47 :
only three digits 7,1 & 4 which reminds us of "seven pairs" or "14" initials. of all permutations of 1,4 and 7 only 741 is a multiple of 19. starting from the end of the Quran and going back 741 verses we get 74:1 (O, you hidden secret).

And here is some more from the Arabic Koran

Researchers have pointed out that the average human will take a very long time to calculate or understand these mathematical digital patterns.

Below is more gematria from the Arabic Koran

Below is some advanced codes and patterns in the Arabic Koran - it shows how many times certain letters occur in certain chapters in the Arabic Koran and they form an amazing and unbelievable digital pattern.

In fact researchers have found many amazing digital patters in the gematria of the Arabic Koran that are equal to science and nature.

Researchers have stressed that if you decide to study Gematria and codes in religious texts - you must be very careful - much information out there has been falsified for religious and political organisations so a careful investigation needs to be done

Now let's look at some digital gematria patterns in modern languages such as English - below is a table to calculate simple English gematria

The image shows a screenshot of a web browser displaying several gematria-related pages. The main focus is on a 'Simple English Gematria Chart' which lists letters A through Z with their corresponding numerical values. Other visible elements include a calculator interface with a total of 888, a 'Pythagorean English Gematria Chart', and a footer from 'freetofindtruth.blogspot.com'.

Below are the mathematical examples of gematria of many words in English - researchers point out that if you look carefully - you will find a digital pattern in many words and sentences in the English language - but not always

As you can see - English is a digital language with digital patterns - and not only is it digital - it has been created to digitally accommodate words and new words to make a digital design - especially for words that are similar - for example - G_d and Muhammad and Jesus are all 74 and this - you may say is the secret of July 4 - which we know as Independence Day - July is the 7 month (United States of America - Independence Day).

Many researchers claim that Independence Day never actually happened in the past and was totally created to match the maths of G_d and Muhammad and Jesus.

Now let's see gematria in the French language - if you don't understand the words - use a French dictionary to know the meanings of the words.

If you look at the digital patters in the French language they are very different from English and unique and super amazing. French is a Latin language and similar to English up to a certain extent and therefore it must have similar gematria to English? Researchers show that it is totally different and we can see that from the digital evidence above.

Researchers now state that these modern languages did not evolve and that they must have been created on a digital platform such as a computer and were then given to us - or that the languages were created - based on a language that already had a digital gematria - maths code.

It is very easy and simple to create a new digital language and a new written alphabet with your own sounds - from an existing digital language such as English or French or Hebrew or Arabic or Slavonic - you do not even need a computer to do it - but to create the original digital languages - you need an advanced computer - most people are not aware of this.

Which language was the original - English or French or Hebrew or Arabic or Slavonic? Is another question that researchers are asking - or are they independently created from the same computer or were they created from each other or from a master digital language?

Many researchers have concluded that humans did not originate or evolve from an animal species such as apes and monkeys and that the digital design in language for example - is evidence that the first digital language was possibly created by an advanced Creator - and that this first language was digitally created by the Creator. Some researchers state that this first language was possibly Hebrew, while others say that it may have Slavonic or Arabic or Greek or even Sanskrit.

Because many languages have a digital pattern and show many different patterns - sometimes equal to nature - therefore it is easy to find digital codes and patterns in actual texts. Some of the digital patterns in the Bible and the Arabic Koran are so amazing and one might think that both books may have had some sort of advanced origin because of the digital patterns. But researchers state that we must be careful before we make such claims.

For example there are many thousands of different copies and versions of the Bible in the world today, that are different to each other, and who knows what digital codes they all have. Also because languages are digital - it is very easy to find digital patterns in any book or in any sentences and these can be manipulated by people.

Researchers state that looking at world history - you will find from country to country that they all copied from each other - and added and deleted new stories and events as they wished. There is of course a true history for the entire world - and because researchers state that history is a lie - the big question is - what is true history?

Regarding languages, researchers noticed that most nations of the world have had new languages imposed upon them, by new nation states which formed within the last 150 years. Many researchers discovered that many of these new languages were created from older original languages. Researchers believe that new languages may have been created on purpose, in order to remove the people of the world from their true history and true culture.

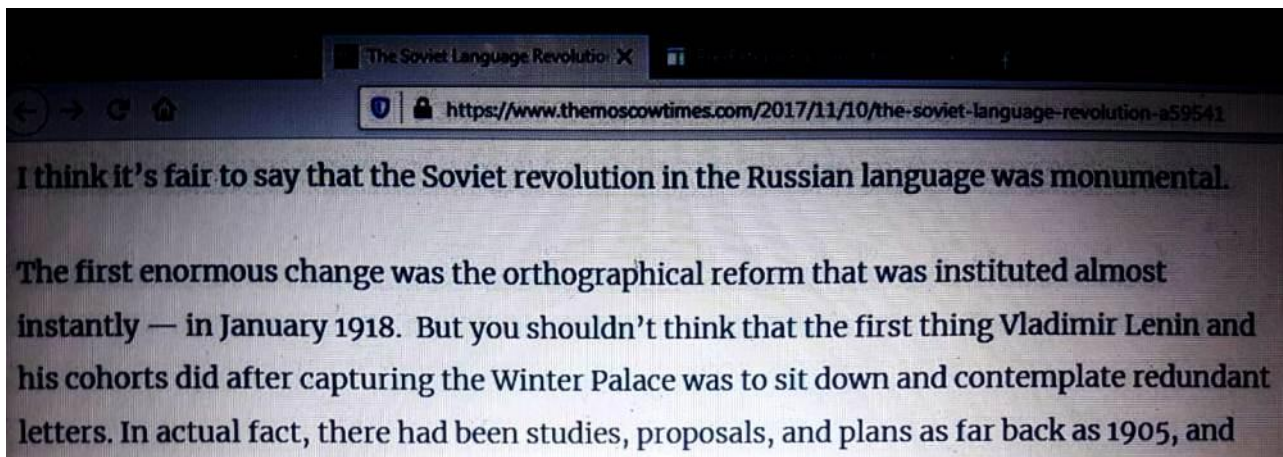

As the process of urbanisation increased in the last 150 years, people went to live in city areas which were controlled by the nation state. Schools, radio, television, newspapers and books, all promoted the newly created languages and these modern newly created languages replaced the original true languages that people originally spoke.

This can be very clearly seen today for example when South American migrants go to live in America, within 30 to 50 years many of their children or grandchildren do not speak Spanish. Another example is when migrants from Arab countries go to live in France, within 30 to 50 years, many of their children or grandchildren do not speak Arabic. Another example is when migrants from China go to live in Japan, within 30 to 50 years, many of their children or grandchildren can do not speak Chinese.

Russia is the biggest country in the world and today the modern Russian language is spoken by millions of people around the world. Russian is mainly spoken in Russia, Belarus, Ukraine, Kazakhstan, Kyrgyzstan, Azerbaijan, Estonia, Georgia, Latvia, Lithuania, Moldova, Tajikistan, Turkmenistan and Uzbekistan.

What people do not know is that the modern Russian language was created between 1900 and 1930 and was then imposed upon the people by the Soviet Union.

The alphabet was changed and thousands of new words were added into the language. The way the language was spoken was totally changed. The modifications were so big that many called it a different language. It was a total language revolution.

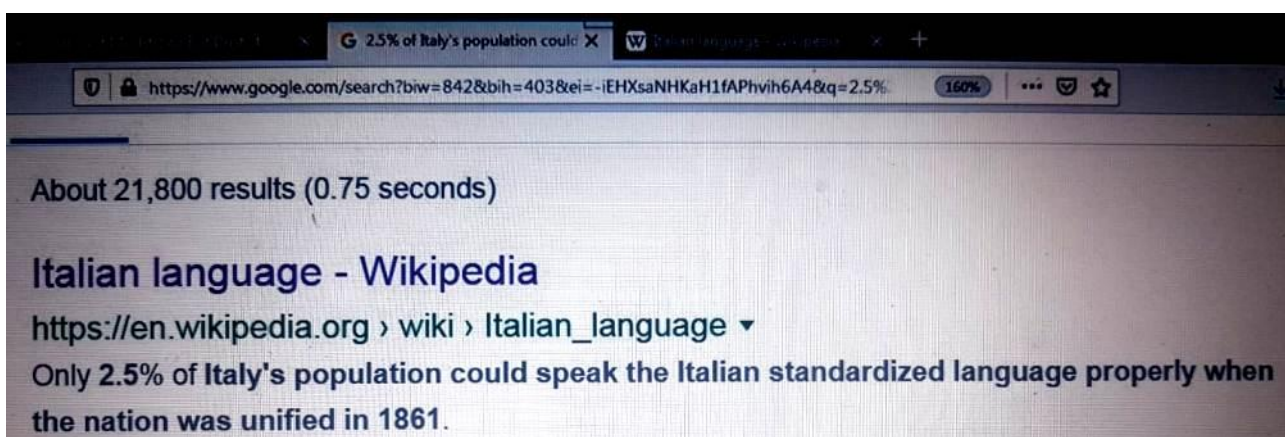

Also many people in Russia at the time spoke other languages and other types of dialects. Many people spoke old German dialects for example or old Tatar languages. Because of the language change, many people could no longer properly read or understand old literature.

Italy is an important country in Europe today with over 60 million people. The language spoken there is modern Italian. But researchers discovered that most Italians could not even speak this language a hundred years ago.

Even in 1950, less than 20 percent of Italians actually spoke Italian. This means more than 80 percent of Italians in 1950 did not speak Italian.

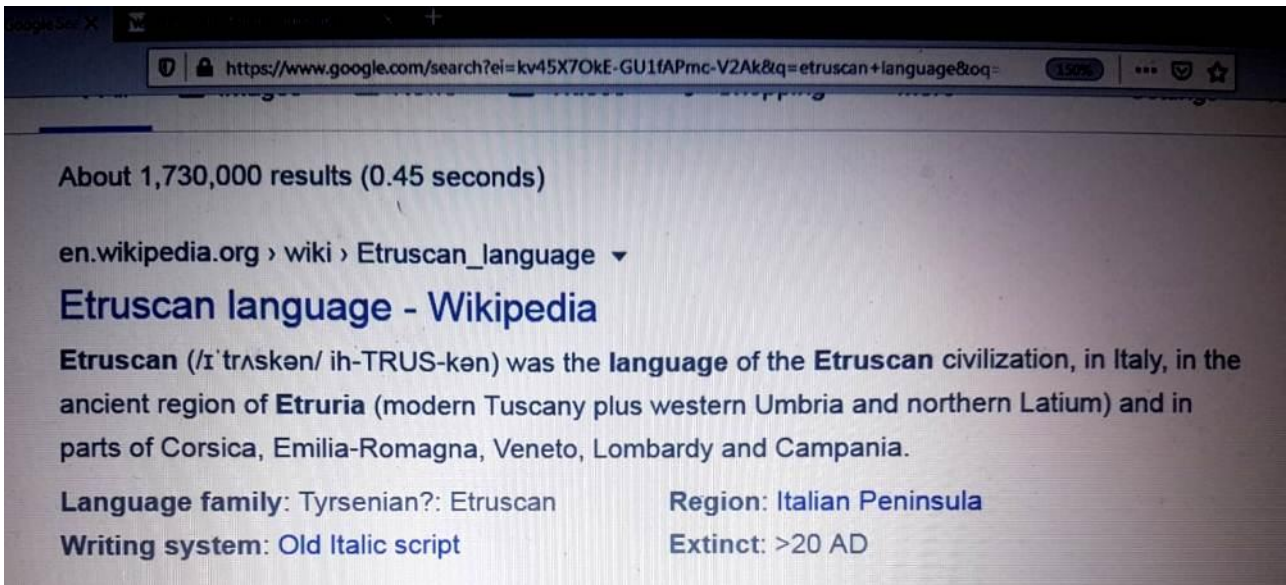

What is even worse, is that an estimated 2.5 percent of the people spoke standardized Italian in 1861 and 97.5 percent of the people did not speak it.

A serious question is what language did the people of Italy speak a hundred years ago?

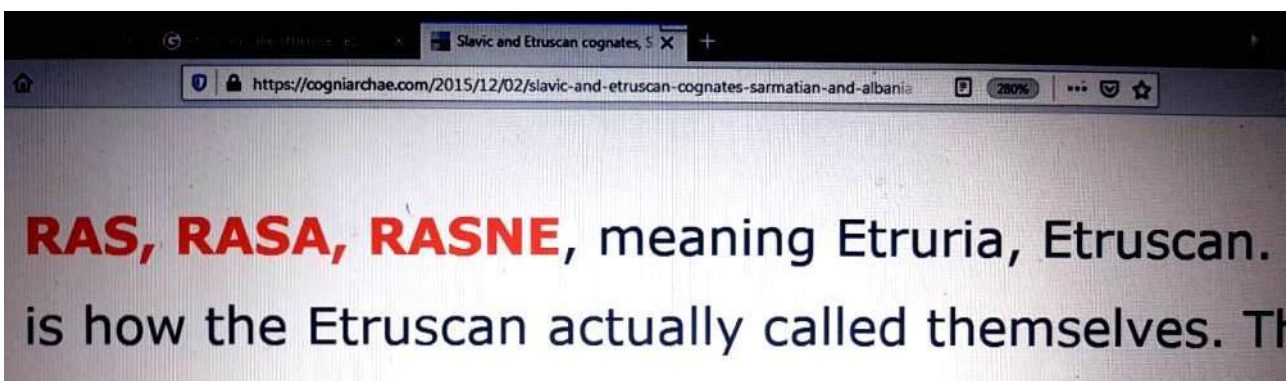

One thing that researchers noticed was that the most common surname in Italy was Rossi and Russo. Rossi and Russo sounded very similar to the word Rossiya, which is another word for Russia. Researchers realised that the Rossi were actually from the Rasi people known as Etruscans

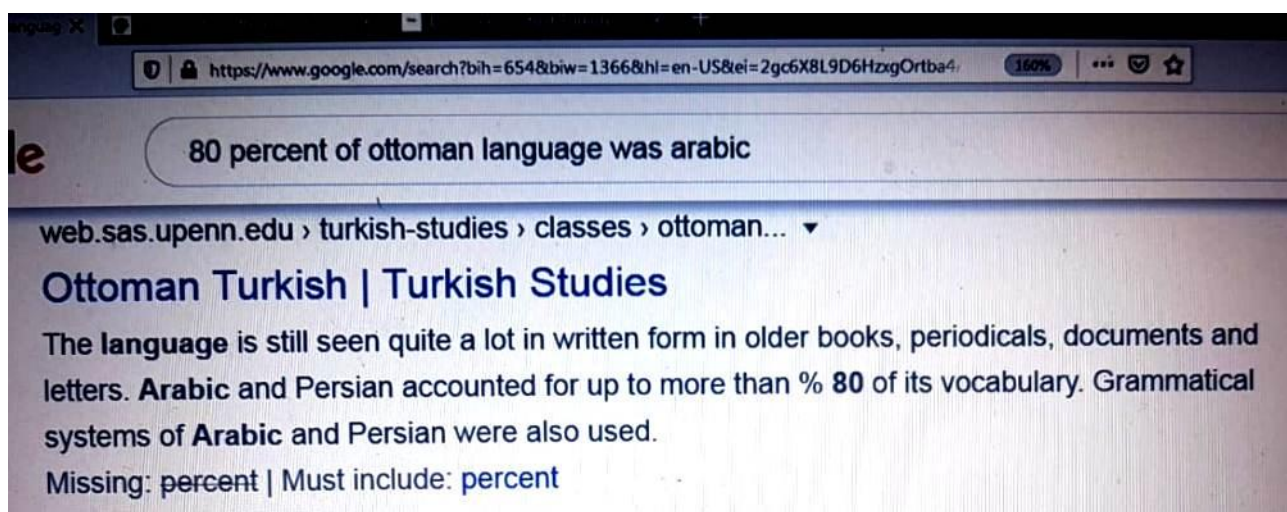

According to historians, the Etruscan language was spoken in many parts of Italy and then died 2000 years ago and was replaced by Latin. But many researchers now believe that this story is a lie and are investigating similarities between the Etruscan language and Slavic and Arabic and Germanic languages

The Old Russian language is not exactly what we may think it is, many researchers have found similarities between Old Russian and Slavic languages and Old German and other regional European languages.

The Etruscans of Italy actually called themselves Ras or Rasa or Rasi or Rassen. Many researchers are now investigating the Etruscan civilisation and believe it is not thousands of years old but may have been a more recent civilisation.

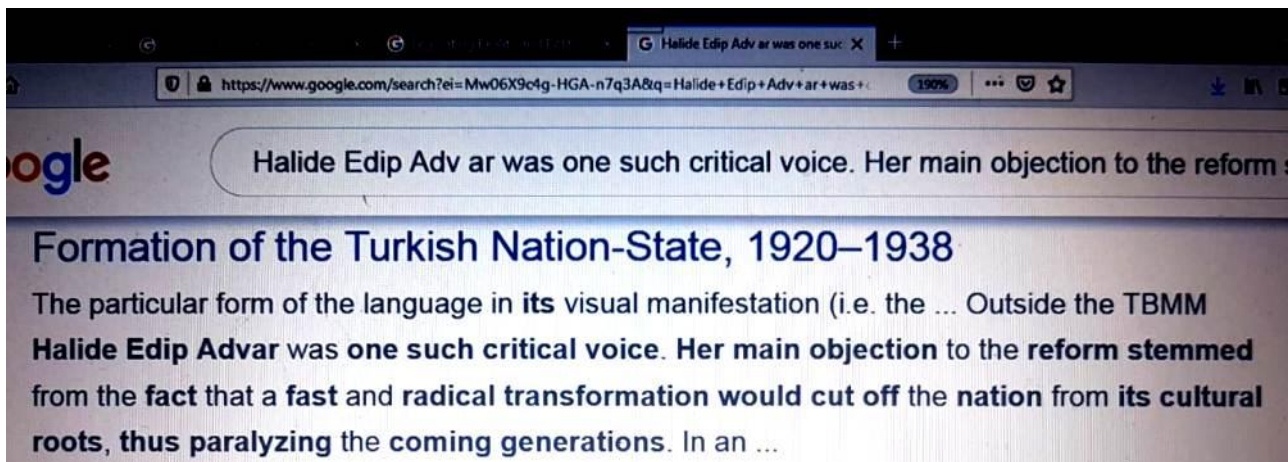

Turkey is an important country in Europe and in Asia and has over 80 million people. The language spoken there is modern Turkish. But researchers discovered that most Turkish people could not even speak this modern version of Turkish a hundred years ago.

Many people in Turkey at that time spoke Turkish dialects and these dialects included thousands of Arabic and Persian words. Even the writing in Turkey was the Arabic writing. Many people in Turkey also spoke many other languages at the time such as Old Albanian and other old European languages.

The Turkish republic changed all of this in the 1920's. Many Arabic words were removed from the language and many words were borrowed from dialects from Turkic tribes in Central Asia and many words were borrowed from other languages. The change was so big that thousands of words were added and deleted to the language and the writing script was changed from Arabic to a Latin based script.

The people who let the change take place knew exactly what they were doing. They knew that such radical changes would cut the people off from their historical and cultural roots. Today, Turkish people cannot even read the books and documents of the past anymore.

Spain is an important country in Europe and the Spanish language is one of the most widely spoken languages in the world today by millions of people around the world. Spanish is spoken in Mexico, Colombia, Spain, Argentina, Peru, Venezuela, Chile, Ecuador, Guatemala, Cuba, Bolivia, Dominican Republic, Honduras, Paraguay, El Salvador, Nicaragua, Costa Rica, Panama, Uruguay, Puerto Rico, Equatorial Guinea and in many other countries.

What people do not know is that most of the people in these countries did not speak Spanish at all a hundred years ago and that the Spanish language was imposed or forced on the people within many of these lands, in the last 100 years. It is estimated that 80 percent of the people in Spain did not even speak modern Spanish in 1930. The Spanish Government led by General Franco banned all other languages in Spain and forced the Spanish language upon the people of Spain.

The regional languages and dialects included Catalan (Valencian), Galician, Basque, and Andalusian (Arabic). The story and origins of human language is another long story too long to mention here. General Franco knew that if he could replace the original culture and language and history of the people, then he can create the new Spain that he wished to create.

A similar pattern of language changing could be seen in many countries throughout the world in the last 150 years. Many researchers noticed that this policy may have been done deliberately to remove people away from the past and to hide the true history of the world. Researchers came to the conclusion that not only world history had been changed, but the languages of the people had also been changed.

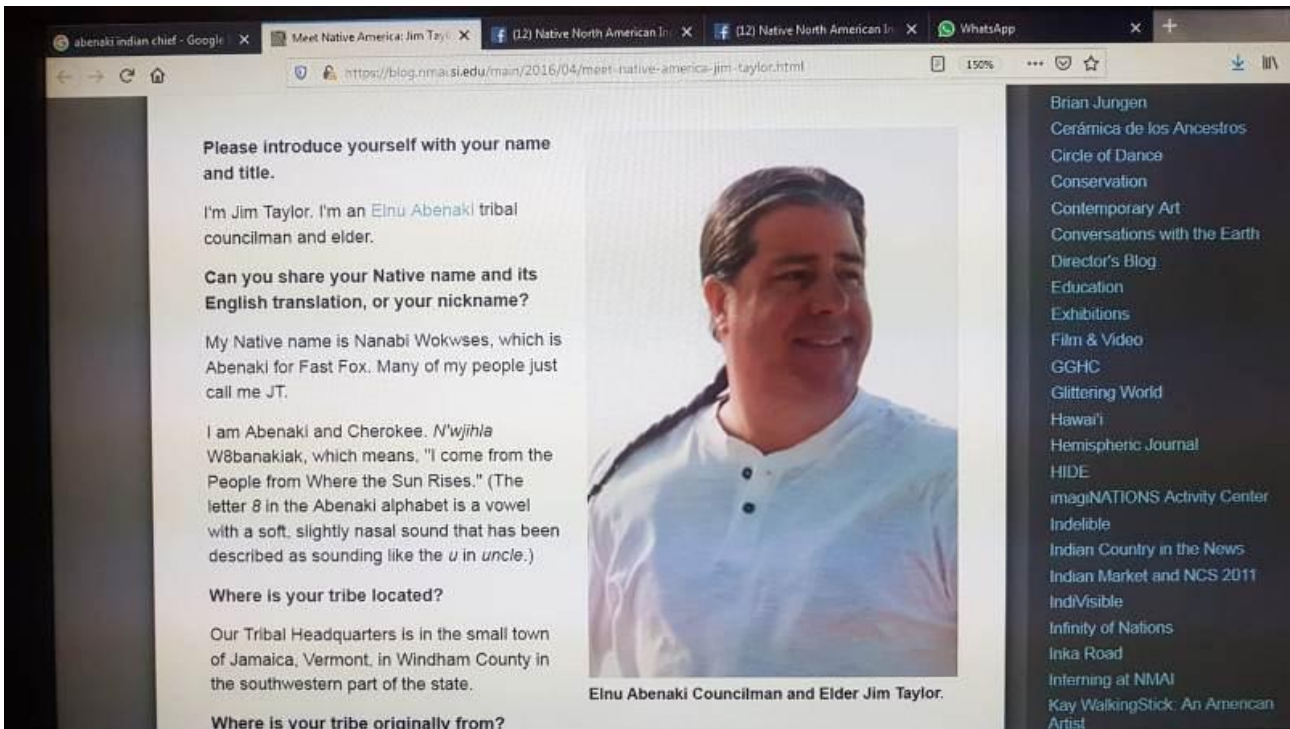

Researchers began to question why would anyone want to change the history of all the world? Why would anyone want to change the languages of all the world?

When people are told about American history - historians give you the impression that Native Americans (the original people of North and South America) - looked similar to the people in the photo below (a type of Asiatic people) - and historians give the Native Americans names such as - American Indians

What historians do not make clear is that many of these so-called American Indians were probably actually whiter skinned people same like any other white European person

Below are Cherokee Indians from Florida - USA

Below are Abenaki Indians today with tradition dress and they clearly have whiter skin

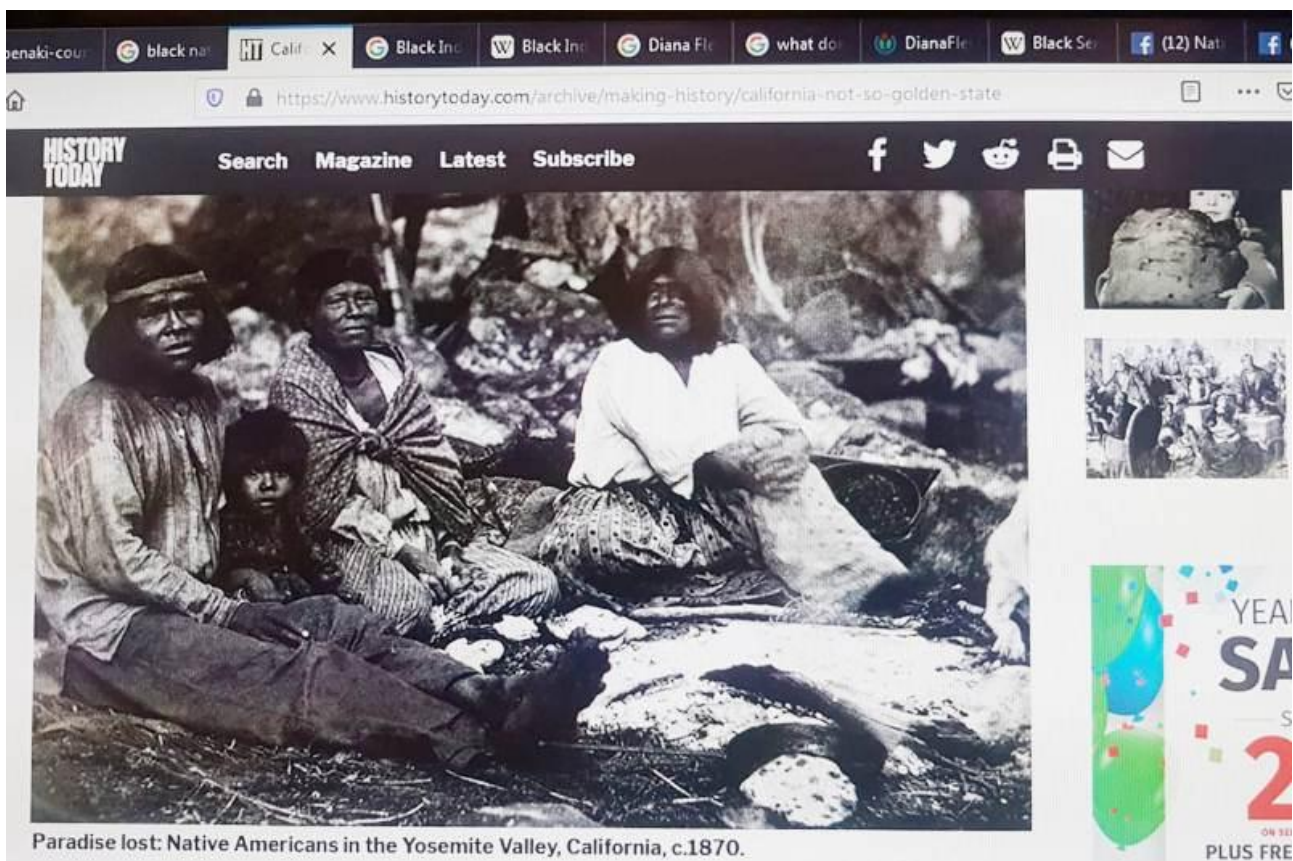

Historians have given the world an impression that America was a land of Native Americans - of Asiatic type of peoples - but they rarely mention that many of the native people were probably white skinned or maybe even black skinned people.

The historians generally say that the white Europeans went to the Americas in the last few hundred years and they took African slaves there by force - today they are known as African Americans.

Researchers state that the evidence shows that many of the Native Americans may have been white people but - in the last 100 years or so - many of the white Native Americans must have mixed in with European immigrants.

A lot of world history has been written by whiter skinned people - and much history does show bias and racism towards people who are Asiatic and African type of people.

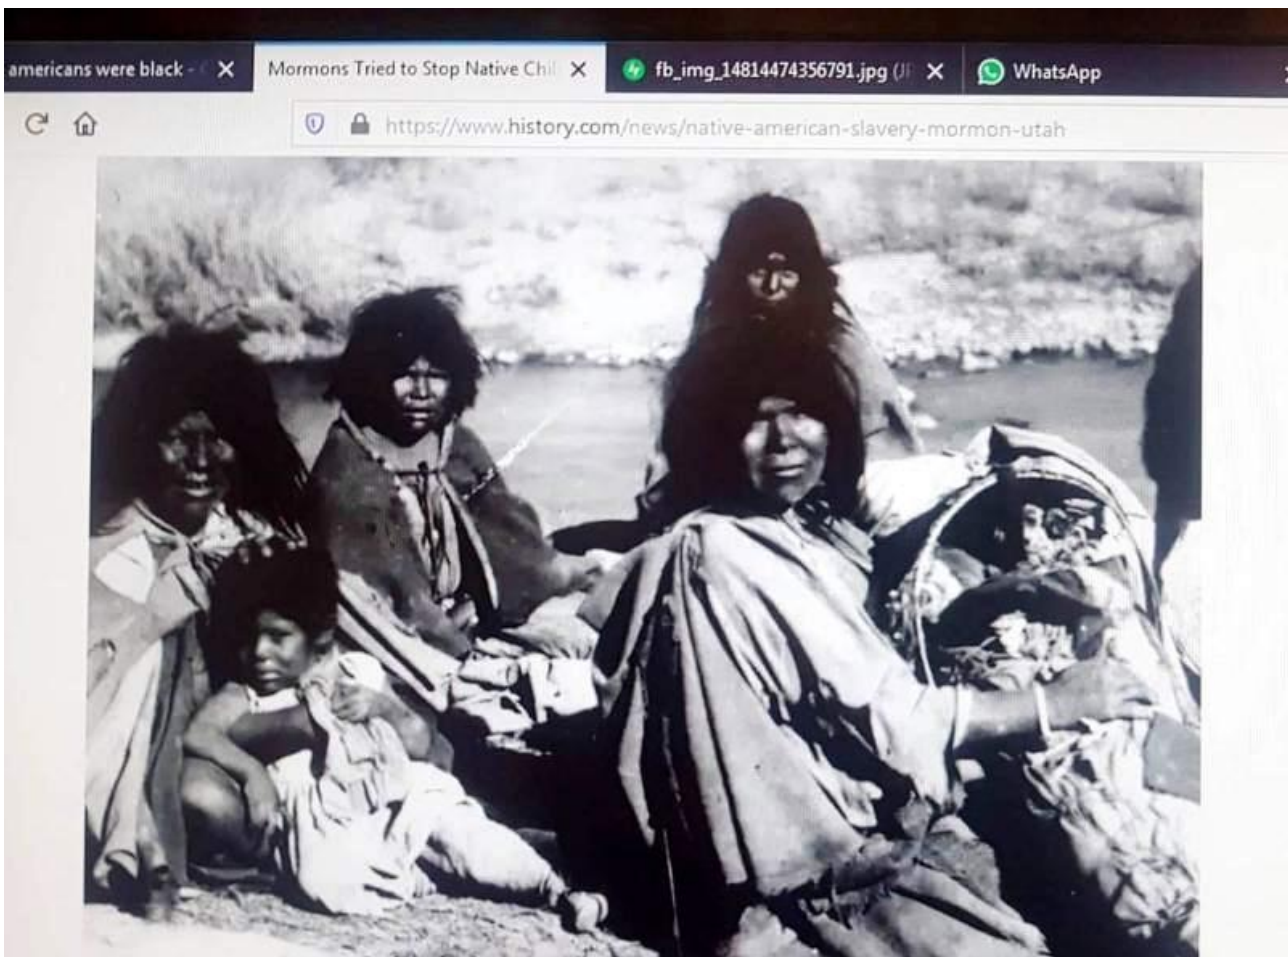

What historians have generally said is that the African Americans were taken to America as slaves - not a very nice story - but researchers point out that the evidence shows that the story of slavery may not be true at all.

Here are some Native Americans in California in 1870 - one thing that can be noticed in this photo is that they have black colour skin.

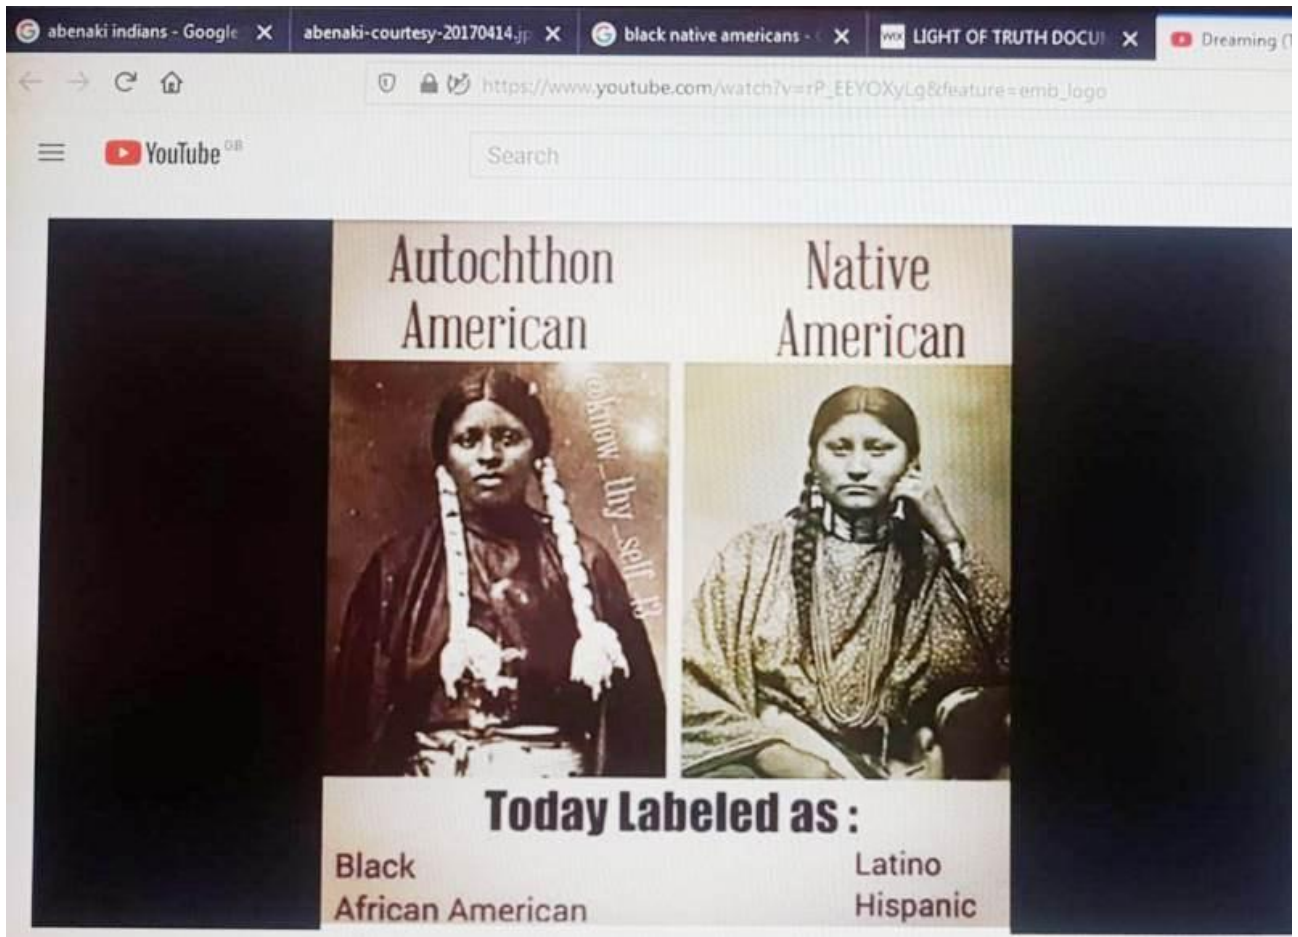

Above is a lady from probably among the Seminole Indians - researchers are still studying into the background of this lady and the photo - but one thing is for sure - she has black colour skin

Above are Native Americans of the Shoshone tribe in Salt Lake City, Utah, United States of America - 1860 - the people in the photo do not look white skinned or Indian or Asiatic - but have black colour skin

Researcher point out much of this evidence - and they say that historians may have lied - to hide the true history of the Americas.

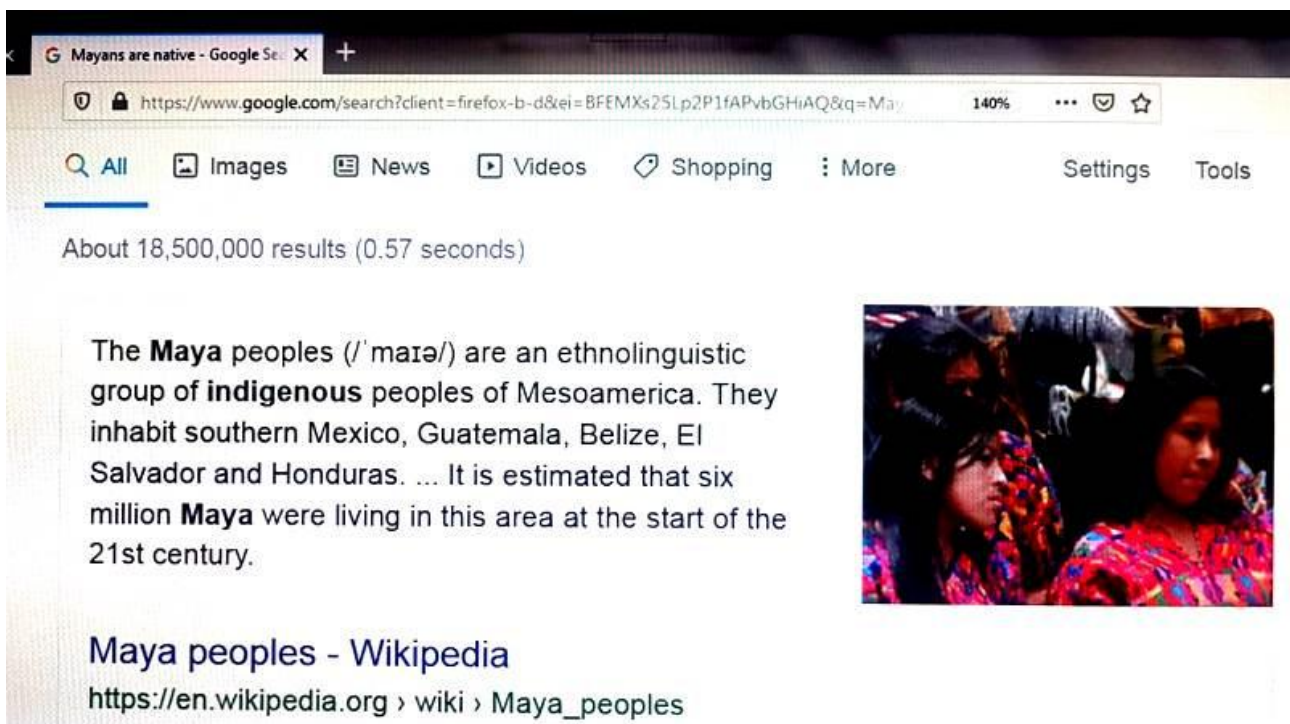

What is very strange - is that many black people in the Americas - are called - African Americans and many Native Americans are called Latinos or Hispanics - but white Europeans are called by most people - Americans.

Researchers have pointed out that this is strange - because historians say that the white Europeans are immigrants in America. If they are immigrants - researchers ask why they are not called European Americans - after all the historians say that they are immigrants from Europe. If black people are given the name - African American - then why are white people not given the name - European American?

What if the true history of the Americas - is that black people were not slaves from Africa - but were natives also? What if the truth is that they have been enslaved in their own land and made to believe that they are foreigners in America - and falsely made to believe that their home is in Africa?

Yes there was much slavery in America - there were white slaves - Asian slaves and black slaves - but the story that African Americans are from Africa and were shipped as slaves - is questioned by researchers. There is much evidence to show that many black people - were probably actually Native Black Americans and not African Americans.

The Mayan people for example are told today that they are native people in the Americas

Maya peoples - Wikipedia
https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Maya_peoples

Historians state that around the year 1500 - there was an estimated 150 million Native American peoples - living in North and South America. (These people are also known as American Indians or Indigenous people)

The Americas - north and south - is a very big part of the world and not small. What historians say is that these so-called Native Americans or American Indians - 90% to 95% of these people are dead today.

Based on global population growth in the last few centuries - there should be hundreds of millions of Native American people alive today in the world - but there is not because most of them supposedly died after 1492 - after the Europeans went to North and South America.

Researchers doubt and question this story and claim that it may be totally false.

Researchers state that the history of Europe and America needs to be looked at again - the history of America seems to be have been written in a way to favour the whiter skinned peoples compared to the black skin peoples - and because of the clear obvious bias and racism seen in the way that American history has been written - there is obviously much lies within it - many stories and events and photos and evidence may have been falsified to match a fake history - so researchers believe that the history of America is a lie.

Researchers point out that Independence Day for example may be a total fabrication and many other events too. Many African American researchers state that the history of the United States is a lie and this lie was created to hide the true history of Black American people - who were native to the American lands.

Many researchers point out that true Black American history has been stolen and that the story of slavery is a total lie - and that this lie was created so that the land of the Black American people can be stolen - and also so that the Black American people - will have no claim to the American continents as their ancestral home - because they are so-called African slave immigrants.

Between 1850 and 1930 - an estimated 250 000 children - from cities in America and Europe - were sent to the middle and the west of the North American continent - the Midwest by train.

These trains are known as the Orphan Trains

They were sent by train to so-called FOSTER homes to take care of them. Many other children went to the Midwest by other means of transportation including boat and horse travel. Many of the children were kidnapped or forced away from their mothers and fathers from cities in America and in Europe and the Middle East.

Many of these children were then sold - it was big business - and many were used as slaves in farms and factories - many historians try to show this slavery - as a type of adoption - but it was slavery.

One thing that was strange about this slavery that was taking place in the United States of America and in Canada and much of South America and Australia at the time - was that very little Black or African children were sent in these orphan trains Researchers found this strange - because the story of slavery focuses mainly on black slavery. Many farmers and factories in America - preferred mostly white or Middle Eastern colour children and most people totally refused black children.

Historians claim that the slave trade of black people in America - mostly came to an end in 1865 and the slave trade mostly happened before this date - but researchers claim that this story may not be true at all and that it is a lie.

The name Otacity^[3] (Utsidihi) was a warrior's title he had earned at an early age; he also used the English translation Mankiller.

Ostenaco was a war chief or skiagusta^[4] /ˌskaɪəˈɡʌstə/ (ᎠᎹᎩᎳᎠᎩᎳ, asgayagvsta) of the Cherokee town Tomotley. Probably born in Great Hiwassee, he had resided in Great Tellico before becoming skiagusta. Later in life he migrated to the town of Ooltewah, during the Cherokee–American wars.

Ostenaco

Portrait of Ostenaco by Joshua Reynolds, 1762

A man named Ostenaco was a war chief of the Cherokee people and his portrait was made in 1762. If we compare his portrait today - Ostenaco does not look like an Asiatic type of person - but looks like a black person. Researcher's point this out and state that Ostenaco and his people were probably black people and that they are Native Americans and not African slaves or immigrants to America.

Ninigret was the chief of a so-called Native American INDIAN people living between Boston city and New York city - based in Rhode Island.

Ninigret (also known as Juanemo according to Roger Williams) (c. 1610^[1]-1677^[2]) was a sachem of the eastern Niantic Indian tribe in New England at the time of colonization, based in Rhode Island. In 1637, he allied with the colonists and the Narragansetts against the Pequot Indians.

Ninigret is credited with keeping the Niantics out of King Philip's War, in which the colonists fought to prevent their homes and settlements from being destroyed by certain Indian tribes.^[3]

If we compare his portrait today - Ninigret does not look like an Asiatic or Indian type of person - but looks more like a black person.

Researcher's point this out and state that Ninigret and his people were probably black people and that they are Native Americans - and not African slaves or immigrants to America.

Below is a comparison of facial features of Ninigret and his eyes compared to a black person and clear similarities can be seen.

The Niitsitapi people or Blackfoot Native Indians live in the American state of Montana and in the Canadian provinces of Alberta and Saskatchewan.

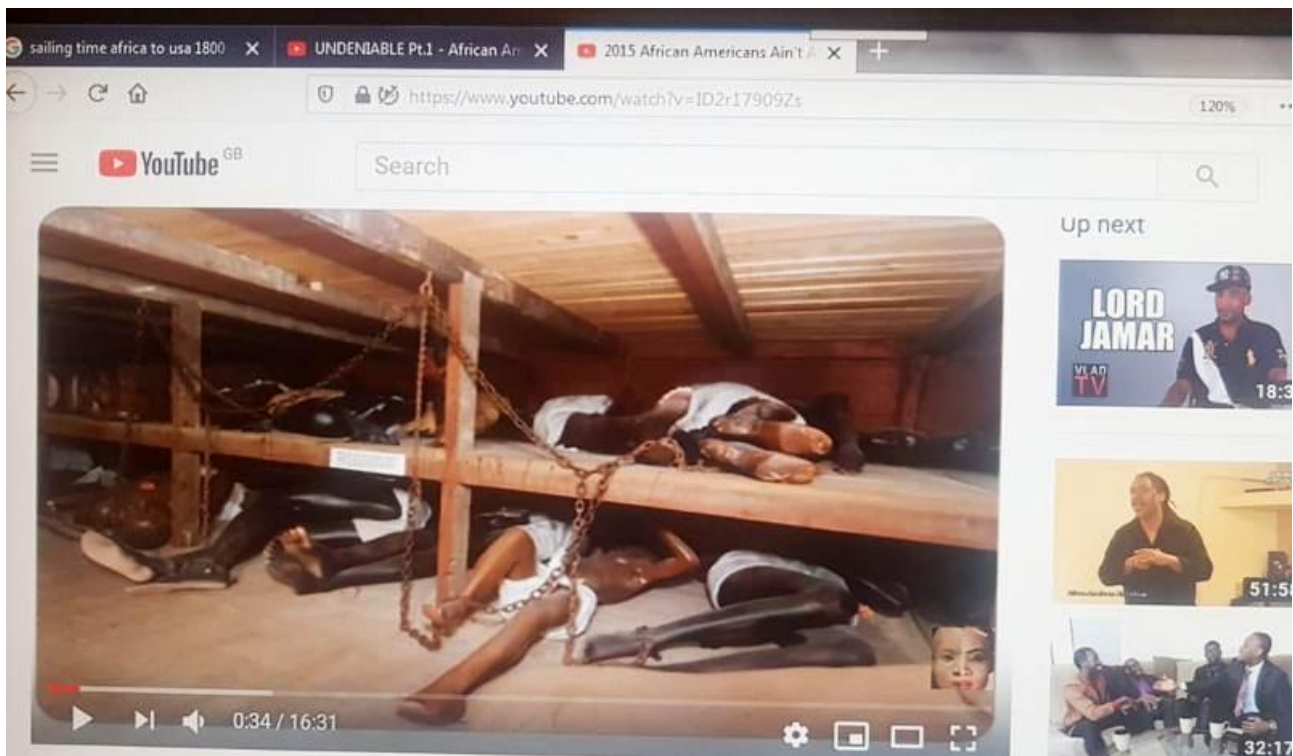

A photo of a so-called Blackfoot Native Indian American was taken in 1890 - the man was known as - Winnipeg Jack - Dog Child

It can be clearly seen that this man was a black person. Researchers point out that there is evidence to show that Native Americans included White Natives and Asiatic type of Natives and also BLACK Natives. Looking at the orphan trains and the evidence that researchers present - it shows that many Black people were among the Native American peoples.

Researchers doubt the story of African slaves being shipped to America - chained up in ships as prisoners. According to historians - an average ship from Africa to America in 1800 took several weeks.

How many slaves were taken in every ship and what did they eat for several weeks - and how did they do their toilet on the ships - if they were prisoners? The ships were not modern ships like today - researchers state that the story does not make sense at all and that it is a big lie and big joke.

The Battle of the Little Bighorn - 1876 - is a very famous and important event in the history of the United States of America. This was a battle that supposedly included the famous Native American tribes of Lakota and Cheyenne and Arapaho.

The Battle of the Little Bighorn, known to the Lakota and other Plains Indians as the Battle of the Greasy Grass^[10] and also commonly referred to as Custer's Last Stand, was an armed engagement between combined forces of the Lakota, Northern Cheyenne, and Arapaho tribes and the 7th Cavalry Regiment of the United States Army. The battle, which resulted in the defeat of U.S. forces, was the most significant action of the Great Sioux War of 1876. It took place on June 25–26, 1876, along the Little Bighorn River in the Crow Indian Reservation in southeastern Montana Territory.^[11]

The fight was an overwhelming victory for the Lakota, Northern Cheyenne, and Arapaho, who were led by several major war leaders, including Crazy Horse and Chief Gall, and had been inspired by the visions of Sitting Bull (Tháŋŋáŋka Íyotake). The U.S. 7th Cavalry, a force of 700 men, suffered a major defeat while under the command of Lieutenant Colonel George Armstrong Custer (formerly a brevetted

What is the significance of the Battle of the Little Bighorn? ^

The Battle of the Little Bighorn was the most successful action fought by the American Indians against the United States Army in the West. It was part of the Campaign of 1876, an effort by the United States Government to force the Sioux tribes onto their Reservations.

One of the Indians who fought at this battle was a man known as Flying Hawk

Flying Hawk (Oglala Lakota: Čhetán Kinyán in Standard Lakota Orthography; also known as Moses Flying Hawk; March 1854 – December 24, 1931) was an Oglala Lakota warrior, historian, educator and philosopher. Flying Hawk's life chronicles the history of the Oglala Lakota people through the 19th and early 20th centuries, as he fought to deflect the worst effects of white rule; educate his people and preserve sacred Oglala Lakota land and heritage. Chief Flying Hawk was a combatant in Red Cloud's War and in nearly all of the fights with the U.S. Army during the Great Sioux War of 1876. He fought alongside his first cousin Crazy Horse and his brothers Kicking Bear and Black Fox II in the Battle of the Little Big Horn in 1876, and was present at the death of Crazy Horse in 1877 and the Wounded Knee Massacre of 1890. Main article: Buffalo Bill

In 1883, Buffalo Bill's Wild West was founded in North Platte, Nebraska when Buffalo Bill Cody turned his real life adventure into the first outdoor western show.^[8] The show's publicist Arizona John Burke employed innovating techniques at the time, such as celebrity endorsements, press kits, publicity stunts, op-ed articles, billboards and product licensing, that contributed to the success and popularity of the show.^[9]

Buffalo Bill's Wild West toured Europe eight times, the first four tours between 1887 and 1892, and the last four from 1902 to 1906.^[10] The first tour was in 1887 as part of the American Exhibition, which coincided with the Golden Jubilee of Queen Victoria.^[11] The Prince of Wales, later King Edward VII, requested a private preview of the Wild West performance; he was impressed enough to arrange a command performance for Queen Victoria. The Queen enjoyed the show and meeting the performers, setting the stage for another command performance on June 20, 1887, for her Jubilee guests. Royalty from all over Europe attended, including the future Kaiser Wilhelm II and the future King George V.^[12] Buffalo Bill's Wild West closed its successful London run in October 1887 after more than 300 performances, with more than 2.5 million tickets sold.^[13] The tour made stops in Birmingham and Manchester before returning to the United States in May 1888 for a short summer tour.

Poster showing Buffalo Bill's Wild West and Congress of Rough Riders of the World battling Cuban insurgents, c. 1898.

According to historians - Buffalo Bill and many other business men were doing shows throughout America and Europe - and these performances were about the American Civil War and the Indian Wars - Native American Wars.

These shows were so popular - for example - just in one city for example - London - Buffalo Bills Wild West Show - had sold more than 2.5 million tickets in October 1887. It was big business worth millions and millions of dollars - not only were there many shows - but many books were making money from such stories and many children toys and other artefacts were sold - it was big business - a way to make huge money.

Researchers have pointed out the same people who were supposedly killing each other on the battle field - were also actors in such stage shows.

Sitting Bull and Flying Hawk and Geronimo (from the Apache Indian tribe) - were all now suddenly actors in Buffalo Bills Wild West Show. Many other American Native Indians who were fighters in the wars - were now suddenly and mysteriously actors in many of the different shows in America and around the world.

Researchers found it strange that the same American soldiers who were killing Native American Indians and their people and families - were now working together and travelling - and drinking and laughing together - making lots of money in their shows. And they were acting and making comedy performances about the same wars - as if nothing had happened - and no hatred or scars had remained from the so-called wars - where many people had supposedly died. Many of these people who were acting in the shows - were supposed to be murderers and rapists and war criminals - but they were actors also. Researchers asked - what the hell is going on?

After any war there is much hatred between 2 sides and it takes - many decades to fix the pain. Many enemies of war are usually found in prison or are supposed to be executed for war crimes and murder. But these people - were out together making money and partying and acting. Imagine seeing Saddam and George Bush and Osama and the leaders of Iran and North Korean and the Clintons - all of them as friends today - making shows together and living together and travelling and acting together. It all seemed like a big joke.

This made researchers question - if the American Civil War and the Indian Wars - Native American Wars - if these wars actually did happen the way that we are told - or were they just part of a show - and faked events - and falsified history? And all the photo evidence of the wars - were they made by the actors? And if so - what is the real history of America?

A lot of damage can be seen in the cities where the American Civil War supposedly happened - or was that damage caused by other events and the true history was modified?

A lot of evidence can be seen of problems between American Natives Indians and White European immigrants - and many events may have happened - but have they been falsified to create a new history - to hide a greater original history?

Researchers questioned slavery and they found white children as slaves being taken in orphan trains and they found evidence that showed Black Americans - as Native peoples of America - and also - they found much evidence - to show that the story of George Washington was a total lie. Below are examples of some of the facts that researchers have pointed out - regarding history at the time of George Washington

Who was George Washington - the supposed first President of the United States of America?

George Washington was known as the "Father of our Country" and was unanimously elected the first President of the United States (1789-1797). He was Commander of the American forces during the Revolutionary War and helped frame the Constitution of the United States.

Washington Dc is the capital city of the United States of America - below is a map showing the location of the city

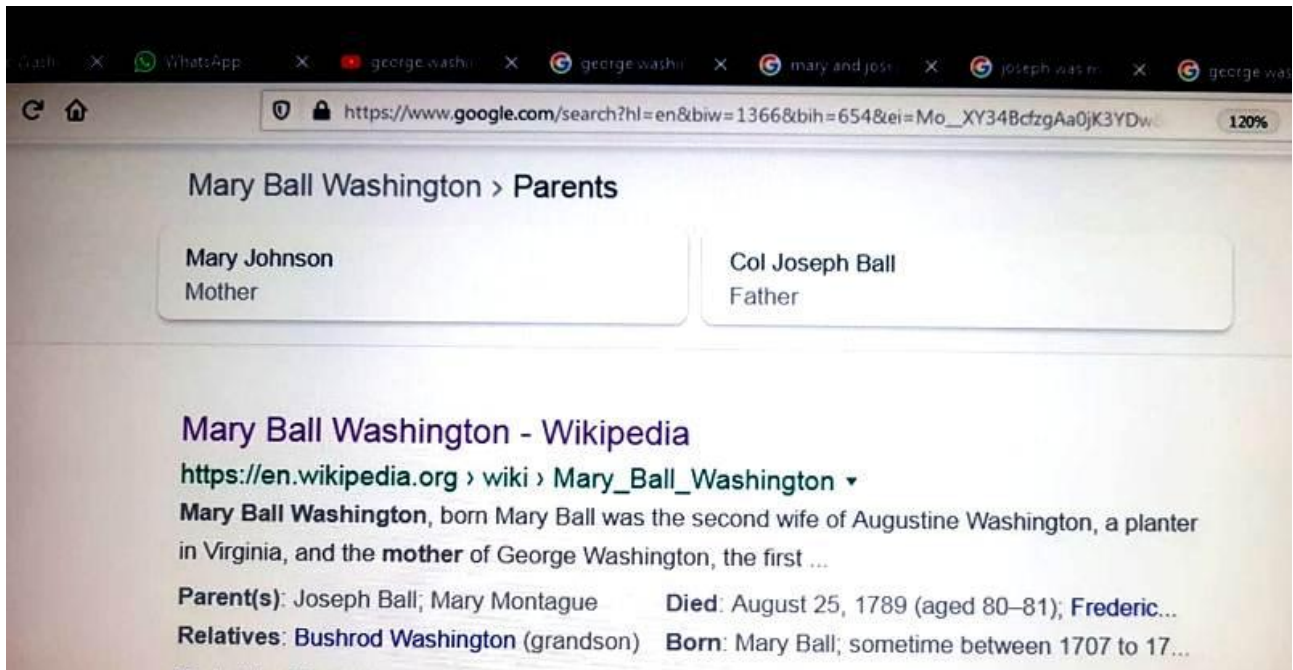

As you can see - Washington Dc is located in the middle - between the states of Virginia and Maryland

According to Christianity and Islam - Jesus Christ had a mother known as the Virgin Mary - because she was a virgin at the time Jesus Christ was born

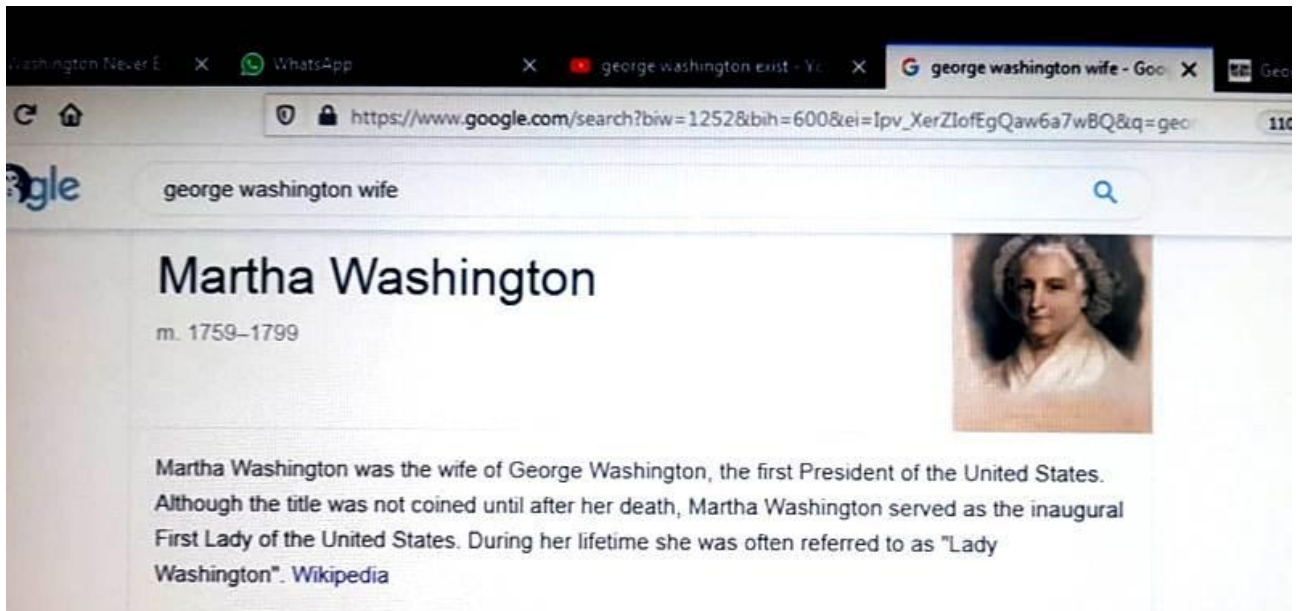

George Washington the first President of the United States of America and was born in Virginia and his mother was called Mary Ball Washington

Mary Ball Washington - her mother was also called Mary and her father was called Joseph - and Joseph was married to another lady before he married Mary

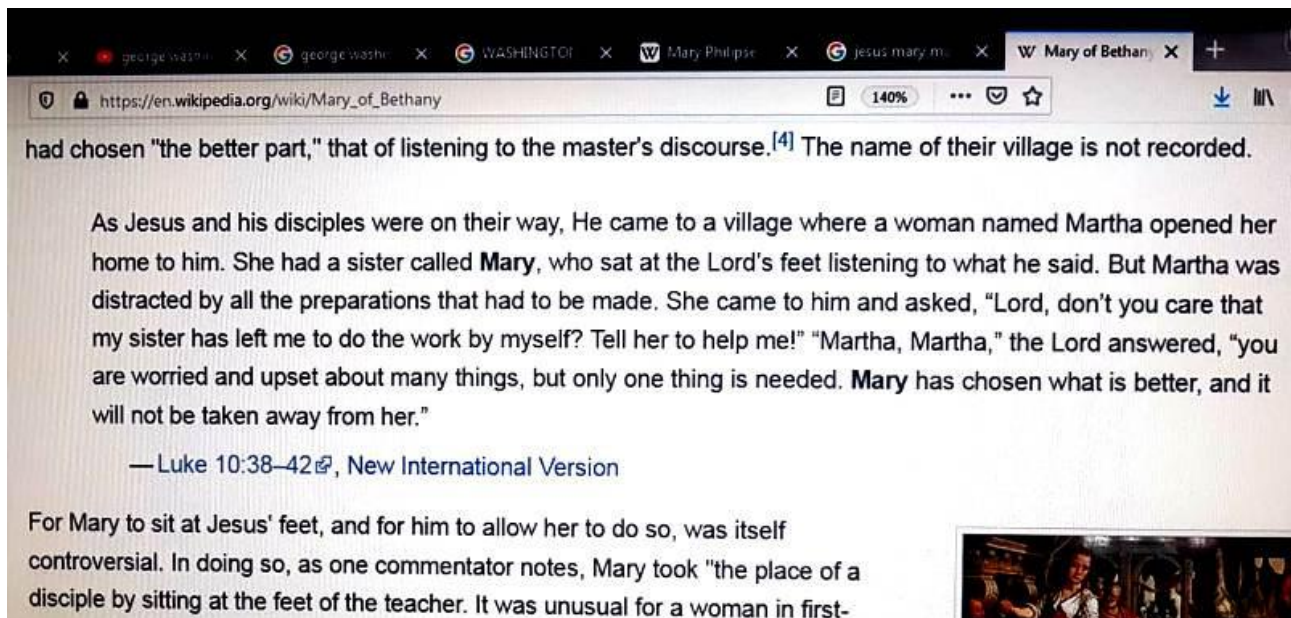

According to Christian traditions - the mother of Jesus Christ - the Virgin Mary was married to a man called Joseph - and Joseph was married to another lady before he married Mary

George Washington was married to a lady called Martha

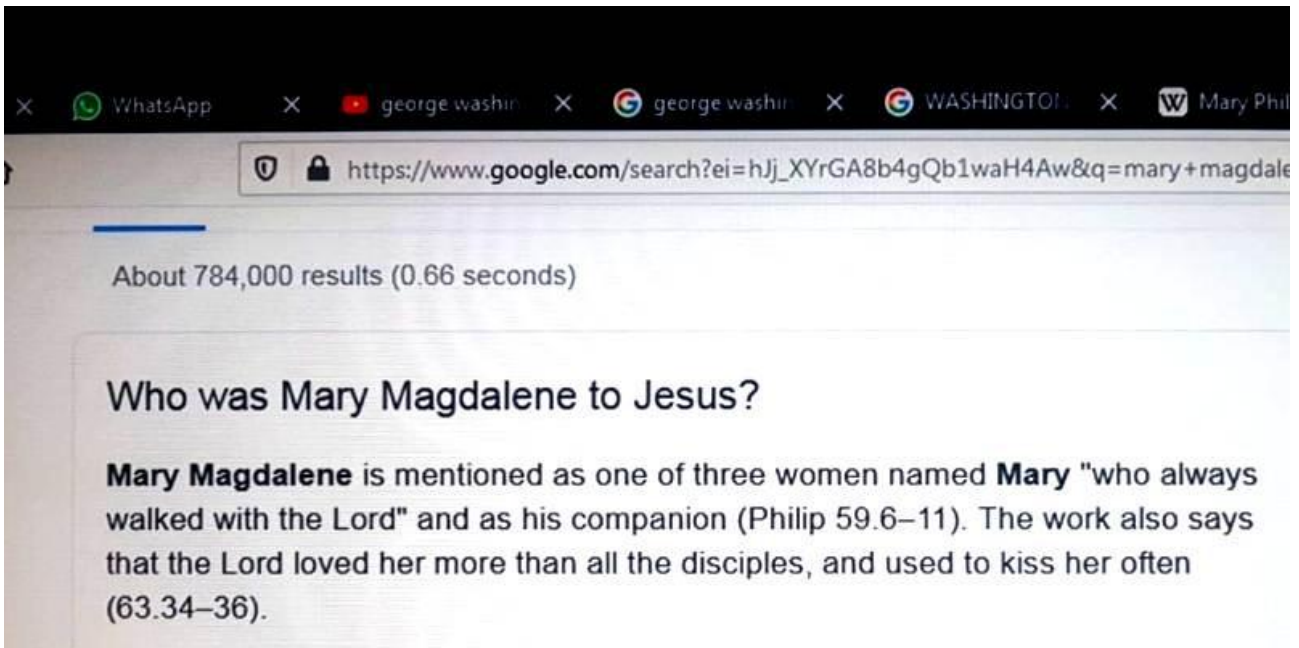

But there is a tradition in American history that states that George Washington was in love with a woman called Mary Philipse

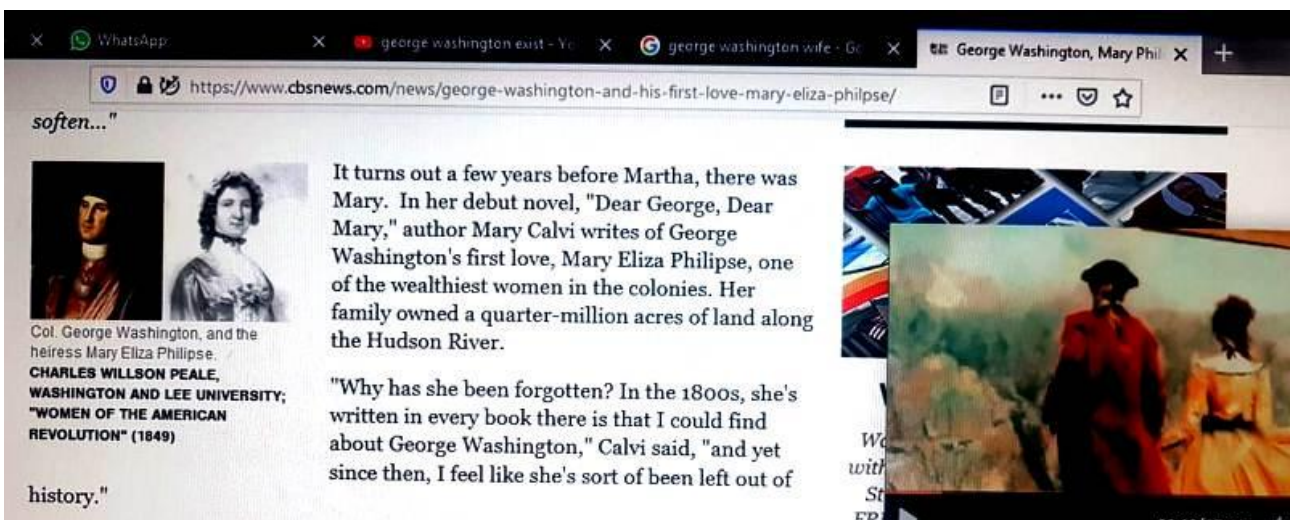

The image is a screenshot of a web browser displaying the Wikipedia article for "Mary of Bethany". The browser's address bar shows the URL "https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Mary_of_Bethany". The article text is partially visible, starting with "had chosen 'the better part,' that of listening to the master's discourse.^[4] The name of their village is not recorded." Below this, a paragraph describes the biblical story: "As Jesus and his disciples were on their way, He came to a village where a woman named Martha opened her home to him. She had a sister called Mary, who sat at the Lord's feet listening to what he said. But Martha was distracted by all the preparations that had to be made. She came to him and asked, 'Lord, don't you care that my sister has left me to do the work by myself? Tell her to help me!' 'Martha, Martha,' the Lord answered, 'you are worried and upset about many things, but only one thing is needed. Mary has chosen what is better, and it will not be taken away from her.'" This is followed by a citation: "— Luke 10:38–42, New International Version". At the bottom left, a sentence begins: "For Mary to sit at Jesus' feet, and for him to allow her to do so, was itself controversial. In doing so, as one commentator notes, Mary took 'the place of a disciple by sitting at the feet of the teacher. It was unusual for a woman in first-". To the right of this text is a small, dark, rectangular image showing a religious scene, likely the parable of the two sisters.

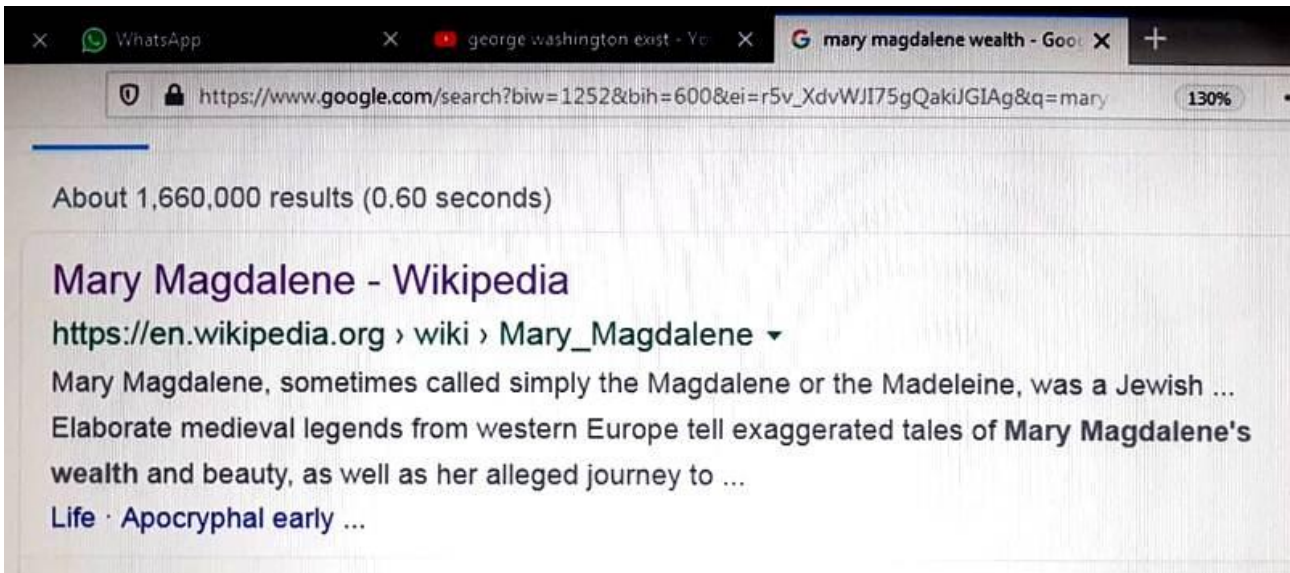

In Christianity there are 2 famous women mentioned - called Martha and Mary - and the Bible says that Jesus Christ said that Mary had chosen what is better - this Mary is known in many Christian traditions as Mary Magdalene

There are many Christian traditions such as the Gospel of Phillip that states that Jesus loved Mary more than all his followers

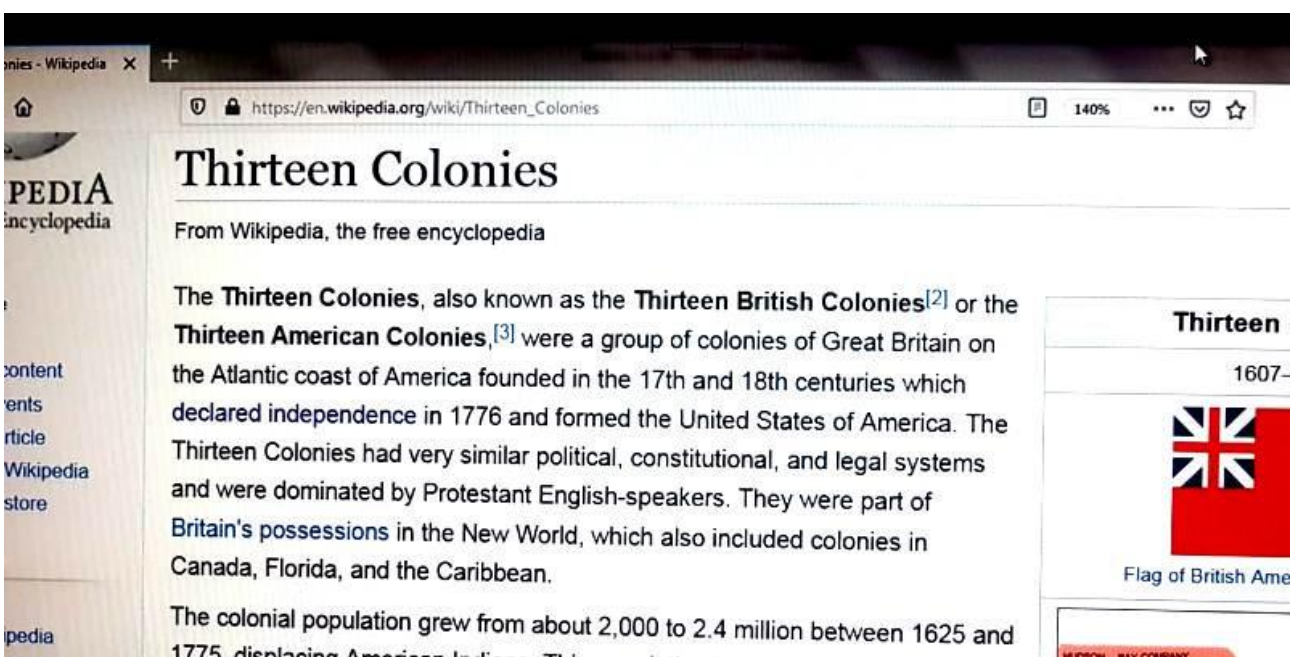

American historical tradition states that Mary Philipse was one of the wealthiest women in the American colonies at the time of George Washington

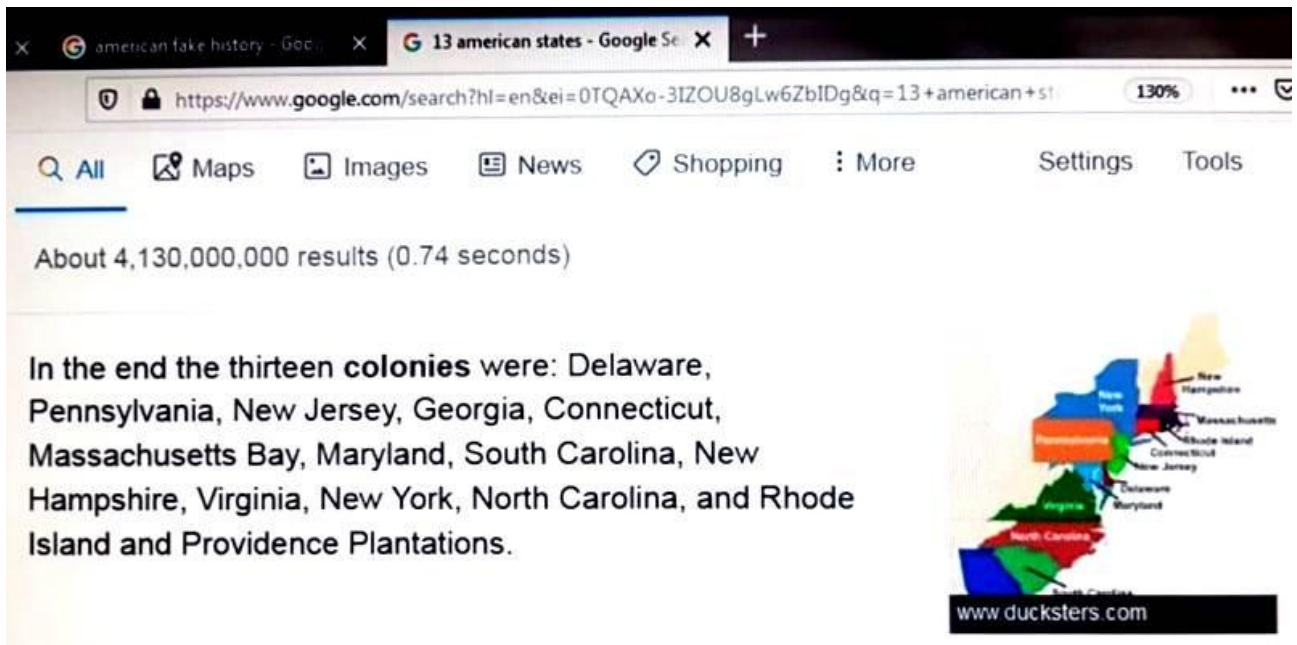

Christian traditions state that Mary Magdalene was one of the wealthiest women in the land at the time of Jesus Christ

History tells us that on July 4 - 1776, there were 13 colonies in America - that claimed their independence from England - which founded the United States of America.

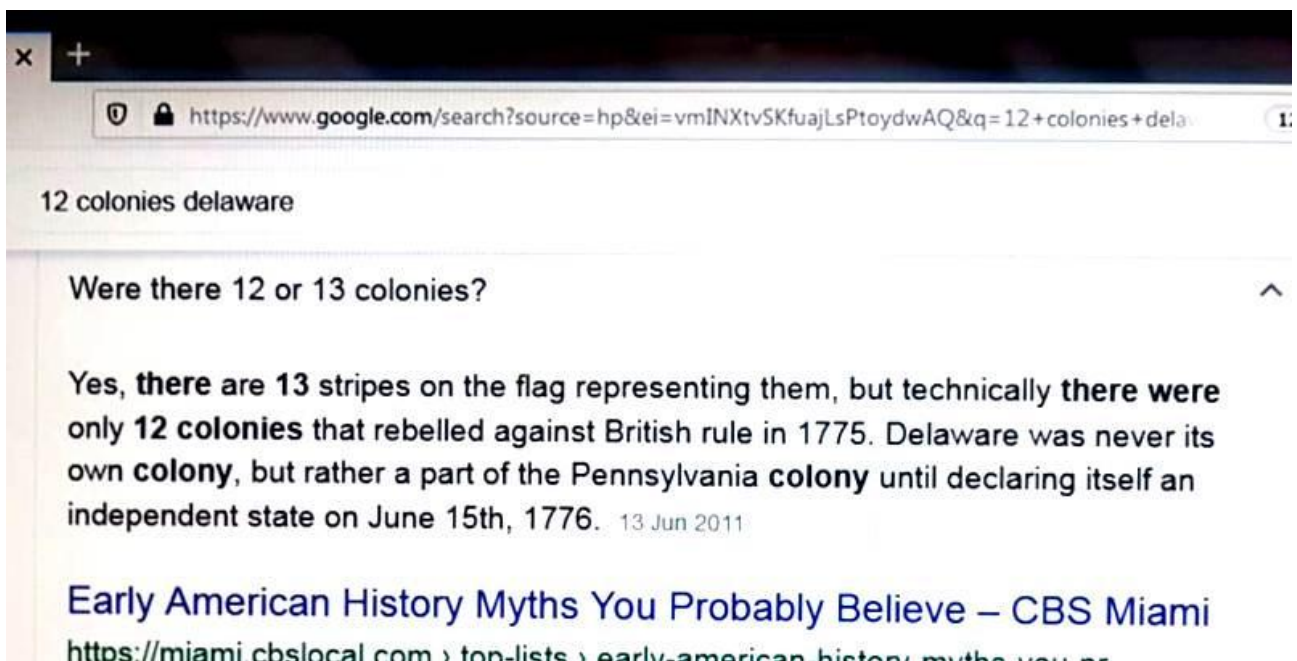

Below is a list of these 13 so-called colonies

The search results page displays the text: "In the end the thirteen colonies were: Delaware, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Georgia, Connecticut, Massachusetts Bay, Maryland, South Carolina, New Hampshire, Virginia, New York, North Carolina, and Rhode Island and Providence Plantations." To the right of the text is a map of the eastern United States with 13 colored regions representing the colonies. The map is labeled with the names of the colonies: New Hampshire, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Connecticut, New Jersey, Delaware, Maryland, Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, New York, and Pennsylvania. The website "www.ducksters.com" is visible at the bottom of the map.

Yes, there are 13 stripes on the flag representing them, but technically there were only 12 colonies that rebelled against British rule in 1775. Delaware was never its own colony, but rather a part of the Pennsylvania colony until declaring itself an independent state on June 15th, 1776." The date "13 Jun 2011" is also visible. On December 24th, Sirius (the brightest star, the star in the east) aligns with the three brightest stars on Orion's Belt (the three Kings). They point to sunrise location on December 25th. This symbolizes the birth of "God's Sun" at winter solstice. The virgin Mary is referred to by the constellation Virgo the Virgin.

The Bible doesn't say that 3 kings came to visit Jesus when he was born, but the story is very famous in the Christian world - and researchers have pointed out that the story may have been totally made up from the star Sirius - which mysteriously aligns on Christmas Eve - 24 December.

The three stars of Orion's belt point to where the Sun will rise on December 25 - Christmas Day.

According to historians - in the Roman Empire - many people worshipped the sun god. Researchers are questioning - who are these Romans - were they really Ancient Romans or were they Roman Catholics?

Researchers ask the question - who was really worshipping the sun god was it the Romans or the Roman Catholics who were worshipping the sun god?

In mythological terms, it is said that the Sun is dying as the length of daylight decreases and is at its lowest point at the Winter Solstice - beginning on the midnight of December 21 (early morning December 22) and ends on Midnight December 24 (early morning December 25).

The sun actually stops moving south on December 22 and is at its lowest point in the Northern Hemisphere, staying in the vicinity of the Southern Cross.

The Southern Cross or Crux is a constellation that has 4 major stars in the southern sky and forms the shape of a cross.

The Lima Peru LDS Temple Mission

The Lima Peru LDS Temple Mission: The Southern Cross

It is the only time of the year that the sun doesn't move north or south and the sun is considered dead for practically around 3 days and 3 nights.

And it can be said that the Sun died on the Cross - or had a Crucifixion and was then born on December 25 and then starts to move north again. Researchers point out the similarity between the Southern Cross and the Crucifixion. Researchers ask - was the story created to unite sun worship with story of Jesus Christ? Was it a plan to steal the character of Jesus Christ and unite it to sun worship? The Arabic Koran opposed sun worship and opposed the story of the crucifixion - did these 2 groups (sun worshippers and the followers of the crucifixion) - did they unite to confront and oppose the followers of the Arabic Koran?

The Arabic Koran openly challenged and denied the Crucifixion and says that it never took place and says that it is total lie and false story

YUSUFALI: That they said (in boast), "We killed Christ Jesus the son of Mary, the Messenger of God";- but they killed him not, nor crucified him, but so it was made to appear to them, and those who differ therein are full of doubts, with no (certain) knowledge, but only conjecture to follow, for of a surety they killed him not -

PICKTHAL: And because of their saying: We slew the Messiah, Jesus son of Mary, God's messenger - they slew him not nor crucified him, but it appeared so unto them; and lo! those who disagree concerning it are in doubt thereof; they have no knowledge thereof save pursuit of a conjecture; they slew him not for certain.

SHAKIR: And their saying: Surely we have killed the Messiah, Jesus son of Mary, the messenger of God, and they did not kill him nor did they crucify him, but it appeared to them so (like Isa) and most surely those who differ therein are only in a doubt about it, they have no knowledge respecting it, but only follow a conjecture, and they killed him not for sure.

KHALIFA: And for claiming that they killed the Messiah, Jesus, son of Mary, the messenger of GOD. In fact, they never killed him, they never crucified him - they were made to think that they did. All factions who are disputing in this matter are full of doubt concerning this issue. They possess no knowledge; they only conjecture. For certain, they never killed him.

Researchers have pointed out that because of such statements that are made in the Arabic Koran - it was like a total war in history - between Original Islam and Christianity - a war that questioned - who is speaking the truth about the history of Jesus Christ - or a war about the truth of history and who is speaking lies. The Bible was considered by many people in the past to be actual history and still is even today.

Researchers pointed out that the Modern Islam of today is divided into groups or sects with various beliefs and some sects have a clergy system like the Catholic Church - and other sects follow books which oppose and contradict each other. The Original Islam that researchers referred to - was based on the texts of the Arabic Koran. Researchers did take note that many Arabic Koran translations have errors and political manipulations - but it was clear from the texts within the Arabic Koran - that it was a war between - what is the truth in history - and what is a lie.

Researchers concluded that December 25 was chosen as the supposed birth day of Jesus Christ and it clearly was a copy of the movement of the Sun and stars. Jesus supposedly died on the Cross or something similar and was then dead for around 3 days and then he rose back to life.

Much of the Christianity we see today - with reformed groups - many have prepared answers for such things in ridiculous ways. Many modern church groups have modified their beliefs away from the Bible also from what Christianity may have been a few hundred years ago - because they realise that it was linked to Sun worship. But they cannot change what the Bible says.

Because they cannot change what the Bible says, most modern church groups focus on singing and issues of the world today and talk about miraculous healing and forgiveness of sins - based on your belief in Christ. They do read texts in the Bible selectively - but no serious answers are given regarding some of the stories in the Bible.

Many paintings of Jesus Christ or drawings - depict him with a Sun around his head - showing elements of sun worship.

The image is a screenshot of a web browser displaying a Wikipedia article titled "Solar deity". The browser's address bar shows the URL "https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Solar_deity". The article text discusses the connection between the date of Christmas (December 25) and the festival of Sol Invictus, and speculates on the biblical elements of Christ's life being linked to those of a sun god. It mentions the twelve zodiac constellations and the significance of the Sun's position in Scorpio and Libra. A painting of Jesus Christ with a sun-like halo is shown on the right side of the page. Below the painting, a caption reads: "The halo of Jesus, seen in many paintings, has similarities to a parhelion."

According to one hypothesis about Christmas, it was set to 25 December because it was the date of the festival of Sol Invictus. This idea became popular especially in the 18th^{[33][34]} and 19th centuries.^{[35][36][37]}

Another speculation connects the biblical elements of Christ's life to those of a sun god.^[38] The Christian gospels report that Jesus had 12 followers,^[39] which is claimed to be akin to the twelve zodiac constellations. When the Sun was in the house of Scorpio, Judas plotted with the chief priests and elders to arrest Jesus by kissing him. As the Sun exited Libra, it enters into the waiting arms of Scorpio to be kissed by Scorpio's bite.^{[40][41]}

Many of the world's sacrificed godmen have their traditional birthday on December 25. During this time, people believed that the "sun god" had "died" for three days and was "born again" on December 25.^[42] After December 25, the Sun supposedly moves 1 degree north, foreshadowing longer days.^[43] The three days following December 21 remain the darkest days of the year where Jesus (the sun) dies and remains unseen for three days.^{[44][45]}

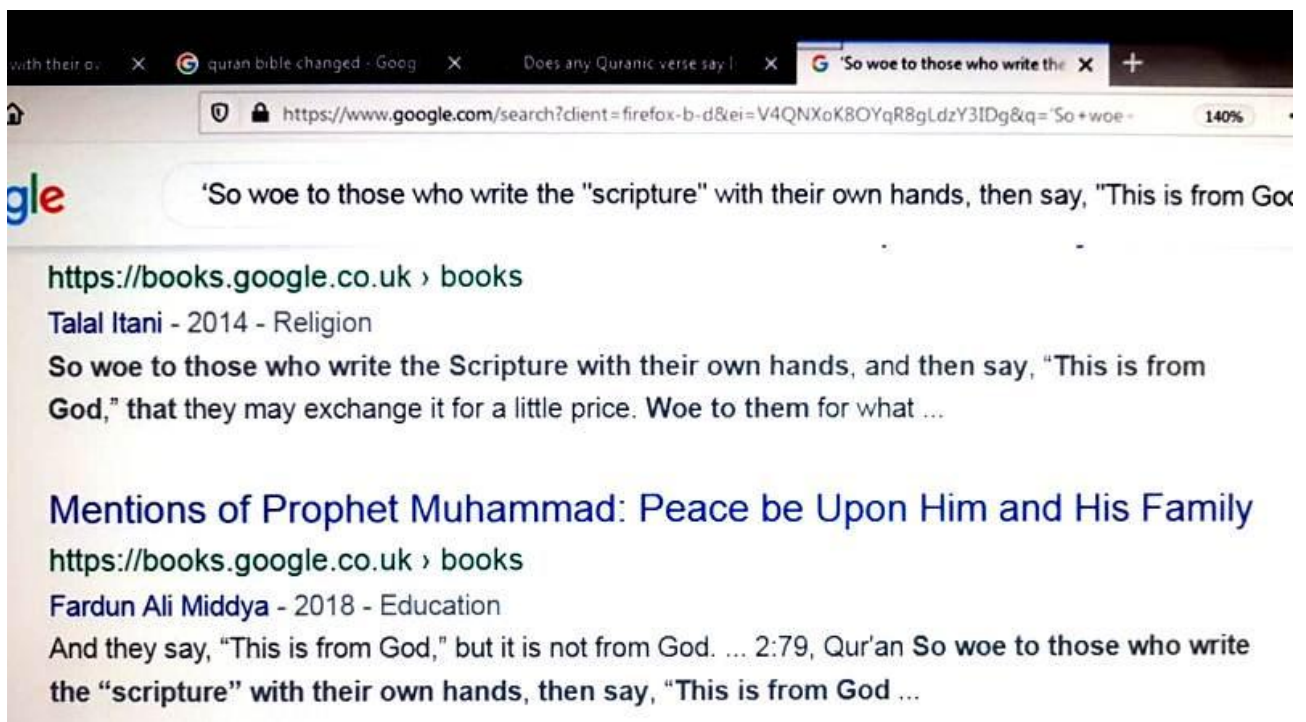

The halo of Jesus, seen in many paintings, has similarities to a parhelion.

Researchers have come to the conclusion that the Bible has an important place in history and that there are many amazing digital patterns within it - but there are many thousands of different versions that we know about - and also we can see the elements of sun worship in the Bible.

There are many stories in the Biblical texts and the Arabic Koran regarding Jesus - researchers concluded up to a certain extent that a man named Jesus probably did exist and was well known globally - and that his story was exaggerated and changed - to match political or religiously oppressive systems.

A lot of the world's history is based on the events in the Bible - and the Bible and its books were for a long time considered by many - to be actual world history. Many historians in the last 2 centuries went out of their way to match archaeology and history - to the stories in the Bible. What we do know today is that there are thousands of different Bibles and many were written for political reasons or by business men such as Constantine Simonides. There were many such businessmen like him - who were writing much of the events and history - of the stories of the Bible - and they were selling it and claiming that it was the word of God. It was big business - hundreds of businessmen were doing it with many employees doing the writing.

What researchers found very strange - was that the Arabic Koran was against the falsification of the writings and history in the Bible - and the Arabic Koran exposed such actions and condemned it. Below is from the Arabic Koran - chapter 2 - verse 79

It was obvious to researchers that a war of history and truth and lies - was taking place between Original Islam and the people who were writing history - especially the history in the Bible. This made researchers question if Original Islam had a greater role in Europe than what history says

Researchers in Russia for example - looked at the Romanov Kings or Tsars of Russia.

Michael Romanov was supposedly the first Romanov king of Russia - his son Alexis was the Tsar of Russia from 1645 - and his son Peter the Great - became Emperor of all Russia and is very famous even today. Peter the Great supposedly founded the great city of Saint Petersburg - one of Europe's most beautiful cities.

Historians say these men were from the Romanov dynasty and that they were supposedly Christians - but researchers do not believe this story at all. They say historians have told them lies and that the evidence shows something else.

These are pictures of the helmet of Tsar Alexis Romanov of Russia - and what is strange is that they have Arabic decoration and writing from the Arabic Koran - Verse 13 of Chapter 61. The helmets do not have verses of the Bible.

Researchers asked the question - which Christian is going to decorate his clothes with the writings of the Arabic Koran? Researchers question the true identity of Tsar Alexis Romanov - and what was his true religion and who really was Peter the Great of Russia? Were they actually Romanovs? Researchers also question if their identities have been mixed and combined with other true identities or have they been totally invented to replace actual true history?

Back to Russia - another famous king called Tsar Ivan the Terrible - Grozny - who was supposedly the first Tsar of all Russia. Historians say that he was a Christian also - but researchers say that the evidence does not show this at all. Below is the helmet of Tsar Ivan the Terrible of Russia.

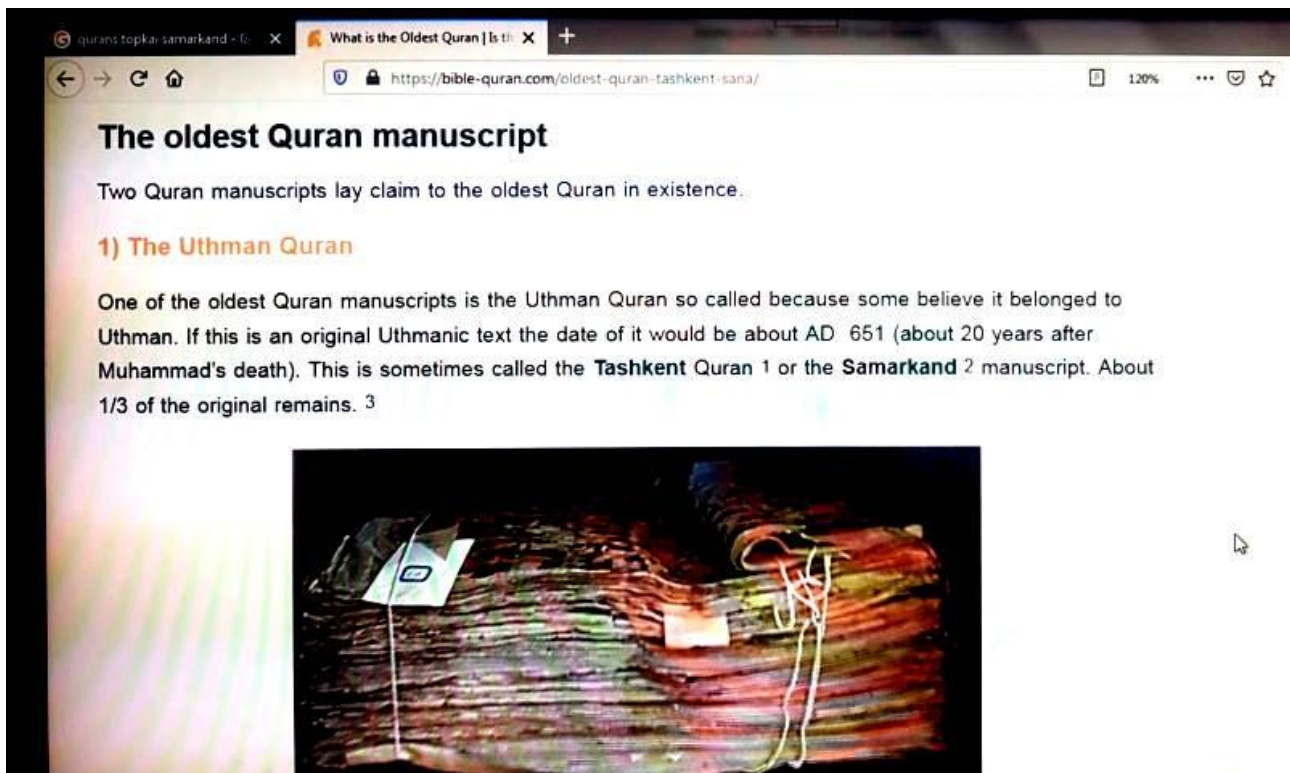

The words Allah and Mohamed (pbuh) are written (the decoration) seven times around the helmet. Which Christian is going to write Allah and Mohamed (pbuh) on his hat or helmet 7 times over? Researchers do not believe it when historians claim that these people were Christians - the evidence does not show what they say. The evidence showed that these kings of Tartaria or Russia were Muslims.

Speaking of Russia - Emperor Tsar Alexander I (the First) - was the grandson of Empress Catherine the Great. The capital city of Russia at that time was supposedly Saint Petersburg in Russia. This city is near to Finland and was one of the greatest cities in Europe in the past and even today.

What researchers found very strange is that according to history there are around 2 copies of the oldest Arabic Koran and one of them is in the Topkapi Museum of Turkey and the other one is in Samarkand in Uzbekistan.

What researchers found very strange is that the Arabic Koran in Samarkand was not always in that city - but was in the heart of Russia in its old capital city - Saint Petersburg before the 1920s. It was very strange that this Arabic Koran was in Saint Petersburg and the official history of how it supposedly got there was doubted by researchers.

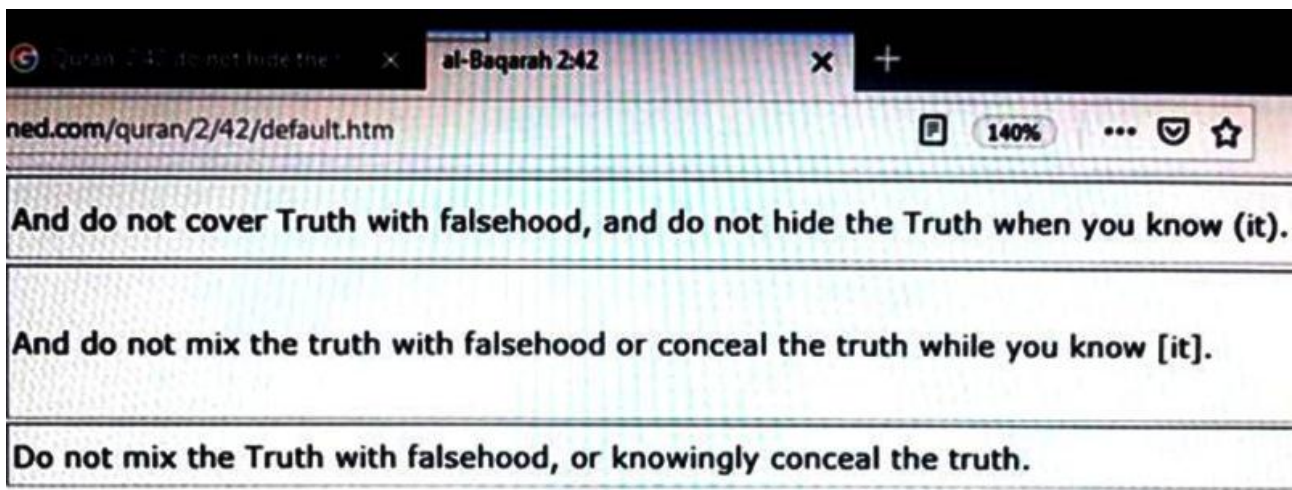

The evidence showed that Original Islam and the Arabic Koran had a greater role and impact in the history of Europe than what historians say.

Researchers such as Anatoly Fomenko and many others - have shown much evidence to show that the Arabic Koran and Original Islam - played a greater role in the world a few centuries ago than what history say. Researchers have shown much evidence that the Arabic Koran and Original Islam - was part of the fighting force which opposed the changing of the Bible and the creation of lies in history.

Researchers also noted that one of the major reasons why the people of Original Islam started to memorise the Arabic Koran was because the people who made lies in history were trying to modify and change the Arabic Koran - a real war seemed to be taking place.

Below is an example of from the Arabic Koran - Chapter 2 verse 42 regarding the truth and lies Researchers concluded that translations of the Arabic Koran that are available today have much error and differences because of political interference and also because of how they are translated. Researchers also concluded that Modern Islam is divided and many groups and sects behave according to the wishes of politicians and to the wishes of the leaders of certain sects and groups.

The basic message of the Arabic Koran was clear and simple compared to every other religious book. It states - that there is a Creator and the Creator loves you and wants you to live an honest life and to speak what is the truth - especially about history and science and not to lie about history or science - that you should search for the truth in science and history and this will show you the evidence that the Creator exists - and that you should live a good life and not to be bad to people or oppress them - and to spread the truth when you find it.

Researchers also found that the Arabic Koran was removed in history in many places throughout Europe and a major reason why there were so many lies in history was to remove the Arabic Koran and its place in European and American history - and to make sure its message does not get out - especially its message regarding the falsification of history and to what actual true history may be - a similar war seems to be continuing even today - but with different players.

Researchers specifically noted that the message of the Arabic Koran does not equal what some modern Muslims from some Muslims groups may teach - because these groups have been created for political purposes and also created to make sure that people do not investigate what is actually written in the Arabic Koran - this was a major reason why translations have been manipulated.

Major religious groups - Wikipedia

The image shows a world map where different regions are color-coded to represent the dominant religion in that area. Christianity is shown in blue and purple (North America, Europe, Australia), Islam in green (Middle East, parts of Africa and Asia), Hinduism in orange (South Asia), and Buddhism in red (East Asia). Other colors represent smaller groups or irreligious populations.

The modern world has Christianity in the west mainly, Islam in the centre, and Hinduism and Buddhism in the east, one can say. The data for the number of Christians is actually much lower - when the numbers of atheists are taken into account - making Islam most probably the biggest religion in the world today. There are other religions too, but these are probably the major religions that stand out.

Researchers looked into the history of Buddha - a very important figure in Asia - and they found much similarity between Buddha and Jesus Christ.

Researchers came to the conclusion - that they are probably the same historical person - or that their stories have been copied and duplicated and modified.

Etymology is a science and below are some similarities in the etymology of words in Buddhism and Christianity

Christianity is not the only source for Jesus Christ - the Arabic Koran mentions his story also. We call him Jesus in English, the Arabic language calls him Esa or Esau or Isa, depending on your pronunciation. Here are some other things researchers have pointed out about Buddha.

Buddha started talking when he was born - this is what Buddhism tells us today

A similar story is in the Arabic Koran - it says that Jesus Christ started talking when he was born

The four Gospels do not suggest any link between Jesus Christ's birth and any tree so why do Christians have a Christmas tree?

Maybe the answer is here - according to Arabic Koran, Jesus was born beside a tree.

The tradition of the Christmas tree is such a big tradition and according to modern historians, they tell you it is probably a pagan tradition from many centuries ago and say many different things - which greatly confuse you - none of which make sense - some researchers say such things were designed on purpose to hide the truth - and to create such confusion and difficulty for researchers to eventually give up - or to finally think that there is no truth out there.

What researchers found very strange is that the Arabic Koran mentions the story of the birth of Jesus Christ and the birth story is different up to a certain extent from the Gospels in the Bible. The Arabic Koran says that Jesus was speaking after he was born for example, and also says that Jesus was born beside a tree. The story below, where it says - she - it is referring to the Virgin Mary and tells the story of the birth beside a tree. The tree has - dates. Dates are a type of sweet - fruits that grow on date palms.

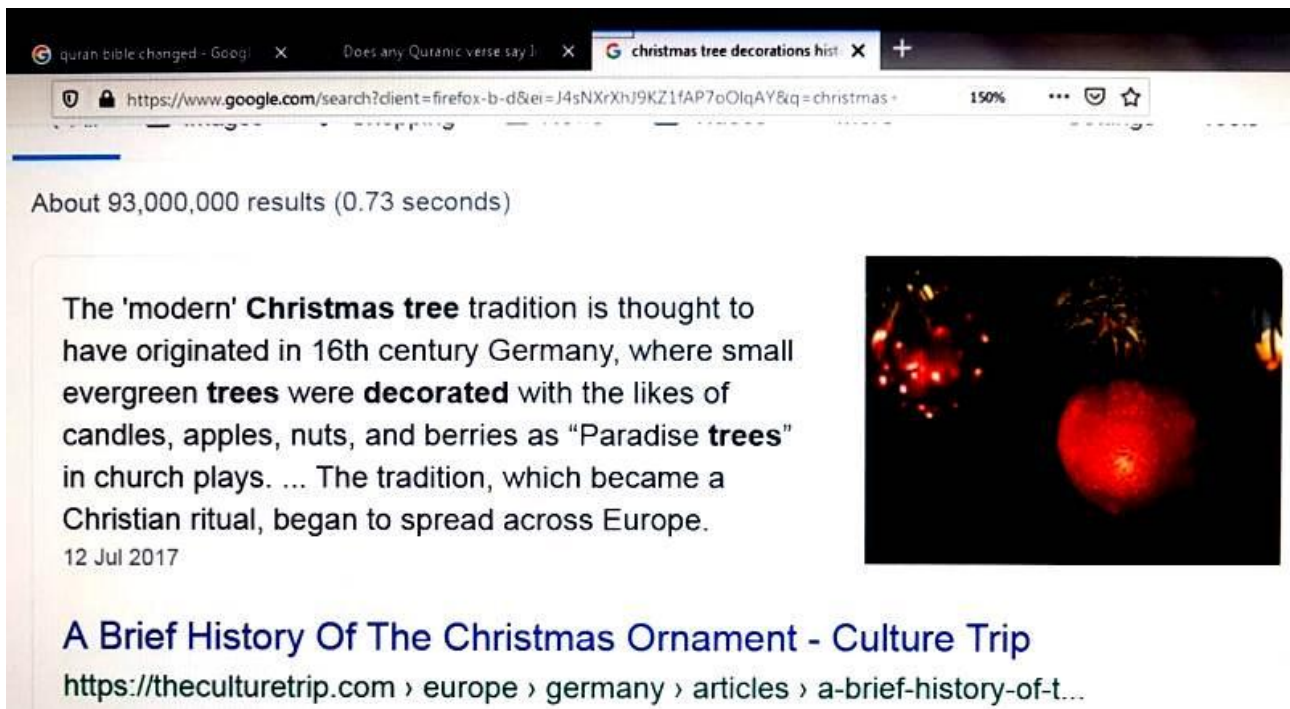

m/historical-jesus/the-christmas-tree-in-the-quran/

But in the Qur'an's account of the birth of Jesus a tree features prominently. I have commented elsewhere on the story of Jesus' birth in the Qur'an, so I will only quote the relevant Qur'anic verses here:

“ She conceived him, and she withdrew with him to a far place. (19.22) And the pangs of childbirth drove her to the trunk of a palm tree. She said: “I wish I had died before this and had become something totally forgotten!” (19.23) Then he called her from beneath her: “Do not grieve! Your Lord has placed a rivulet beneath you, (19.24) and shake the trunk of the palm tree toward you, and it will let fall fresh dates upon you. (19.25) So eat, drink, and be consoled. If you meet any human being, say: ‘I have vowed a fast to God, so I will not speak today to any human being.’” (19.26)

The birth took place under a palm tree which also provided Mary with food she desperately needed. This account also has noticeable similarity with the tradition of placing presents under the Christmas tree. The latter may be seen as celebrating the sending of Jesus as Researchers found that the history of the Christmas tree is only a few centuries old and not 2000 years old and this made them question - when did Jesus Christ actually live? Also Christmas trees were originally decorated with sweet fruits such as apples and berries or similar fruits that people found in their local market.

This evidence made researchers question - what were these so-called Christians doing in Europe? Why were they decorating a tree in such ways? Were they all actually Christians? Or has the history of Europe been deliberately changed? After all - the Arabic Koran was the enemy and the opposing force at the time. Did historians hide the true history of Europe or change it deliberately to remove any traces of the Arabic Koran and its followers?

Researchers found too many similarities and concluded that the history of Jesus Christ and Buddha had many similarities and was a lie.

The final conclusion of researchers was that - History is a lie

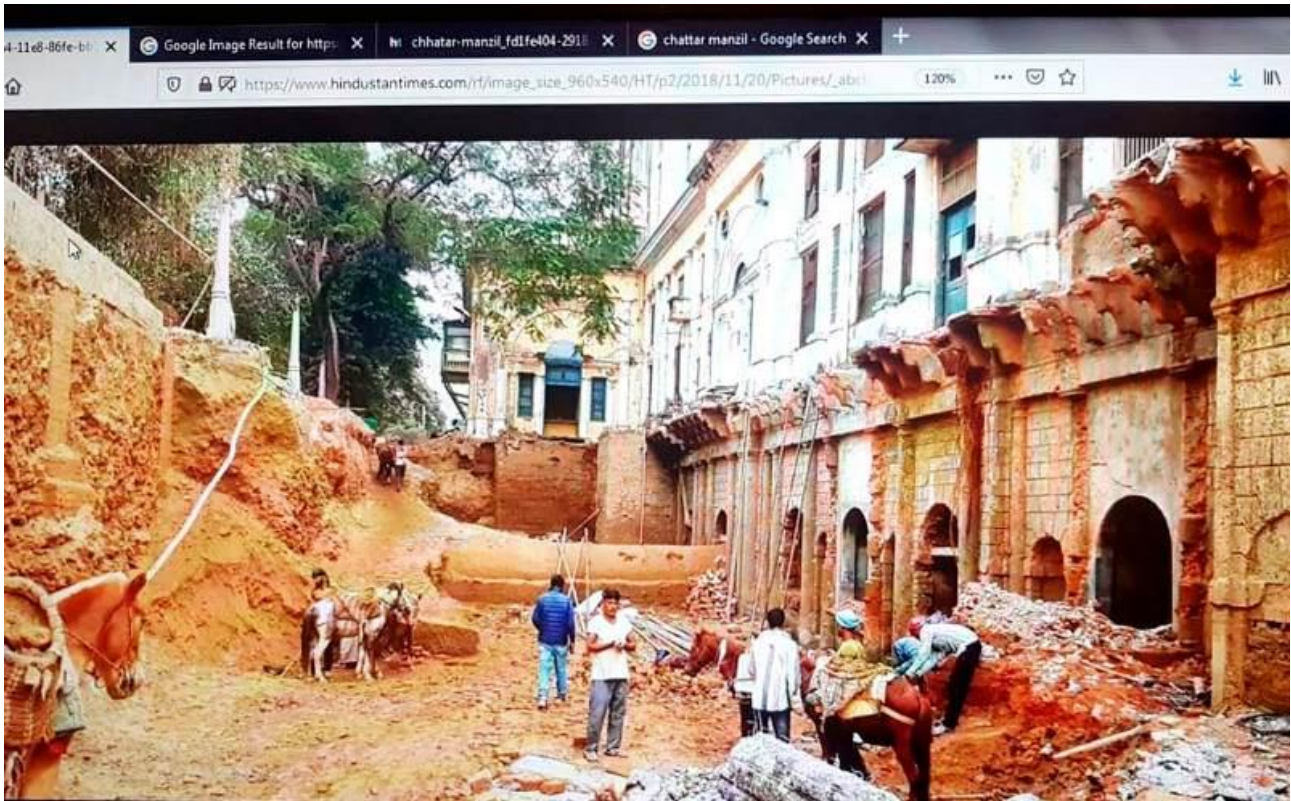

Researchers then asked the question - if history is a lie - then - what is true history?

This was a very big question - with many big and serious challenges - and many researchers have given this subject a name and call it Tartaria. This name may or not be the correct name to apply to the past history of the world - but that is the name that is being applied by many researchers - regarding what may be the true history of the world.

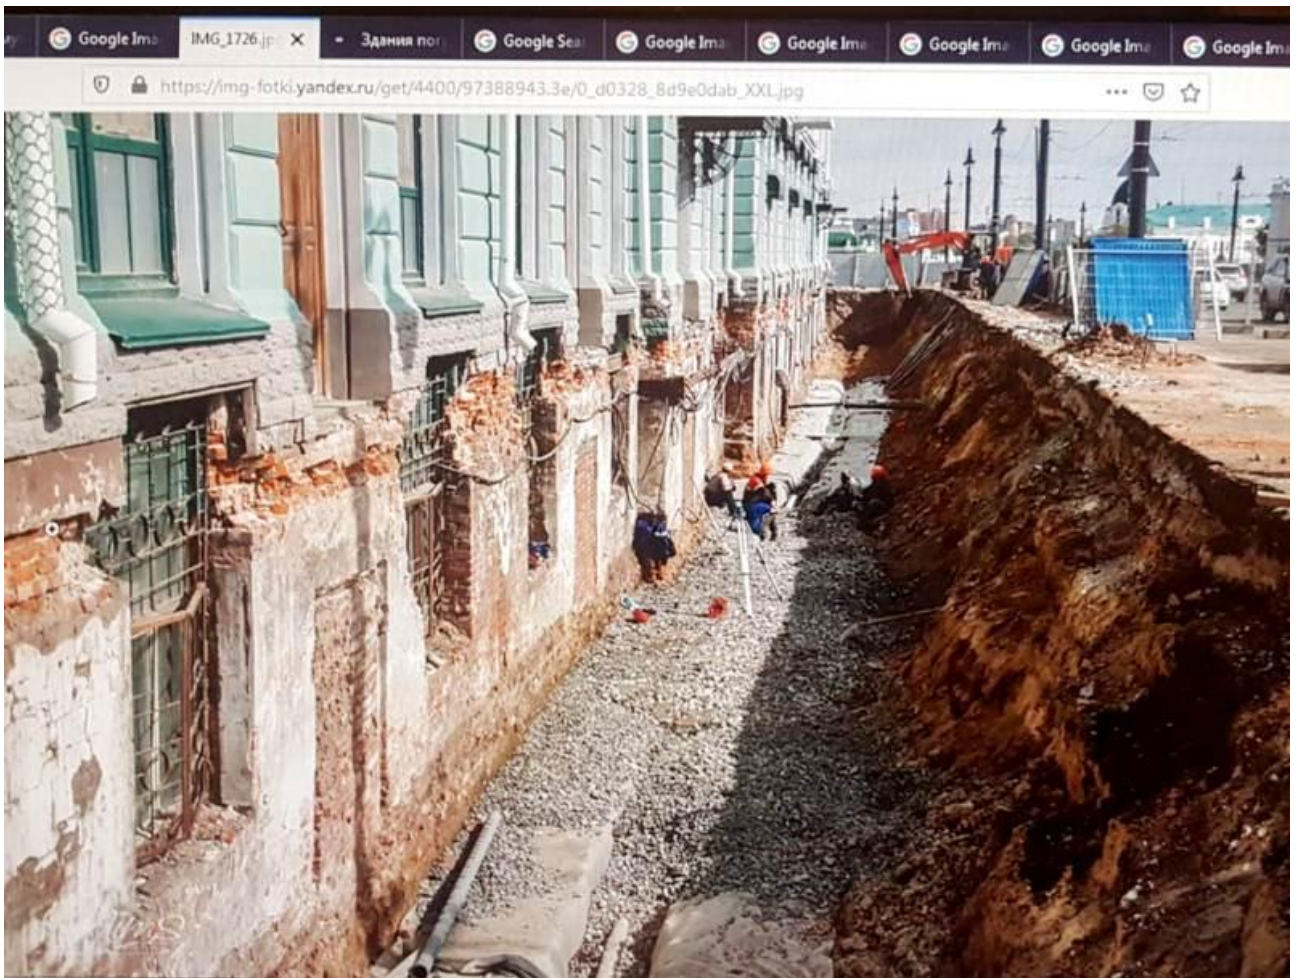

It is a very long subject and much has been presented by researchers regarding Tartaria - and below are some of the facts that many researchers have presented

Buried underground structures can be clearly seen in the photo below. How these buildings got buried underground is a very serious question

A few years ago, in Omsk city, Siberia, researchers discovered that buildings structures were buried underground, below the current ground level. Below are photos of Omsk Museum and it shows what they discovered

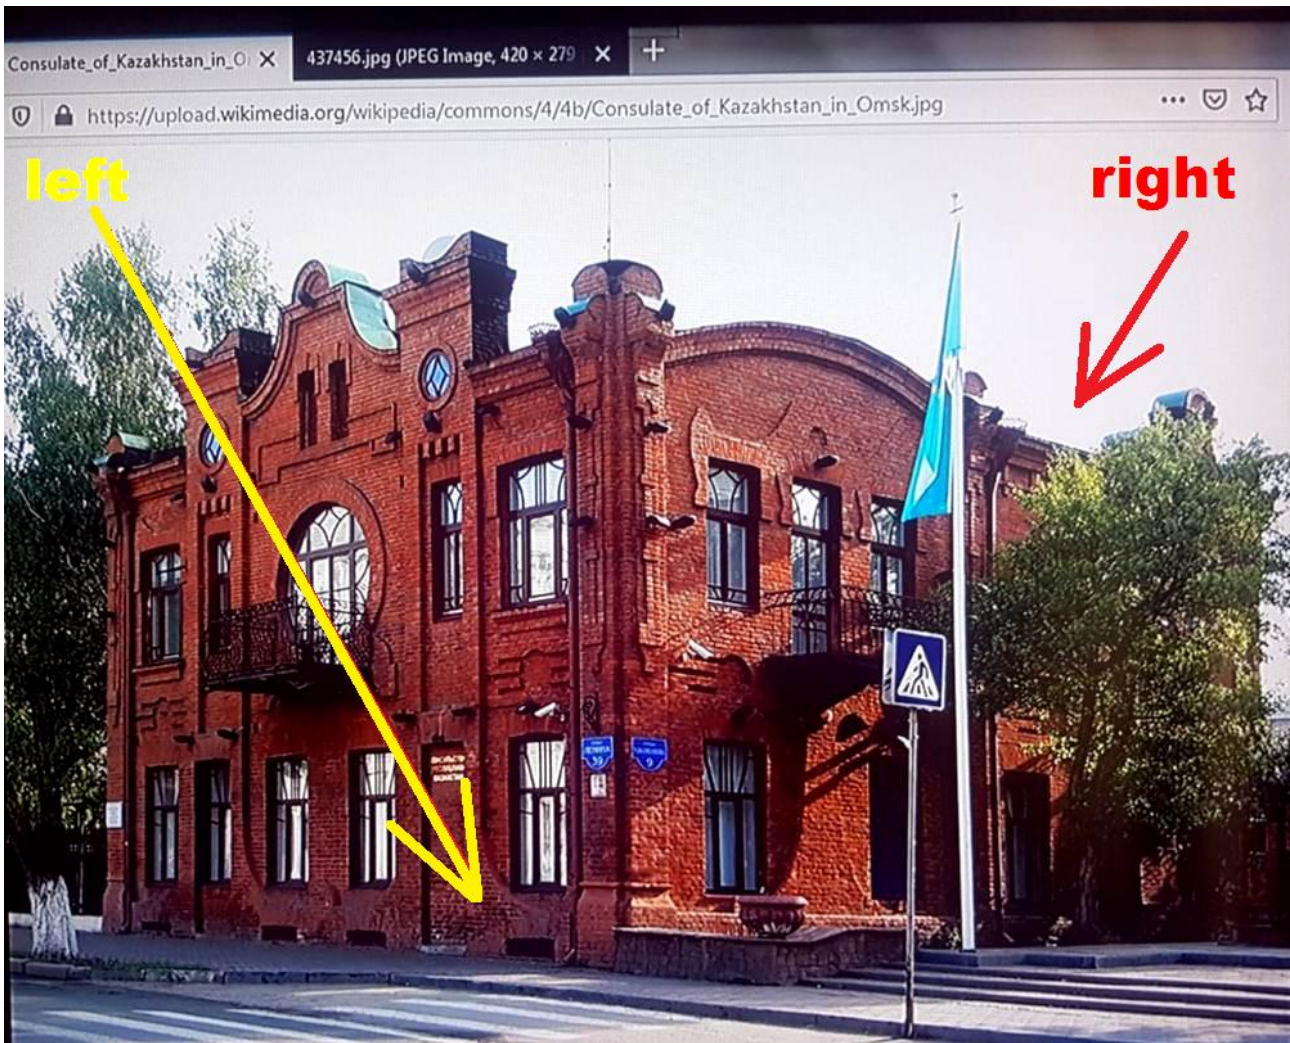

In the photos we can see windows and doors buried underground. Omsk city in Siberia - is located far away from India, but this was similar to the discovery in Lucknow in India.

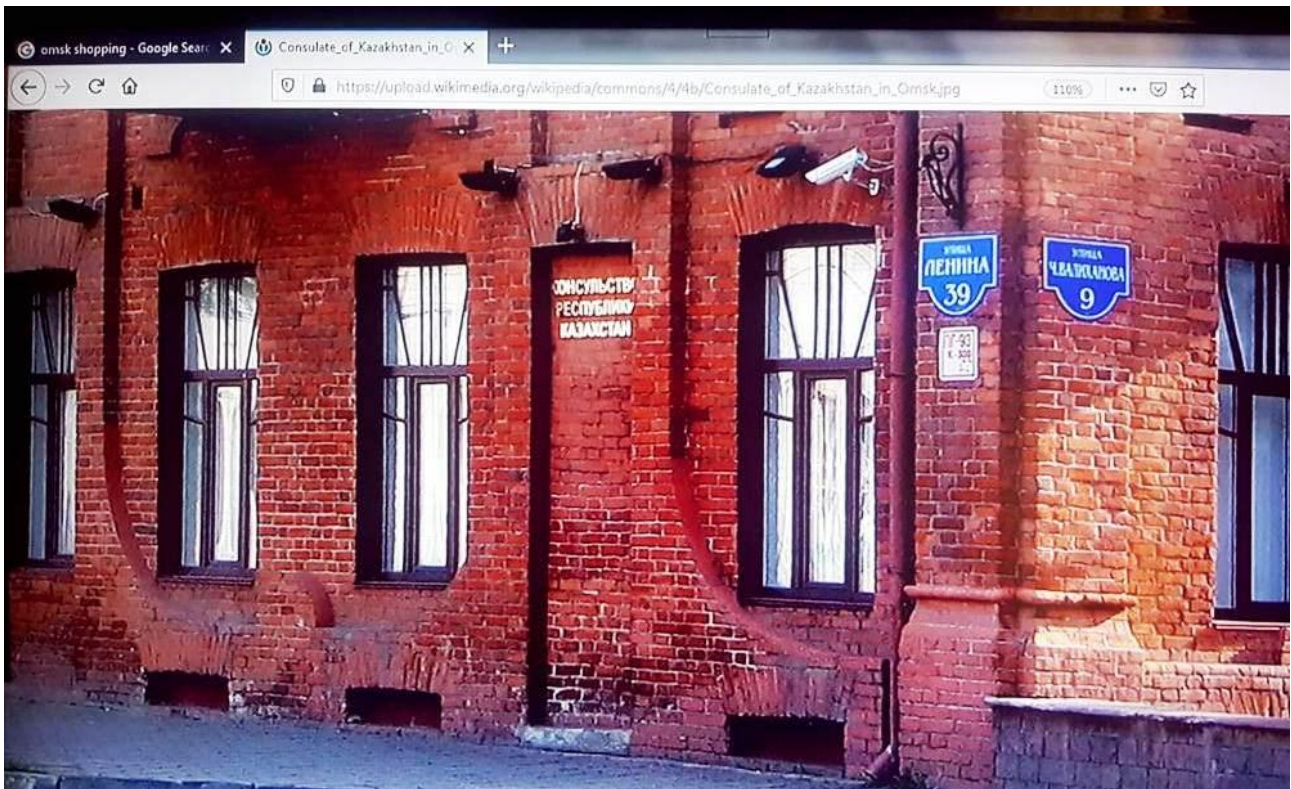

The evidence showed that there are many other buildings in Omsk city in Siberia, which are buried in a similar way underground.

Researchers noted that on the right hand side of the building, there was no evidence that part of the building could be buried underground.

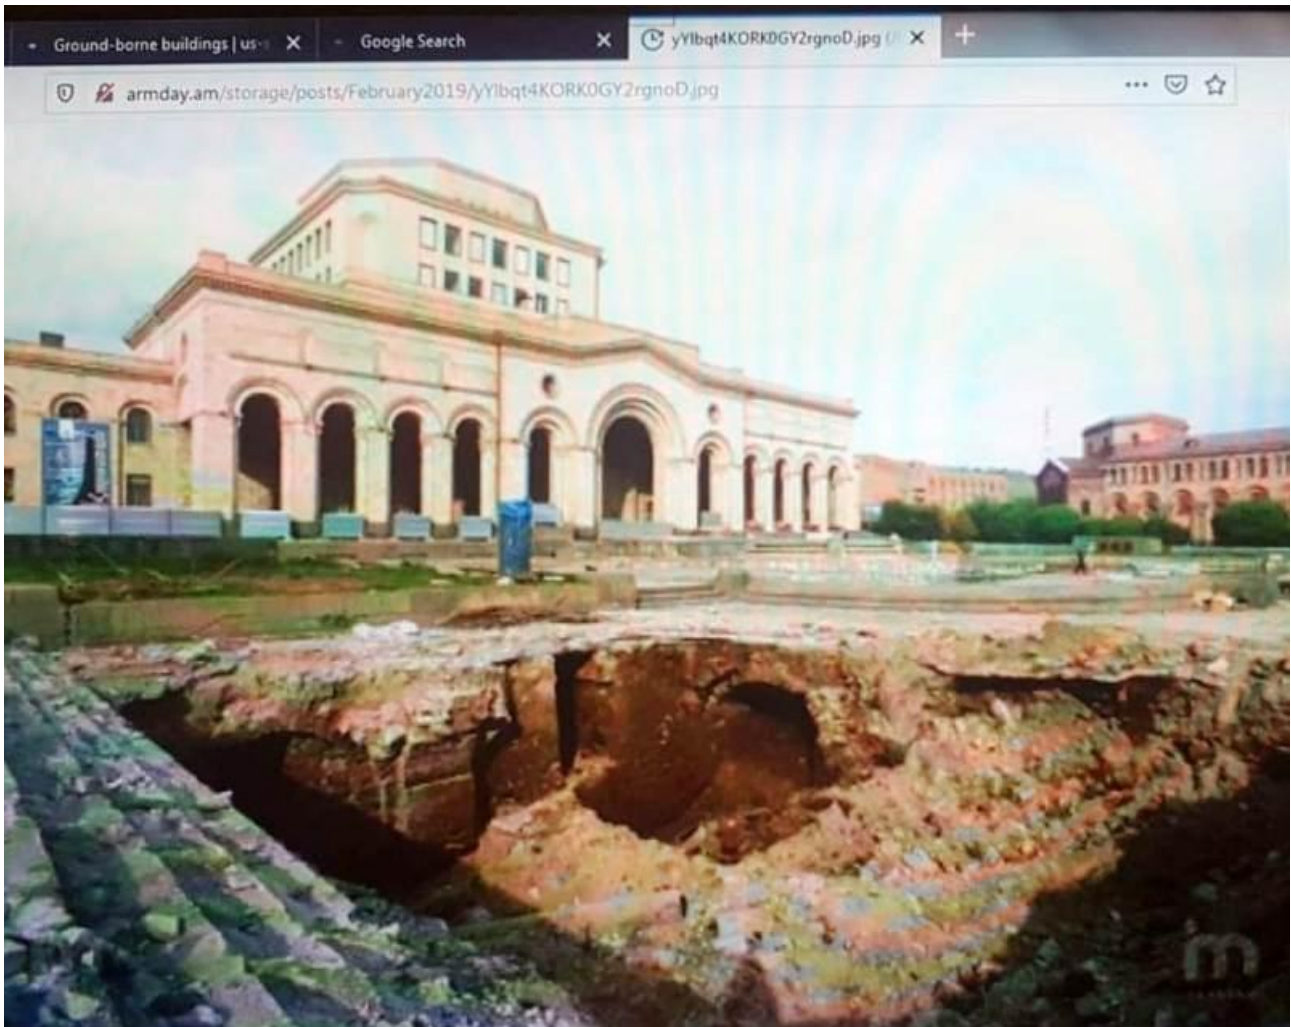

Around the corner, on the left hand side of the building, there was clear evidence that a big part of the building was buried underground. Below is a photo showing the left hand side of the building more clearly

Many researchers noted that many people who had never even been to Omsk city or to Siberia, were telling lies and making false claims, that no other buildings in Omsk city apart from Omsk Museum, were buried below today's ground level. But, in fact many buildings throughout the city and throughout Siberia are buried below today's ground level.

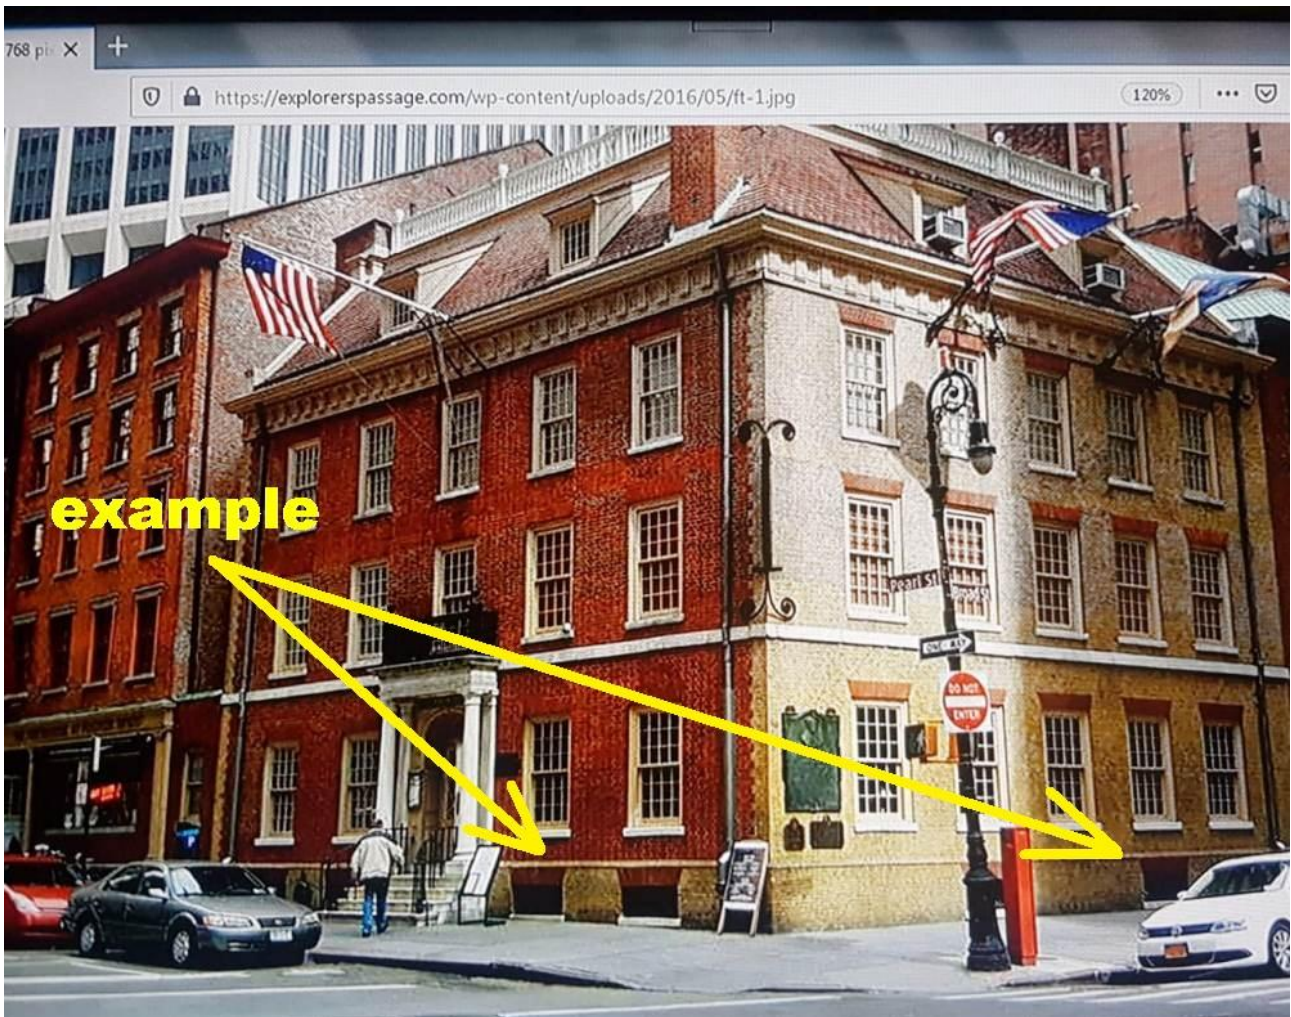

This is true history - some researchers say - and that the reason why these buildings are buried underground is maybe because of a flood or mud flood - or maybe a global war happened a few centuries ago and advanced weapons were used that buried these buildings. Some researchers are even asking if a force from outside our world - attacked the world - which led to the burial of many cities and buildings. Researchers are divided and have not yet fully decided as to what happened worldwide and what buried these buildings underground.

Windows can be seen buried into the ground.
Thousands of older buildings around the world showed something similar.

Moscow, Russia

A few years ago, construction works were being done at the building and researchers noticed that there were windows and doors underground. The photo below shows what researchers discovered

It can be seen that the building was buried several meters underground and that the original entrance door was underground. Researchers found thousands of similar buildings in cities around the world in Europe, Australia, India, Japan, America and Africa. Many older buildings all over the world seemed to be buried underground or half buried. What the hell was going on?

There were many questions and no proper answers - why were thousands of buildings around the world buried or half buried?

Many researchers noted that many people who had never even been to Moscow or to Russia, were telling lies and making producing false photographs to destroy the truth about this topic.

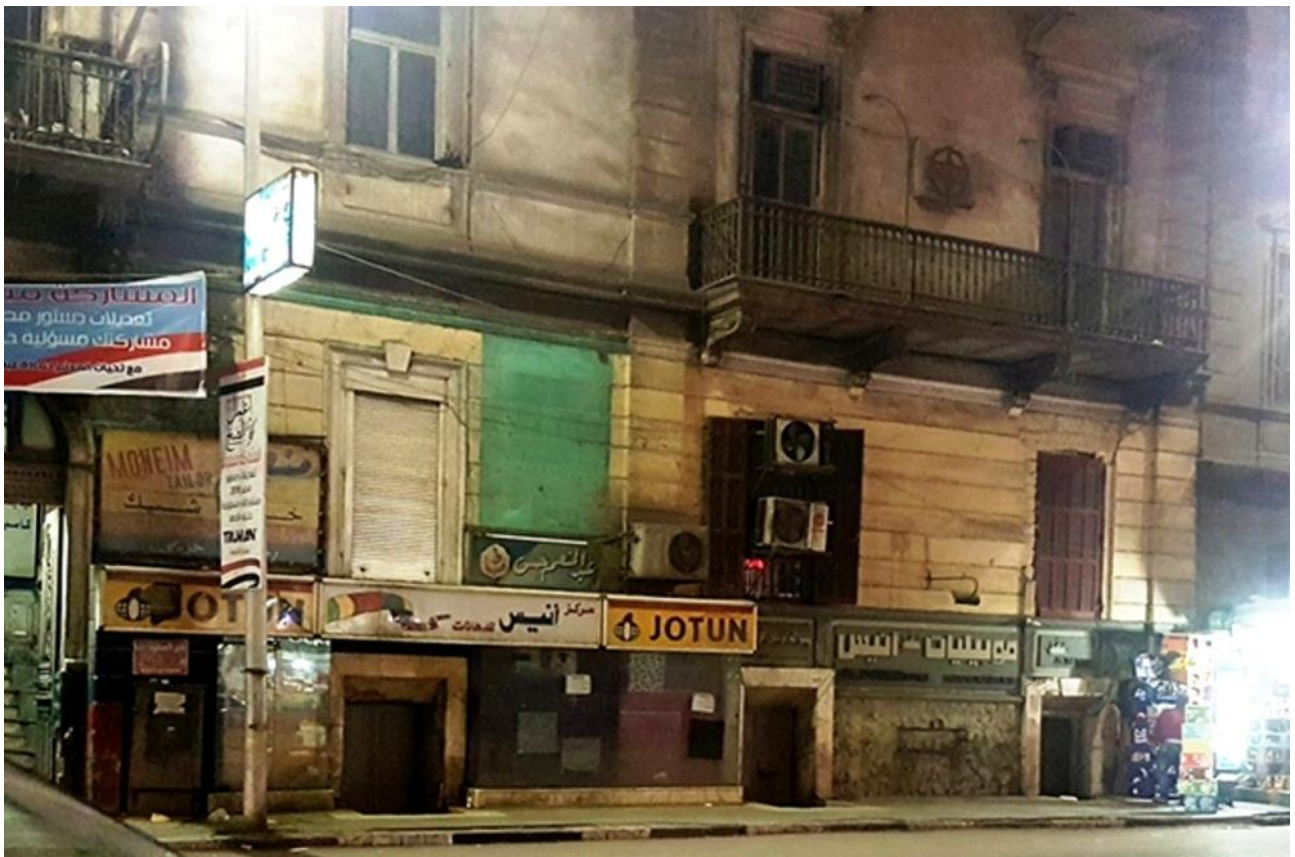

Above is a photo modification of the Polytechnic Museum, Moscow. Researchers were very careful to identify false photographs and also took note that some people were trying to falsify photographic evidence.

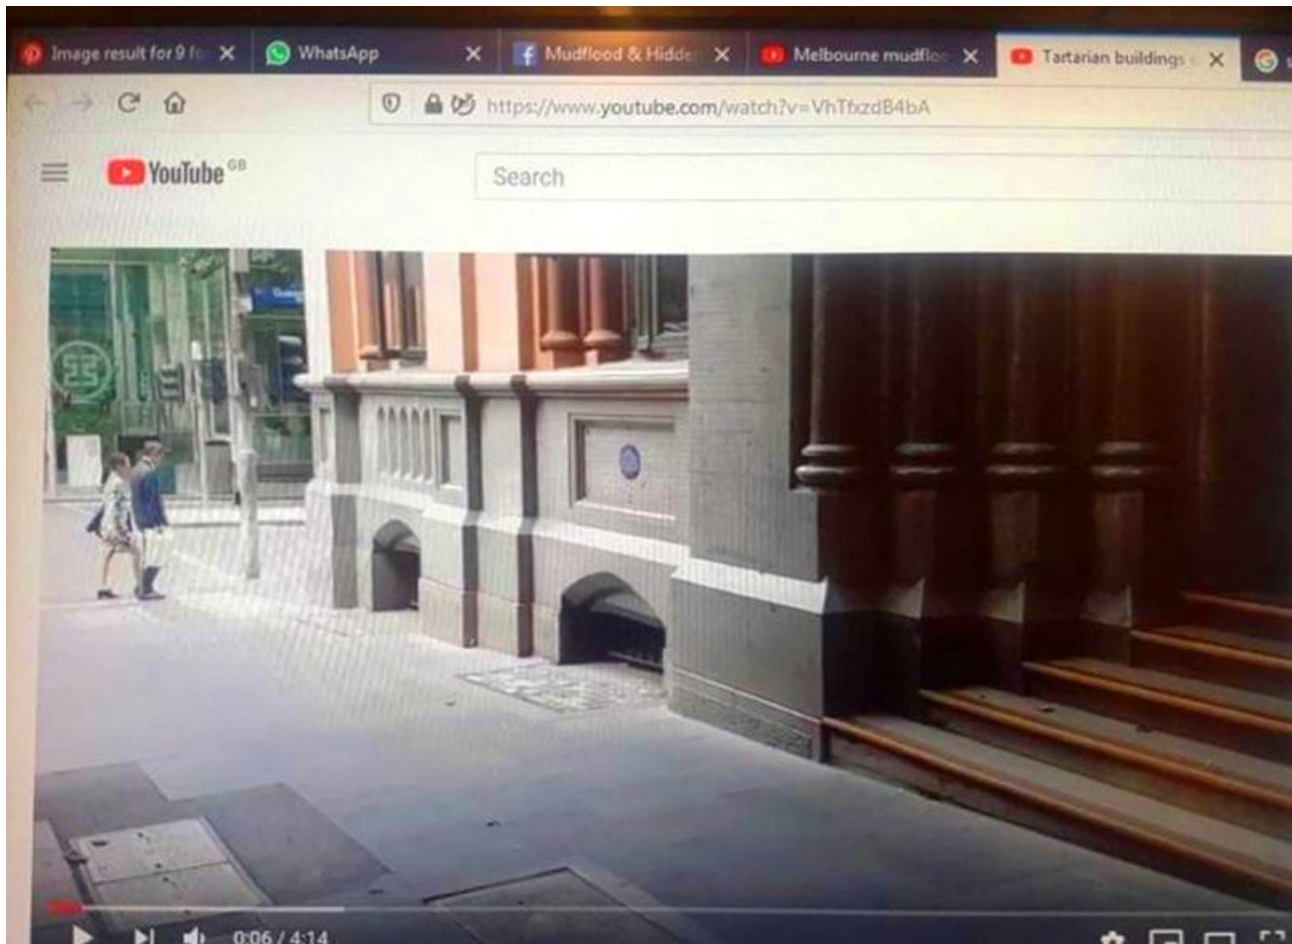

Researchers found evidence that thousands of buildings, all over the world were buried or half buried underground

Below is Melbourne - Australia - many buildings buried many feet underground and many windows and doors underground

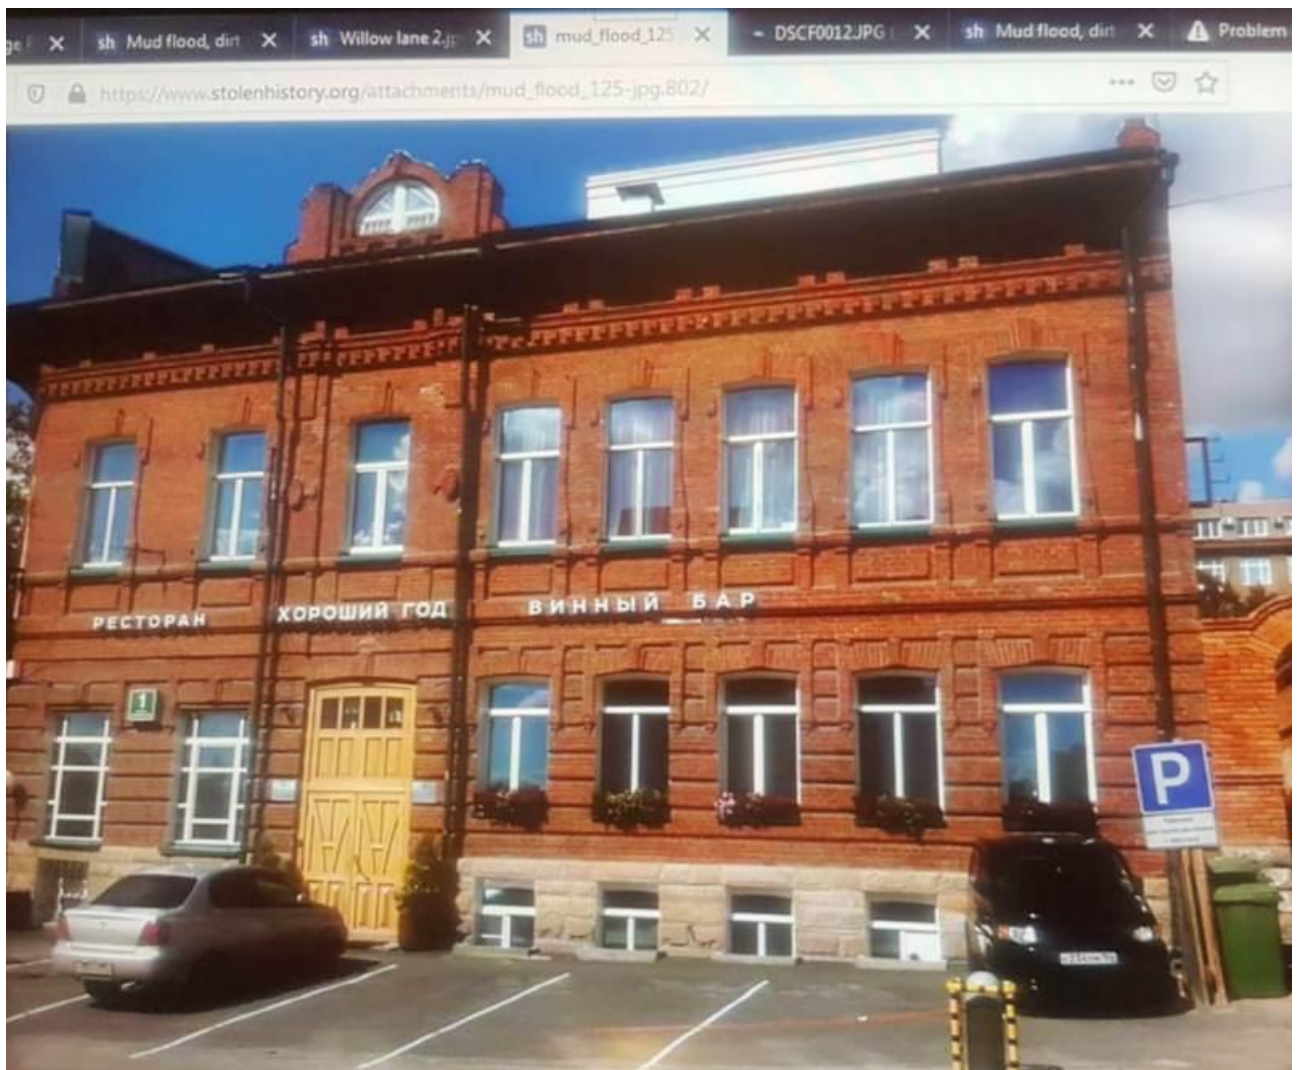

Below is Manchester - England - many buildings buried many feet underground and many windows and doors several floors underground can be seen throughout the city

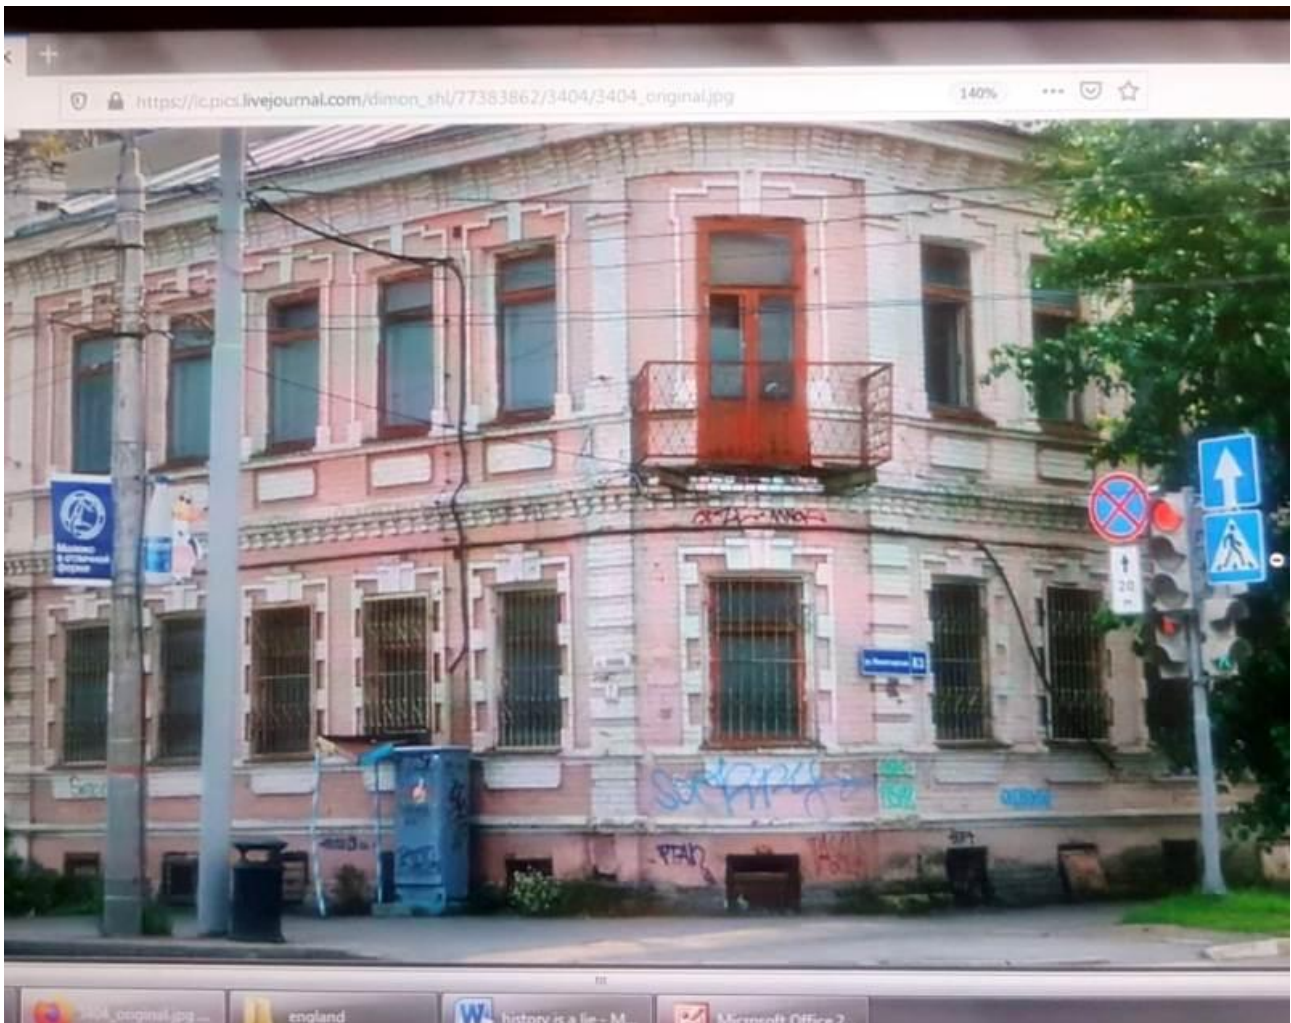

Researchers have found a strange global pattern where thousands of buildings have windows and doors buried 2 or 3 floors underground and in some cases more. The pattern shows that the ground level around the world has risen in many cities around the world maybe in the last few centuries.

This is what researchers have found to be the true history of the world.

Researchers claim that a global event such as a flood or - mud flood - or a series of global events happened - that buried large parts of the world underground.

Researchers are not sure yet when these events took place. Some researchers are investigating if it was 200 years ago, Other researchers are investigating if it was 500 years ago. And other researchers are investigating if this was part of the Great Flood of Noah. What caused these events is a subject that researchers are investigating.

This topic has become to be known as Tartaria.

Tartaria - Mud Flood - the topic is too long to write about here. Researchers have noted that many people are investigating Tartaria and many different stories and views are being formed on the subject as to what happened and how it happened and why.

Good luck if you wish to know more about these subjects. Below are books about these topics
